

Social Saunterings

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Moore announce the engagement of their daughter Mary, to Jasper A. McCaskell. The date of the wedding has not been set, but it will take place within the next five or six weeks.

Since coming here a few years ago Miss Moore has been one of the most popular girls in society, her charm and vivaciousness giving her a place as one of the leading belles in the younger set. Miss Moore spent a year or two abroad with her aunt, Mrs. Samuel Newhouse, and during the London season made a distinct impression and was the recipient of much attention.

Miss Mary Moore, whose engagement to Jasper A. McCaskell is announced.

Mr. McCaskell, who is the son of Mrs. William McCaskell is very popular in society and prominent in his profession.

Mrs. Newhouse will remain here until after the wedding, which will be one of the leading society events of the winter. There will be a large number of affairs given in honor of Miss Moore and inasmuch as the event will take place so soon, the month will be a very busy one for the smart set. Mr. and Mrs. Newhouse will entertain at a number of elaborate affairs and the McCornick home will also be the scene of several notable events. Mr. McCaskell is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCornick. Mrs. McCornick and the Misses McCornick will arrive from the east within a week or two.

***

The announcement that Kenneth C. Kerr has been promoted to the position of district passenger agent of the Salt Lake Route with headquarters here will please his many friends who will rejoice in his good fortune. Mr. Kerr has held a responsible position with the road almost since its beginning and his new place is well deserved.

The fact that Mr. and Mrs. Kerr will return here to live is also pleasant news for their many friends in Salt Lake society.

***

The most beautiful dancing party of the holiday season was that given on Monday evening in Whitney hall by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Moyle.

Assisting them in the entertainment of the two hundred guests who enjoyed the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Jennings, Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr and Miss Barbara Kinnersley.

In every way it was a delightful affair, the decorations in the Christmas colors being arranged with exquisite taste and skill.

***

Whitney Hall, by the way, will be the scene of a notable gathering on Monday night when the old Home Dramatic Club, assisted by a few new amateurs, will present "Confusion." Already the demand for seats has been so great that there was an attempt made to produce the play at the Salt Lake Theatre, but it was unsuccessful. The performance will call forth one of the greatest society audiences of the winter.

***

Speaking of those who act, it will be interesting to her thousands of Salt Lake friends to know that Maude Adams has scored another great Metropolitan success in Barrie's new play, "What Every Woman Knows," which is now being produced at the Empire theatre in New York.

From the other side of the continent comes the news that Ada Dwyer Russell, who has made such a great success in Australia, will arrive in San Francisco today.

The engagement of Miss Bettye Kissel of Colorado Springs and Henry K. B. Davis, Jr., of this city is announced.

The date for the wedding has not been set, but it will take place in the spring.

The announcement is one of the most interesting chronicled for some time, as among those desirable eligibles who enjoy the popularity that always comes to the few of his stamp, none are better liked than Harry Davis.

Miss Bettye Kissel of Colorado Springs, whose engagement to Henry K. B. Davis, Jr., is announced.

Coming from one of the oldest Philadelphia families, his grandfather having been the late James A. Wright, Mr. Davis has been in the west a number of years, going from Colorado Springs to Goldfield and later accepting a position here with the Utah Copper company.

Miss Kissel is one of the beauties of the fashionable colony at the Springs, the daughter of Godfrey Kissel now of that city, though formerly a prominent New York broker.

Miss Kissel made her debut in New York two seasons ago before coming to Colorado. She

Receive
THE NEW YEAR
Properly

Introduce yourself to our SOFT WATER PROCESS laundering—it has all the elements of PERFECTION.

The only laundry in the city SOFTENING and FILTERING all water used.

TROY LAUNDRY

Both Phones 192

The Laundry of Quality

166 Main Street

AUTOMOBILE
BASKETS

Fitted with plates, flasks, knives, forks and spoons. Of immense value to those who motor to the country for a day's picnic.

Made by Cross

SCHRAMM'S

WHERE THE CARS STOP
Substation No. 4

Street car books for sale