

This afternoon Mrs. Reid and Miss Young will be the hostesses at a unique affair, when a large number of their friends will be taken over the new Emigration Canyon line in a special car. The afternoon will be spent in the canyon, where luncheon will be served, the return being made later in the evening. Some thirty of their friends will accompany them.

The news of the marriage of Miss Vedah Morton and Malcolm Glendinning, now of Spokane, Washington, but formerly of this city, was a surprise to his many old friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Glendinning will make their home at Wallace, Idaho.

Miss Elizabeth Leckie, of Washington, D. C., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child, sang at the recital at the Tabernacle on Wednesday. Miss Leckie has a beautiful mezzo soprano voice, and a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Child were fortunate enough to be present.

Mrs. J. G. Sawyer will spend the month of August here with her mother, Mrs. Dickert.

R. G. Schulder has returned from San Francisco.

Mrs. T. G. Griffin entertained at luncheon at the Country Club on Tuesday, in honor of Mrs. A. P. S. MacQuisten.

On Monday evening Miss Margaret McClure was the hostess at a beautiful tea in honor of Miss Evelyn Powers, of Denver. Miss McClure was assisted by Miss Alice Wall, Miss Virginia Beatty, and Miss Dorothy Rooklidge.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Nye have returned to Denver, after a visit of several weeks with Colonel and Mrs. Weber.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bell and Miss Emma Zane have gone to Idaho, where they will spend a fortnight camping near the Snake river.

A dinner in honor of Miss Dorothy Kinney, with covers laid for twelve, was one of the delightful events of Tuesday evening. Miss Gertrude McGrath was the hostess.

An elaborate dinner of Monday evening was that given by Mrs. Jacob Moritz, in honor of Miss Simon, of Portland. The affair took place at the Alta Club.

Miss Florence Kimball is the guest of Mrs. Jack Gilmer, at Brighton.

Mrs. Esther Filer returned on Monday from a visit with the E. S. Ferrys at Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cunningham and Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Mayo were among those who motored to Idlewild, in Ogden Canyon, early in the week.

Mrs. E. O. Howard and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Howard, will leave today for the east, to be gone about a month.

Mrs. E. O. Parsons and Miss Elsie Parsons are at the Keystone ranch in Colorado.

Mr. James A. Pollock returned on Monday from a week's outing.

Miss Evelyn Powers, who has been the guest of Miss Margaret Walker, was the guest of honor at a dancing party at the Country Club on Tuesday, given by Miss Margaret Dunn. Miss Powers has returned to Denver.

W. J. Halloran and his son, Ruel, have returned from the coast.

Miss Lena Hague entertained at a luncheon on Wednesday for Miss Virginia Beatty and her guest, Miss Reynolds.

Mrs. Nellie McPhee, of Dennison, Texas, is visiting Mrs. Frank Beckwith, at 415 Eighth Avenue. Mrs. McPhee is accompanied by her two sons, and will be the guest of Mrs. Beckwith for a fortnight.

CALL OF THE CITY.

By L. D. G. Bentley.

I've got to get back to the city,
My room where the trolley line curves;
With "L" trains overhead every minute
That act like a dope on my nerves.
I want to hear the fire bells ringing.
The rattley-bang of the street,
Where hawkers of fish and berries
Their cries for more business repeat.
I yearn for a wheezy hand organ,
The blare of an almost brass band;
To hear the kids screech their enjoyment
And scoot at the copper's command.
I wish for a racket of some kind.
I'll stand for a neighborhood fight;
Some drunks could sing under my window
"It Looks Like a Big Night To-night."
Ungrateful? Well maybe you've got me,
The country is surely some fine;
But lying awake in the stillness,
No, thank you, not any for mine.
The katy-dids, frogs and the crickets
With chorus, with solo or glee,
May hit the real lovers of nature—
No lullaby in it for me.
I've got to get back to the city,
So tired am I, I could weep;
I must have the soothing surroundings
Wherein I may sleep, sleep and sleep.

ONE PRICE TO ALL NEVER UNDER SOLD

Great Purchase Sale of Women's Waists—Half Price.
Begins Monday morning at 8 o'clock

The "Auerbach Store" made the greatest purchase of waists in its history. Four thousand Waists from three of the Leading Manufacturers of New York. They had anticipated a large business, but owing to the unfavorable weather which prevailed throughout the east, received many cancellations which left a large supply of these Summer Waists to be sold elsewhere and as the season was well advanced, a Price Sacrifice was made. Our buyer, who is in the East, immediately accepted this offer, and the Waists will be placed on Sale this week at the Same Remarkable Reductions.

In connection with this Special Purchase, we will include our regular well selected stock of 1,500 Waists—making a total of

5,500 WOMEN'S WHITE WAISTS.

We have priced these Waists low enough to insure a prompt and Complete Disposal of all.

The Sale Starts Monday Morning at 8 o'clock.
