Ney, sweet, smile not, to know at last
That thou or I or knave or fool
Are but the involittent tool
Of some world purpose vague and vast.
No bar to passion's fury set,
With monstrous popples spice the wine,
For only drunk are we divine,
And only mad shall we forget!

—Smart Set.

Wise Old Theatre Party (over the 'phone to the Rialto show)—Kindly reserve four $1.00 seats at the box office for B. Jones. I'll call for them before 8 o'clock.

Wise Old Box Office Man—Very sorry, but the dollar seats are all gone. Nothing left but $2.00 seats, and not more than a half dozen of them in sight.

Wise Old Patron—Er—all right. Set 'em aside.

An hour later he appears with his party and confidently laying down the money, says: "Four $1.00 seats, please." Promptly gets them.

Five minutes later the Box Office Man returns the $2 seats to the case and roundly condemns B. Jones to the everlasting for cutting out the show.

SMART WEDDINGS.

And every other event where cards, invitations or anything which should be handsomely engraved is used, there is just one place in the intermountain country to have your order properly attended to.

The place is known to smart people as the Held Engraving Company, about half way between the Temple and the corner where the cars stop.

Easy enough to find us, or a written or telephone order will receive the same attention as that given in person. We want you to see our work. Notice your invitation next time you're invited to a smart wedding. If it is smart—we will have engraved the invitation.

DECLARE REGULAR DIVIDEND.

The Salt Lake Security & Trust company, Thursday declared its regular semi-annual dividend of 7 per cent.

A meeting of the directors was held at the bank building Thursday and the conference showed the institution to be in splendid shape. The dividend is payable July 1st, 1908, at the bank, 34 Main street, to stockholders of record June 20, 1908.

LUNCHES AT THE LOUVRE.

The question of lunching down town at noon-time brings to busy men and women, and to shoppers these questions—convenience, comfort, reasonableness of charges and excellence of menu. We want you to try a lunch at the Louvre.

We determined weeks ago to make our noon-day lunches as popular as our dinners and after-theater suppers and we have succeeded in making this cafe the rendezvous of the greater part of those who lunch downtown. The menu we serve for 40 cents is selected from twenty or more prepared by our chef and we are very sure that you cannot get as good for the money anywhere else.

If you are back from an Eastern trip or from a run to the coast drop in and see if our service, our music and the quality and preparation of everything we serve doesn't compare more than favorably with the finest cafes you visited in the larger cities.

We have the finest cuisine department of any cafe in the west. It is the most modern and sanitary money could put in.

In any way we are prepared to give our patrons the best of care.
