the Bungalow with Nat C. Goodwin's old success, "When We Were Twenty-one." A better stock company production of the old favorite has not been seen here in several seasons. Mr. Mack's portrayal of Richard Carewe, demonstrating in excellent manner his ability to handle a light comedy role. Messrs. Morely, Clement, Allen, and Renny are well cast, and Miss Blanche Douglass as Phillis, appeared to better advantage than she has the past two weeks. The play is nicely mounted and in staging it Mr. Mack has insisted on fast work by his company, so that there is a lot of action in the two and a half hours it runs.

Much interest is being centered in the concert of the Festival Chorus and the Salt Lake Male Chorus at the Colonial Theatre Sunday night.

Assisted by an enlarged orchestra of thirty men under the direction of Squire Coop, the director of music at the University of Utah, the Male Janet Bayes, One of the Real Hits at the Orpheum.

Chorus will render several numbers and the Festival Chorus will present Max Bruch's popular cantata, "Fair Ellen." Miss Edna Evans will sing the soprano role and Mr. Horace S. Ensign will take the baritone role, with George E. Skelton, musical director and male soloist, and The Schubert Male Quartette.

The announcement that Mary Hall will, after March 7th, be seen with the Willard Mack stock organization at the Bungalow as leading lady, is of unusual interest. Miss Hall is unquestionably one of the most talented leading women of the day. She has appeared in a very large number of important roles, and has supported some of the best stars in the country.
