

Goodwin's Weekly.

Vol. XIV

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, DECEMBER 12, 1908.

No. 6

We Are Appreciative of Public Preference

As a consequence we have done our utmost year by year to retain the patronage of those who look to us to supply every Clothing and Furnishing need for the man who insists on proper apparel, or for the man or woman who is buying Christmas presents for others.

From the Business Suit or Overcoat so perfectly modeled as those bearing the

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX

Sign of Superiority to their dress clothes, cut and finished in elegant simplicity; from the finest Hosiery to the smartest Hat, and in fact, for every need of the Twentieth Century Gentleman, including all of the standard and newest styles, and the best and most attractive of accessories—there is nothing that one can find lacking at this store.

It is the constant maintenance of a complete stock of all the necessities in clothing demanded by the modern man that centers the public preference here all the year around and especially during the Christmas Season.

Richardson & Adams
Company

172 Main St.

