ments and professional and political activities of our marshals will be lifted and the white light of honesty, sincerity and devotion to public trust illumine the dark corners of the federal building in the vicinity of the marshal's office and that henceforth there will emanate therefrom the refreshingly, wholesome and stimulating odor so distinctive always of Fussy Jimmy Anderson's political presence.

The crew from Belgium won the Henley regatta from Cambridge by the narrowest kind of a margin—beat the Britishers by a Belgian hair, as it were.

Despite the recent injury to his underpinning, Hans Wagner is staying in the game by sheer force of will. It's a clear case of Hans versus feet.

When a Maine man first went to Panama, and knew nothing of the Spanish language, the only replies he got to questions he asked of the natives was no se (don't know) and manana (tomorrow). Everywhere he went, to every question he asked, it was no se and manana. Again and again he heard them—day after day—and finally decided to ask no more questions. About the third day in Panama he saw a funeral procession passing the hotel. "Whose funeral is it?" he asked of a man standing beside him. "No se." "D—n glad of it," he ejaculated, in disgust. "And I hope that manana fellow will die tomorrow."

HOT WEATHER SPECIALTIES.

The cool, dainty, tempting things being served at luncheon, dinner, and later in the evening at the Louvre, are in exact accord with all demands of the connoisseur during the summer season. We serve daily the finest of everything in the market, including genuine brook trout, bass, and sea foods, especially shipped to this restaurant. We also wish to call the attention of our patrons, both local and transient, to the great variety of fruits and vegetables now to be had, to our fine spring chickens, ranch eggs, and every delicacy that every city and country market affords.

It is a good plan when motoring or at the resorts to order your dinner or supper beforehand, so that it will be ready for you and your party upon your return to town. We serve a table d'hote lunch and dinner, and an a la carte service from morning till midnight.

We are in our new store at No. 66 Upper Main street, and invite our friends to inspect the newest and prettiest things in fine china, glassware and silverware.
