Pictorial Review

Readers appreciate the value of the up-to-the-minute fashion service of this magazine. It has four foreign offices, managed by fashion experts, in Paris, London, Berlin and Vienna. It keeps its readers in touch with what is newest and most smart in seasonable style. Pictorial Review is not solely a

FASHION MAGAZINE

Its action is clever and interesting, its articles broad and of national interest. Some of the regular departments are practical lessons in home-dressmaking, millinery, crocheting, housekeeping and household finance, sanitation, home decorating and furnishing, money-making suggestions for women, the care of children, a page for elderly people, wit, humor and puzzles, echoes from the stage (illustrated), etc.

PICTORIAL REVIEW is 15 cents a copy, and if bought singly would cost $1.80 a year.

PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERNS are the only ones with which patent Cutting and Construction Guides are given. One set is given free with each pattern showing how to lay out and cut that particular pattern. The pattern is supplied by the publisher, at the subscriber's request, any time within 60 days receiving the first number.

Success Magazine

Aims to be the one indispensable magazine in the home—"The

of America." It stands for the highest ideals in home life, and for national, civic and business honesty in public life. The world's work is told in articles descriptive of the important happenings in engineering, science, agriculture, art, literature, etc. The serial articles and fiction are the best procurable. Readers have the advice of the ablest writers on dress, etiquette, home-making in its various phases—the table, the farm, the garden, books and reading, investments, and child-culture. Success Magazine is strengthened by the masterly inspirational writings of Orison Swett Marden, the Editor, and a wealth of poetry, humor and pictorial art.

SUCCESS MAGAZINE is 10 cents a copy and if bought singly would cost $1.20 a year.

Modern Priscilla

Is one of the BEST Embroidery Magazines published. It is the recognized

LEADING FANCY WORK MAGAZINE OF AMERICA

It is undisputed authority on all kinds of embroidery, knitting, crocheting, lace, costumes, lingerie and home decorations. It is filled from cover to cover each month with designs, instructions, descriptive articles and valuable information. Aside from the strictly fancy-work departments, there are departments devoted to china, oil and water color painting, stenciling, pyrography, leather work, basketry and the like. It has many helps for housekeepers, and is a real good magazine for the home.

MODERN PRISCILLA is 10 cents a copy and if bought singly would cost $1.20 a year.
