FINE CAMPING PLACE.

A good many people would like to get out of town for a few weeks, but do not know where to go; that is, they do not know where they can go and have green grass and trees and a good place to camp without they select some expensive place.

Such people may be glad to know that right here in the valley, twelve miles from the city, a mile and a half below the mouth of Big Cottonwood, R. Knudsen has a park of fifty acres, with the Cottonwood running through it; lots of trees, lots of grass, cold water, which can be reached in two hours by team or forty minutes by automobile, where all the surroundings are pleasant.

AN especially attractive exhibit of advance models for autumn now on exhibition in our parlors.

Correct representation of authentic style tendencies for the coming season.

Are Our Customers Satisfied?

This is a question that concerns us a great deal—more than the money from any particular sale. We want each customer to be so well pleased with the value and treatment that he receives here that he will come again.

Our goods are bought with the utmost care and experience.

Our clerks are instructed to give the most careful attention.

Should the goods fail to be satisfactory or should the attention you receive here not be perfect, we shall deem it a great favor if you will report the same to us, that we may correct it.
