

tensions, new ore rates, new policies, new word about the smelting world and metal markets were glittering before the eyes of the boys after news. The two big fellows greeted the boys warmly, and without the flip of an eyelash informed the inquirers that they had come west for the one purpose of hunting ducks. Both are members of the Bear River club and both left town early Wednesday in top boots and corduroys to be in at the beginning of the fun.

What do you know about the way Town Topics refers to the encampment of the Grand Army in this city next year? It says:

"Vice-Commander Scott mentioned that Atlanta would be glad to welcome the Grand Encampment in 1910. Good! We shall never have a real union until the veterans of the Grand Army are equally at home in the South as in the North. Besides, next year's encampment is at Salt Lake City, and delegates may require purification."

A great suggestion. What a blessing it would be if Town Topics were published here.

Sister Ann—Did yer get any marks at school terday, Bill? Bill—Yus, but they're where they don't show.—Sketch.

Miss Sweetner—Isn't it laughable to see the youthful airs Fan Billiwink gives herself? She must be at least ten years older than I am. Miss Capsicum—Fully—and you wouldn't tear under the wing, you know, either.—Chicago Record-Herald.

MARY!

Mary had a shapely limb,
Her skirts were white as snow,
And everywhere that Mary went
The wind was sure to blow.

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING.

Is a remark that applies to a number of places and things, but which is just reversed in speaking of the Louvre Rathskeller. The fact of the matter is that people can't get enough of the Louvre—it isn't big enough always to accommodate the crowds, and the safe thing to do if you are figuring on a little touch of Bohemia in the popular cafe after the theater, is to order a table early in the day, so that you will not be disappointed.

Lots of people these days who happen to know beforehand just how many are going to be in their party order their repasts so they will be ready immediately after the theater. It's a good idea—try it yourself and see what a dainty supper your guests will have. A minute on either phone will do it.

To the Candidate for Office

Who has not already taken advantage of

A Press Clipping Service

We wish to remark that he is either a stranger in the public eye; has never been shown how valuable a press clipping service is to him; or else has been a failure in politics so long that it isn't any object to him to see what is said about him.

¶ But if he is up and doing—no matter who or what—and regardless of the political party with which he is affiliated, a complete newspaper record of everything said about him

Is Sure to Prove Invaluable

In our notable list of subscribers there are United States Senators, Congressmen, Governors, Judges, and men in every political position, even members of the legislature and city councilmen, and while we do not guarantee that everything we send them will be conducive to their peace of mind, we do guarantee that the service will be complete and the price will appeal to them

If you're running for office you can judge fairly well from our Press Clipping Service how fast you're running

The clippings are on your desk every morning at a nominal price

Go to the telephone right now if you live in town and after getting 301 on the Bell or 302 on the Independent give us your order for all newspaper reference to your candidacy.

If you're not in town, order immediately by letter so you will miss none of the items.

In our own office and through our exchange bureaus we read everything published in America every day. So it's pretty hard to miss what you want us to find.
