will run along into October, and will include two flights, the minor events will not be permitted to interfere. September play for the women's handicap cup will also start next week.

Irving Armstrong has returned. He took Walker Salisbury's clubs Wednesday, and played a foursome with Frank McGurran, Frank Judge and the writer. What he said about Walker's clubs was a scandal, but as his own will be along in a day or two, and as Armstrong plays a corking good game, there is more trouble ahead, lots of it, for those who look longingly at the championship cup.

Dr. McCrimmon won the championship of the Butte Cuntry Club last Saturday from G. M. Donnelly, 2 up 1 to play. Donnelly was 2 up at the end of the first 18 holes, but the Doc. caught him.

The tennis tournament has furnished three distinct surprises within a week. The defeat of O. J. Salisbury was the first upset for the talent, and was considered quite a wonderful performance, inasmuch as Gannett has been in the game only a comparatively short time.

Then after his form of Saturday, the next surprise was the whirlwind work of Walker Salisbury, who took the honors from Gannett in double time, and following this, when the wise ones had conceded a victor to Salisbury over Frank Roberts, the latter took three sets out of four, and is now ready to attempt to wrest the laurels from Sam Neel. All in all, the performances in the men's singles have been the most interesting events of the tournament, and go to show that Salt Lake can boast of a great deal of talent among its tennis experts.

Stephen Lauzanne, the French editor, may call Mr. Harriman "King of American Railroads," but Wallace is the prince of collectors. 324, D. F. Walker Bldg. Phones 1069. Send for folder.
