

Social Saunterings

The social season is on in deadly earnest at last and there won't be a chance for very much rest from now until the beginning of Lent—not that modern society pays any particular attention to Lent but, it likes to have that sort of thing said. The season of the long motor rides in the country and the house parties is almost over, and so it will be easier to arrange the town affairs without disarranging the cliques. Nearly everybody will stay in town until after the holidays, when the usual February exodus to California will probably take place. It is surprising how many society women are holding their husbands to the pre-election promise of a trip in case of Taft's election, and the poor men suddenly find themselves face to face with a condition where they must force prosperity.

It has been a very busy week for the smart set, and it isn't over yet, for the Arthur Callaghans will give an elaborate dinner at their home tonight in honor of Miss Van Wyck, the sister of Mrs. Callaghan, who is visiting here for a few days before going abroad.

Mrs. E. O. Howard will give a bridge tea this afternoon for Miss Baker, the niece of Mrs. Edward S. Ferry. Of course, all of the younger set will be in attendance, and it is possible that a few of the older ones will be allowed, so the order of things which usually finishes the indoor entertainments for the week on Friday night, will be slightly changed, and a large part of society will be busy most of the day.

In honor of his guests, Mr. Ryder and Captain Pollen, Samuel Newhouse entertained a dozen friends at a theater party on Tuesday night, followed by a supper at the Louvre. After the supper the sights incident to election night were witnessed from the motors before the guests returned to their homes.

A brilliant reception was that which took place at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Walter Scott at Fort Douglas on Wednesday evening. The affair was in honor of a number of visitors who are here, among them being Mrs. and Miss Ward of San Francisco; Mrs. Power of St. Paul, Miss Bradley of San Francisco, and Miss Stubblefield of Nashville. Colonel and Mrs. Scott were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. Harker, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Arrasmith and Miss Cowles. The Fort orchestra rendered delightful music during the hours of the reception, which was attended by about a hundred friends of Colonel and Mrs. Scott.

Miss Coman and Miss Steers, the impresarios, who have so many friends here among those who know who's who that they can almost call this city home, will be in Salt Lake for the opening of the Colonial theater. They will be here in a fortnight and will be the guests at a large dinner which is being arranged in their honor.

Judge and Mrs. Chas. S. Zane have announced the engagement of their daughter, Agnes Marie, to Captain William E. Cavanaugh, of the Fifteenth U. S. Infantry.

The wedding will take place at St. Mark's Cathedral, on Wednesday, December 2d, and will be a quiet affair, owing to the illness of the bride's mother.

The bride will be attended by Miss Katheryn enjoys that popularity which comes with the charm of a fine personality.

Captain Cavanaugh, who is one of the most popular officers at the Fort, is a splendid fellow, who, since his arrival here, has added a long list of civilians to his host of good friends.

A most elaborate and delightful tea was that given by Mrs. William McCaskell on Thursday afternoon, attended by about two hundred ladies, at her apartments at Whitehall.

Miss Katheryn Geddes and Miss Addie Zane were the guests of honor at a bridge tea given by Mrs. George J. Gibson at her home on Wednesday. The tea was a co-educational event, a number of the men arriving late in the afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Gibson at the pretty affair were Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mrs. E. O. Howard, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Mrs. Walter G. Filer, Miss Gertrude McGrath and Miss Kate Williams.

Mrs. George R. Hancock and Miss Hancock were the hostesses at a large reception on Thursday afternoon, which took place at their residence on Seventh East.

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes has issued invitations for a large tea, which will take place at the Amelia Palace on Tuesday next.

A very beautiful dinner was given at the Alta club on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell, who entertained in honor of their daughter, Miss Jean Odell, and Dr. H. P. Kirtley and their bridal party.

Mrs. J. E. Jennings will be the hostess at a bridge tea which will take place next Wednesday.

Mrs. A. Fred Wey and Mrs. Vaughn Paul entertained at cards at their home on Monday and Thursday afternoons. The affairs were among the most delightful events of the week.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury and Mrs. Lewis McCornick left for the East yesterday, where they will remain until the holidays.

A beautiful luncheon was that given Wednesday by Miss Minette Baer in honor of Miss Helen Maynard. Miss Maynard and her bridal party will be the guests at a dinner at the University club on Monday evening, given by Miss Ione Morrison.

Dear Society Reporter: Please when you talk about Mrs. John Brown and wish to say Brown, Miss Agnes Marie Zane, whose marriage to Captain Cavanaugh, will take place December 2d.

Geddes as maid of honor, and Captain Thomas Harker will be best man for Captain Cavanaugh.

The announcement was hardly a surprise to the large number of friends of Miss Zane and Captain Cavanaugh, who had previously been informed of the engagement. The wedding will be the most important society event scheduled for the first week in December, as the most intimate friends of the principals will attend the affair, and among them are numbered nearly all those representing the older families of this city, among whom Miss Zane occupies a prominent place, and

Kindling a Blaze

Of enthusiasm, is the result produced with our thousands of customers since installing our

Great Water Softener and Filtering Plant

Good work cannot be produced with the hard lime contained in city water.

Soft Water whitens the white goods, brightens the colored goods, prolongs the life of all fabrics.

TROY LAUNDRY

Both Phones 192

The Laundry of Quality

166 Main Street

For Rough or Chapped Skin

Use a little of our

Benzoin and Almond Lotion

25c BOTTLES—Healing and Softening

SCHRAMM'S

Where the Cars Stop

DRUG FURNISHERS