

After November 15th, owing to the rapidly increasing business on the Los Angeles Limited, a twelve section, electric lighted sleeper will be added to this train on the Salt Lake Route. This will be on the west bound train from Salt Lake to Los Angeles daily, and will be put on to take care of the passengers from the inter-mountain region, as well as those from Colorado and the northwest.

This innovation will meet a long felt want, as it practically means the saving of twelve hours' time for passengers from these states. The road is to be congratulated on this new departure.

Discussing the dangers of immoderate saving, Prof. Zubelin said the other day:

"It's by saving immoderately that we come to inserting want advertisements like the one I saw recently—'Wanted, capable office boy; salary, $1 a week.'

"A young man of Seminary avenue, noticing this advertisement, couldn't resist replying to it. His reply ran:

"I beg to offer you my services. Should you require a premium I could furnish $500. You do not mention Sundays—should I have to work on that day? Neither do you state whether the ap-

SONG.

By Brian Hooker.

Dear, though you wander over peace and passion,
Searching the days to prove yourself untrue,
You can not hide me. Still, in my own fashion,
I shall come back to you.

In other eyes, on lips that bid you doubt me,
In music, in the little things we knew,
In your blind prayers for happiness without me—
I shall come back to you.

God keep you safe through all the ache of learning,
Through all the wrong you need to be and do,
Till in the wise joy of unfeared yearning
I shall come back—I shall come back to you!
—Harper's Monthly.

AN EPIGRAM AND AN AD.

Prof. Charles Zubelin, the brilliant and original sociologist of the University of Chicago, enunciated before the League of Political Education in New York a superb epigram:

"He who begins with saving, to protect his family may end with neglecting his family to save."

plicant must be clothed or not, but I have concluded that he must at least wear trousers, or he would be unable to carry home his wages.'"—Washington Star.
