come forward with that thousand and see if the lady means it?

Just a month from today the annual charity ball of the Hospital Aid society will take place at the Odeon, and when a charming bevy of ladies file into your office and ask you how many tickets you want, any day between now and the day of the ball, go for as many as you can stand, for theirs is a worthy charity, deserving of all the shekels they can gather. The committees appointed during the week to complete all arrangements to make the ball a complete success are Mrs. W. Montague Ferry, Mrs. F. S. Bascom, Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. W. P. Kiser, Mrs. W. H. Child, Mrs. Warren Benjamin, Mrs. Russell Tracy, Mrs. William Igleheart, Mrs. A. J. Gorham, Mrs. William Jennings, Mrs. Sol Siegel, Mrs. J. A. Reeves, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. W. H. Bancroft, Mrs. C. R. Pearzall, Mrs. W. E. McGrath, Mrs. Samuel Paul, Mrs. J. E. Galigher, Mrs. Rachael Miller, Mrs. R. A. Broadhurst, Mrs. G. G. Verbryck, Mrs. C. H. McMahon and Mrs. Howat.

The bridge tea given by Mrs. Ferdinand J. Fablan on Wednesday for Mrs. William C. Hall of Los Angeles was a most delightful affair, attended by thirty of the old friends of Mrs. Hall.

For Miss Jean Odell, Mrs. Grant Hampton entertained at a prettily arranged Japanese card party on Wednesday. The Japanese effect in the lights, the blossoms and the favors was strikingly beautiful, the affair being enjoyed by half a hundred guests.

Mrs. Don Porter and Mrs. Sam Porter again entertained at bridge at the home of the latter on Thursday.

The marriage of Miss Janet Shearer Peterson of San Francisco and J. N. Davis of this city took place in San Francisco on Wednesday evening. The wedding was the occasion of no little local interest, where the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, after a wedding trip to Mexico, will be the signal for a large number of affairs in their honor. Upon their arrival in this city they will be at home at the Bransford.

One of the prettiest affairs of Tuesday evening was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle. Covers were laid for ten.

At the home of Mrs. Charles Read on O street, Mrs. Read and Mrs. Eimer Darling entertained at a beautiful tea on Tuesday, the decorations of autumn leaves and flowers adding a wealth of warmth and beauty to the pretty home. A large number of their friends called during the receiving hours and the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Russell Tracy, Mrs. Karl A. Scheid, Mrs. T. D. Lewis, Mrs. George Atris, Miss Ellerbeck, Miss Mayne, Miss Darling and Miss Karrick.

An informal tea, charming in all its appointments, was given by Mrs. A. J. Gorham on Tuesday, at which she was assisted by Miss Ethel Paul and Miss Decker.

Miss Pearl Van Cott entertained at the first meeting of the bridge tournament on Monday. A number of the girls of the younger set and several of the younger matrons are in the tournament, which will hold its next meeting at the home of Miss Eudora Daly.

Colonel and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes entertained at a beautiful dinner on Monday in honor of their distinguished guest, Senator Albert Beveridge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bird entertained at bridge on Monday afternoon.

THE KEY TO SUCCESS IS MONEY IN THE BANK

Opportunities

Come every day to men with money. Has yours come? WERE YOU READY? A savings account started a few years ago would come in handy now. Start it now; in a few years you will be the man ready with the money.

We will pay you 4 per cent interest on the money you put in our bank and compound the interest every six months.

What to do with one's hands

Carry a Walking Stick.

'Tis the season of all the year for walking. A good stick is company, like a pipe.

Stylish, too. Swing it occasionally, if you feel energetic.

For inclement weather an Umbrella.

We can suit you with both.
