OPENING OF THE ANNEX.

The Doran-Weed Company Establish an Elegant Buffet for Gentlemen.

The Doran-Weed company, owners of the Kenyon Buffet in the Kenyon hotel, announce the opening of their magnificently furnished Annex at 270 South Main street. Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock the doors of the new buffet were opened to the public and from that time on during the evening a big throng visited the establishment. Mr. Doran received many of the visitors personally while punch and lunch were served.

In opening this splendid resort for gentlemen, the Doran-Weed company has carried out the "something different idea" throughout. The furniture being of the Circassian walnut, the wood having been aged for 125 years before being made into furnishings the walls are covered in part by French plate mirrors, with decorative art paintings over them and on the ceilings; veiled lighting effects throw a pleasant glow over the place, and throughout the visitor notes quiet elegance and tone.

Especially attention has been paid to the quality of the whiskeys, wines, liquors, beers and other goods to be served here, the company having secured several barrels of rare old Kentucky whisky of the vintage of 1891, mellow and rich in flavor, for its customers. This whisky is served from the original bonded packages and is a feature of the Annex.

Courteous service makes it a pleasure to visit the Kenyon buffet, and the Annex will be conducted along the same progressive and intelligent business lines, and if other places of this kind were handled with the same gentlemanly policies there would be no need for prohibition, for the liquor business would take care of itself.

Professional men, business men, mine owners and officials, theatrical men, public officials, tourists and visitors to the city will find the Annex a place of most pleasing atmosphere where "everything that is good to drink" is served over the bar at the pleasure of the patrons of the establishment.

The officers of the Doran-Weed company are: Mr. B. F. Doran, president and treasurer, who has been engaged in the liquor business for twenty-five years, having always conducted high-class establishments such as appealed to the gentlemanly patrons who frequented his houses and had business relations with the management; and Mr. T. H. Weed, vice president and secretary, who has had years of practical experience in the business, and is familiar with its details. Together they form a combination of progressive business men who have faith in the future of Salt Lake City, as is demonstrated in the extensive capital they have invested in their places of business of this city.

The Kenyon buffet and the Annex are two of the handsomest appointed places in the west, and will continue to enjoy the good will, prestige and patronage of the best class of people who enjoy the best quality of whisky properly served.

Ladies with escorts will be shown the place during the hours of 2 and 5 p. m. any afternoon.
