Imported by August Luchow, New York, sole agent for the United States and Canada, are constantly on draught at the following cafes and restaurants in Salt Lake City, Utah:

The Heidelberg, 7 East Third South, Karl Mayer, Proprietor.

College Inn, 237 South Main Street, Reagan & Seyboldt, Proprietors.

Reagan's Bar, C. H. Reagan, Proprietor.

The Zang, Geo. D. Roper, Proprietor, 26 West Second South.

C. H. REILLEY

Distributing agent for the state of Utah, will supply direct from his cold storage promptly all orders, in bulk or bottled, the above mentioned imported beers.

Harriman's control of the D. & R. G. and W. P. would not and probably will not mean any Union station plans for Salt Lake. It will mean, however, the quick completion of the Western Pacific and the reconstruction of the D. & R. G., two things of the greatest importance to Salt Lake.

IMITATION OF AN ALLEGATION FOLLOWED BY A REPARATION.

Where did you get that hundred dollar Bill, Louis Hobein? Did You connect With it surrepticiously or earn it in some Other way before attending the Sangerfest at the Germania club at 2:17 G. M. on Friday, the thirteenth, and Furthermore, what right have you To Flash a hundred dollar Bill after the ponies have left for The smoky city, at a time when even City councilmen are supposed to Be broke, and if they are not to at least Treat the stories of their good fortune In the esoteric manner supposed To be an unwritten rule in the profession of Office holding! And Louis, when You got that hundred dollar Bill, may we without intruding on your private Affairs or asking for a Rating, enquire why you should Hang on to the same instead of treating the gang? We Heard you were in the habit of just throwing your money— Must our Idols be shattered? Are we to believe That when you throw it you get in A small room and throw it in The corner? Stand up, Louis Hobein and explain To your constituency why they Must go thirsty while you Are fussing around our beautiful city with A roll that would choke a Ichyosaurus? It is up to you, Louis Hobein—explanation Yourself And do not treat us so malicious.

Next Day.

Louis Hobein has made a complete explanation which anyone may have upon application enclosing a two-cent stamp. We humbly apologize for our mistake, and regret that Louis did not see us before our former interrogations appeared in print. We thought we were standing on a bluff, but find upon investigation that we were out on a limb.

THE ELKS.

The Elks have made a big week of it in and about town and are now on their way to Los Angeles for their convention. And by the way, there is a lot of interesting gossip going the rounds in the city of the Angels regarding the reception some of the trades-people are framing up for the members of the antlered tribe and their friends. One rumor is to the effect that the auto dealers have combined to charge one hundred dollars a day for the rent of cars. The rumor is so persistent that the city council is urged to pass an emergency ordinance nipping this prospective hold-up in the bud.

If any such proposition is attempted in Salt Lake this summer it might be well to remember the cure.

Fat Schuler went into a clothing store during the week, and asked for a pair of duck trousers. "For yourself?" asked the clothier. "Surest thing, you know," said Fat. "You should not come to a clothing store, young man," replied the dealer. "What you want is a tent maker."
