F. J. HILL DRUG CO.

"The Neuter Substitutes"

not an evidence of original sin on the part of the quartermaster's department, I am,
Very respectfully,
ARTHUR L. WAGNER,
Lieutenant-Colonel and Assistant Adjutant-General,
United States Army.

First Endorsement.

OFFICE OF THE DEPOT QUARTERMASTER.
Manila, P. I., July 7th, 1900.

Respectfully referred to Lieut. Kosaman, Thirty-fifth Infantry, assistant to depot quartermaster, in charge of land transportation, with the hope that he can repair, rejuvenate or even substitute a good quillez for this "cross between a hearse and a chicken-coop" now used by Col. Wagner. This paper to be returned with report of action.

JOHN T. KNIGHT,

Major and Quartermaster, United States Volunteers, Depot Quartermaster.

Second Endorsement.

OFFICE LAND TRANSPORTATION.

Manila, P. I., July 11, 1900.

Respectfully returned to the depot quartermaster, Manila, P. I., with the information that the "One-Horse Shay" has been replaced by a new quillez, thus providing a more suitable vehicle for such portions of the staff officers of the department of Southern Luzon as may still remain intact and susceptible of conveyance. Regretting the inability of this branch of the service in the way of restoration of wrecked visceras and individual consciences, it is respectfully suggested that this part of the communication be referred to the medical department of the army and some reputable chaplain, respectively, for such repairs and restorations as they may be able to make.

B. KOSSMAN,

Second Lieutenant Thirty-fifth Infantry, United States Volunteers, Quartermaster in charge of Land Transportation.

Third Endorsement.

OFFICE OF THE DEPOT QUARTERMASTER.

Manila, P. I., July 12th, 1900.

Respectfully returned to Lieut.-Col. Arthur L. Wagner, adjutant-general, department of Southern Luzon, Manila, P. I., inviting attention to preceding endorsement.

JOHN T. KNIGHT,

Major and Quartermaster, United States Volunteers, Depot Quartermaster.

4 VERSES.

By Henry Van Dyke.

When to the garden of untroubled thought
I came of late, and saw the open door,
And wished again to enter and explore
The sweet, wild ways with stainless bloom in-wrought,

And bowers of innocence with beauty fraught,
It seemed some purer voice must speak before
I dared to tread the garden, loved of yore,
That Eden lost unknown, and found unsought.

Then just within the gate I saw a child
A strange child, yet to my heart most dear—
He held his hands to me, and softly smiled
With eyes that knew no shade of sin or fear;
"Come in," he said, "and play awhile with me;
I am the little child you used to be."
—The Presbyterian.

A Pennsylvania man, arrested in California, gave a San Jose lawyer 100,000 shares of mining stock to defend him. The lawyer is now suing his client for a reasonable fee, and $2500 would satisfy him. There is a mystery involved in the proceeding somewhere, but the fact that the mining stock is called "Dead River," probably a euphemism for "Salt Creek," affords a clue.
