The question as to who struck Joe Leiter has become as vexed a one as the problem of who hit Billy Patterson. The only sure thing about it seems to be that after he received the coup de grace Leiter didn't loiter. Joe's misadventure reminds one of the humble beginnings of the Leiter family, in a social way, before one of the Leiter girls became Lady Curzon. It was about twenty years ago, and the family had just invaded Washington. Mrs. Leiter, mere, was telling of her social arrangements in the way of receptions, and the lady's acquaintance with the Gaelic tongue was evidently imperfect. "On Tuesdays," said she, "I receive the grande monde, and on Fridays I receive the demi monde." Many envious people are inclined to ascribe to the comedy hit made by this little remark in Washington the fact that the family moved back to Chicago, where packing-house French is better appreciated.

HOT WEATHER SPECIALTIES.

The cool, dainty, tempting things being served at luncheon, dinner, and later in the evening at the Louvre, are in exact accord with all demands of the connoisseur during the summer season. We serve daily the finest of everything in the market, including genuine brook trout, bass, and sea foods, especially shipped to this restaurant. We also wish to call the attention of our patrons, both local and transient, to the great variety of fruits and vegetables now to be had, to our fine spring chickens, ranch eggs, and every delicacy that every city and country market affords.

It is a good plan when motoring or at the resorts to order your dinner or supper beforehand, so that it will be ready for you and your party upon your return to town. We serve a table d'hote lunch and dinner, and an a la carte service from morning till midnight.
