district attorney, is probably as strong a ticket as the Democrats have ever put in the field for the district bench.

The platform adopted by the church convention after half a dozen delegates had roasted the platform committee on its effort, is a work of art. It says nothing, stands for nothing, and is about as backboneless and meaningless as was possible to make it and still call it a platform.

Joe Sharp has been picked early in the game for sheriff, and what little strength was evidenced during the convention by W. S. Naylor was lost when the move was started to nominate Sharp by acclamation.

With Fred J. A. Jacques on the ticket for recorder, Frank Heginbotham for auditor, A. S. Gabbot for assessor, J. A. Groesbeck for treasurer and J. B. Swenson for surveyor, the convention wound up its work shortly after midnight without any further breaks in the slate.
