FEMINE SACRIFICE.

By Caroline Wells.

Bant, bant, bant!
Oh, Fashion, at thy decree;
And I would that my tongue could welcome
The things that taste good to me.
Oh, well for the Alderman's wife,
That she bravely starves to get slim;
And well for the tailor maid
Who runs and jumps in the gym.

And the stately hips go off.
(Tis surely a wondrous feat!)
But, oh, for a touch of mayonnaise!
And the taste of a thing that is sweet!
Bant, bant, bant!
Oh, Fashion, at thy decree;
But the tender grace of a rounded form
Will never come back to me!

—Harper's Weekly.

Hannibal, the illustrious general, driven to despair by his enemies, had taken poison and had laid himself down to die.

"Anyhow," he said, "my name will live in history."

His foresight was unerring.
Two thousand years later a town in Missouri was named in his honor.—Chicago Tribune.
