

Social Saunterings

Among those who lay claim to the most prominent places under the social spotlight there are a score or two who are ready for a tonic and the simple life for a few hours at least. The week has been so strenuous in the social world that it tried even the resourcefulness of the oldest staggers, who, through the years, have learned to put forty-eight hours into twenty-four and defy the sandman for a week at a time.

There have been dinners and luncheons and teas galore, and informal affairs too numerous to mention, all of which have proven temporarily fulgurant to the social butterflies, but tended to destroy a little of their lustre.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week was the wedding of Miss Silvia Cohn and Mr. Hugo Druehl of this city, which took place in New York on Thursday and which was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cohn, the parents of the bride, Miss Jennie Cohn, Miss Stella Cohn and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Druehl, father and mother of the groom. The announcement last week followed by the ceremony a day or two after the arrival of the bride from abroad was a great surprise to all but their most intimate friends. Upon their return here, where they will make their future home, they will be happily welcomed by those who, owing to the secrecy regarding the time of the ceremony, were unable to send their felicitations.

The audience at the Salt Lake Theater on Thursday night exceeded in brilliant appearance any since that of the opera season a year ago. It was merely an indication of what might happen right along in the event of new stage successes taking the place of the repeaters that we have had here all season. Taken in its entirety, it was one of the best appearing audiences that has ever been seen at the theater.

The attention of society on Wednesday was centered in the Odell-Kirtley and Maynard-Ireland weddings, the former taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell, and the latter ceremony being held at St. Mark's cathedral at high noon.

The wedding of Miss Adelaide Eugena Odell and Dr. Howard P. Kirtley was a very beautiful event. Only the relatives and most intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, but the reception which followed was attended by hundreds of the friends of the young couple. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, the Rev. E. I. Goshen officiating. The bride was attended by Mrs. J. H. Richards as matron of honor and Miss Beth Critch-low and Miss Marie Odell as bridesmaids, the attractive color scheme of white and pale blue being prettily arranged in the gowns of the ladies of the bridal party. Messrs. Luther and Charles Kirtley were the groomsmen. The Odell home was beautifully decorated in blossoms and ribbons, carrying out the dainty colors. The living

Mrs. Charles E. Power of St. Paul—the latest addition to the younger married set room and dining room were especially attractive in the method of decoration. Those assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell, Mrs. O. A. Kirtley, Mrs. Grant Hampton, Mrs. W. H. Bird, Mrs. J. F. Grant, Mrs. T. G. Odell, Mrs. Roy Hampton, Mrs. W. M. Hunt and Miss Addie Hampton.

In the presence of a large number of friends, Miss Helen Nelson Maynard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Maynard, and Mr. Gordon Ireland of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ireland of Springfield, Mass., were married at St. Mark's cathedral at noon on Wednesday, Bishop F. S. Spalding officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Georgia Eldred of Jackson, Mich. Henry Brigham of Boston was best man, and the ushers were Nelson Maynard and Garrett Wilkins.

The wedding of Miss Maynard and Mr. Ireland was a very pretty affair and following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Alta club, preceding the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Ireland for their New York home.

Mr. Newhouse added two beautiful dinners and a theater party to his list during the week, the dinner given by him for Miss Zane, Miss Geddes, Captain Conrad and Captain Cavanaugh in the gold room at the Alta club on Tuesday night eclipsing any evening event which has taken place at the club this season. Covers were laid for thirty-four guests, the large oval table being gorgeous in rare roses, arranged in the form of a large basket, with golden lights curving from the table to the electroler, forming the handles.

There will be a large number of theater parties at the Colonial theater on the opening night, the boxes being taken by a number of those who are usually seen among the first nighters. All of the boxes will be occupied by local people with the exception of that reserved for Mr. Heilig and Mr. Cort. Mr. G. S. Auerbach will entertain a number of his friends and the remaining seats will be reserved for local patrons.

For the international exhibition of popular art, which will take place in Berlin in February, and for which Mrs. Clarence E. Allen is the local chairman, those who have loaned articles for the exhibit are Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. C. S. Vadner, Mrs. Emil Lehman, Mrs. R. U. Siegel, Mrs. A. J. Hosmer, Mrs. G. P. Holman, Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mrs. W. W. Chisholm, Mrs. H. P. Myton, Mrs. Charles Watson, Mrs. Adrian Ellis, Miss Helen Crawford, Mrs. A. T. Moon, Mrs. A. F. Rowan, Mrs. J. M. Dart, Mrs. P. A. Simpkin, Mrs. S. W. Morrison, Mrs. J. C. Weeter and Professor Byron Cummings.

Mr. J. C. Robertson of Goldfield, Nev., who is associated with John Donnellan, formerly of this city, spent several days here during the week as the guest of some old friends. Mr. Robertson is on his way to his old home in Virginia, and before returning will go to New York on business. He

Kindling a Blaze

Of enthusiasm, is the result produced with our thousands of customers since installing our

Great Water Softener and Filtering Plant

Good work cannot be produced with the hard lime contained in city water.

Soft Water whitens the white goods, brightens the colored goods, prolongs the life of all fabrics.

TROY LAUNDRY

Both Phones 192

The Laundry of Quality

166 Main Street

For Rough or Chapped Skin

Use a little of our

Benzoin and Almond Lotion

25c BOTTLES—Healing and Softening

SCHRAMM'S

Where the Cars Stop

DRUG FURNISHERS