Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bellinger have gone to Spokane for a brief visit. They will sail for Australia about the first of the year where they will make their home.

Mrs. Arthur S. Bird entertained at her home at a luncheon on East First South street, on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. A. C. McLean and Miss Aileen McLean are being welcomed home after a sojourn of several months in the east.

Mrs. W. A. Purviance entertained the brige club at the Fort on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. R. Walker entertained informally on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Charles Henrotin.

An interesting wedding which took place at high noon on Wednesday at the First Congregational Church, was that of Miss Clara M. Hall and John H. Roe, Jr., the Rev. Elmer I. Goslin officiating. It was attended by a large number of their friends and the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Following the wedding a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Roe left on their wedding trip. They will be at home at 763 Fourth Avenue, after January 1st.

Wednesday was a day of weddings and that of Miss Maude Wheeler and Walter E. Evans which took place at the First Presbyterian Church in the evening was among the important events of the day. Dr. W. M. Paden performed the ceremony which was followed by a large reception. Mr. and Mrs. Evans are spending their honeymoon in southern California.

Mr. Samuel McDowell of Reno, Nevada, is a guest of Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Parmelee.

The First Methodist Church was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the week on Wednesday night, when Miss Edna Jennings and Glanville C. Barron were married by the Rev. Francis B. Short.

The church was attractively decorated and the ceremony was attended by a large number of friends of the young people. Miss Carlotta Jennings of Los Angeles was the maid-of-honor, Grace Jennings, a niece of the bride, the flower girl, and the ushers were W. W. Sickles, G. W. McDonald, Edwin R. Fiske, H. B. Goodwin and Mr. Jenkins. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peabody, and later Mr. and Mrs. Barron left on their wedding trip. After January first they will be at home at 179 W. First North street.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Druehl, Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Lipman entertained at an Orpheum party on Wednesday evening, followed by an elaborate supper at the Louvre. A dozen guests were present at the happy affair.
