

When you order chocolates just say--McDonald's--and then you can't miss it.

If a certain stock of chocolates is slow selling, the clerk may be disposed to offer you that which has been on the shelf longest. Again smile and say, "McDonald's, please."

under unusually favorable conditions, as under arrangements perfected with the management of the Colonial all the concerts will be held in that theater this season. Director J. J. McClellan of the orchestra has arranged an excellent program for the opening concert. Mr. Spencer Clawson, Jr. will be the piano soloist of the evening and his talents will have ample scope in a concerto of Beethoven, with full orchestra accompaniment. The seat sale will begin next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock and the concert will start at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 29th. The program is as follows:

1. Fourth Movement from "Italian" Symphony (No. 4), opus. 90, Sattarello (Presto).....Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy
2. Prelude to "Lohengrin".....Richard Wagner
3. Concerto for Piano and Orchestra, No. 5, Opus. 73.....Ludwig von Beethoven
Intermission.
4. Selection from "Madam Butterfly".....Giacomo Puccini
5. (a) "Trauenerel".....Robert Schumann
(b) "The Rosary".....Ethelbert Nevin
6. March from "Tannhauser".....Richard Wagner

The regular season at the Colonial opens Sunday night with Murray and Mack, two clever Irish comedians, in a musical farce entitled "The Sunny Side of Broadway." The piece is one of the popular comedy hits of the past two seasons, and it is announced that the company this year includes a pretty chorus, a number of excellent singers and the two stars, Murray and Mack. The music of the piece is by Boyle Woolfolk, who is rapidly coming to the front as one of the best lyric and musical writers of the country. There will be matinees Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons.

There will probably be a large attendance at the Hartmann concert at the First Methodist church tonight. Much interest has been manifested among local music lovers over the program to be rendered by the violinist, and beyond a doubt the concert will be one of the musical treats of the year.

The concert is under the direction of Fred Graham.

With the "Alaskan" and "Isle of Spice" at the Theater next week, Murray and Mack, in a musical farce at the Colonial, and the Orpheum offering a bill numbering two or three musical acts, the week ahead looks tuneful, to say nothing of a few dozen chorus girls.
