

Hamilton's
CORRECT DRESS FOR WOMEN.
216 SOUTH MAIN ST.

THE English language does not supply a term which adequately describes the combination of style, beauty, elegance and distinctiveness at the shop of correct dress for women.

In such an emergency it seems permissible to coin a word and call them Hamiltonian.

Every Attention Given Out of Town Orders

Miss Romona King entertains for her guest, Miss Leigh Whittemore, Wednesday afternoon at the Orpheum.

The largest town wedding of the week was that of Miss Nellie Turner and Wayne McFadden, who were married at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening. A reception for about seventy-five guests followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McFadden go to Tonopah.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hervey Pettingell of New York arrived at the Wilson yesterday from Reno, Nevada. They are en route to Denver and Colorado Springs, where they will open up their home after a three months' sojourn on the Pacific coast and the principal Nevada mining camps.

Mrs. George C. Moore entertained at a delightful tea at her apartments in the Bransford, on Wednesday. The Misses Mary and Georgelda Moore and Mrs. M. A. Stingley assisted in receiving. Over one hundred were received during the afternoon.

The bridge tea given yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the Orphans' Home by Mrs. Elizabeth Bonnemort drew a very large number of guests and was splendidly successful.

Miss Margaret Warner entertained Wednesday afternoon at a large tea to meet her guest, Miss June Whittemore of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Russel L. Tracy leaves today for her Yellowstone trip.

Friends about town have kept Colonel Holmes busy with some mighty interesting tales of his trip in Egypt and Europe, where he has been for the past two years.

The call of the wild is over for Hetty Green. Hoboken claims its own again, after Hetty pried some $500 or $700 loose from her millions, hired a $10,000 a year suite in the Plaza, New York, and cut into the rapid set for a month or two with her daughter. New York society journals are commenting at length on the dinner she gave at the Plaza before she moved her suit case out. The following menu is enough to show the chance the sixteen guests took when they accepted the merry widow's dinner bid:

- Canape de Caviar.
- Consomme de Viveur.
- Filets de Sole Marquise.
- Baron d'Agneau a la Grecque
- Veloute de Haricot Verts.
- Asperges Vertes Speciales, Sauce Polonaise.
- Poissons desosses Alexis.
- Salade de Romaine. Mousse Cubaine.
- Petits Fours.
- Bonbons.
- Cafe.
- WINES.
- Amontillado. Delicioso. Berncastler Doctor.
- Chambertin.
- G. H. Mumm Extra Dry.

THE ROYAL WAY.

In the bakery or in the cafe is one of perfect cleanliness. That is the real reason of the popularity of the Royal. Drop in at the lunch hour and find out how nice everything is, or drop in between meals and take a look at the cleanest kitchen in the west.
