

Hamilton's
CORRECT DRESS FOR WOMEN.
216 SOUTH MAIN ST.

THE English language does not supply a term which adequately describes the combination of style, beauty, elegance and distinctiveness at the shop of correct dress for women.

In such an emergency it seems permissible to coin a word and call them Hamiltonian.

Every Attention Given Out of Town Orders

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Hines and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Burrell received, in addition to the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Burrell will be at home after July 15th at 585 Ninth Avenue.

Marcel—the great and only—is bound westwards.

The Parisian hair dresser is at present the lion of the hour in London. He has announced that he is going to New York and then through to San Francisco. That may or may not mean that he'll stick his monocle in his eye and squint around at the coiffures gathered in local drawing rooms to hear him lecture on "Coiffures Possible and Impossible."

Marcel is very wealthy, and the billowy, undulating "Marcel wave," which he originated, is responsible.

A pretty wedding of the early part of the week was that of Miss Ruby Grose and E. H. Gamette, at the home of the bride's parents. Only immediate friends were present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Gamette will be at home at 21 Wellington Court after July 1st.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hanchett entertained a party of twelve friends at a dinner in honor of Lafayette Hanchett's mother, of Denver, who is visiting here. The house was beautifully decorated with carnations and ferns.

Mrs. George Sutherland and her daughter, Miss Edith, returned from the east the early part of the week, and will be at home for the summer in the home of E. S. Ellerbeck at 75 C street.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Morris Forbes entertained at a tea in honor of Mrs. C. S. Morrison of Colorado Springs. The house was prettily decorated with roses, and the table decorations were especially artistic. Mrs. Partridge, mother of the hostess, assisted in receiving, with Mrs. William D. Foster, Miss Annie Adams and Miss Bessie Home serving in the dining room.

The engagement of Miss Emily Raleigh to John S. Barker has been announced.

Mrs. M. H. Kervin and daughter are in town from Reno, Nevada, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cosgriff. Miss Mary Kervin will arrive later.

Henry McCornick entertained at the Country Club Thursday evening.

The charity card parties inaugurated at the Country Club Monday afternoon will be given every month during the summer, so successful was Monday's affair.

Captain and Mr. Willis Uline entertained at bridge for Mrs. W. A. Moon and Miss Burkhalter early in the week.

Mr and Mrs. George Y. Wallace are off on their trip to Alaska and the Pacific Northwest.

Mrs. Frank B. Stephens entertained at a luncheon at her home Tuesday.

THE ROYAL WAY.

In the bakery or in the cafe is one of perfect cleanliness. That is the real reason of the popularity of the Royal. Drop in at the lunch hour and find out how nice everything is, or drop in between meals and take a look at the cleanest kitchen in the west.
