SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

Lorena Lund Peters, Plaintiff, vs. Roy Peters, Defendant.

The State of Utah to the said Defendant:

You are hereby summoned to appear within twenty days after the service of this summons, upon you, if served within the County in which this action is brought, otherwise, within thirty days after service, and defend the above entitled action; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint.

That said plaintiff has sued the said defendant for a divorce and for the custody of her child, an infant of the age of about six months, and for such other and further relief as the court may see proper to give in the premises.

The action for the divorce is based upon the allegations in the complaint to the effect that said defendant is a habitual drunkard and has been since the marriage; that he has cruelly treated plaintiff to the extent of causing her bodily injury and mental distress; that said defendant willfully neglected to furnish plaintiff the common necessities of life; and said defendant has abandoned and deserted plaintiff.
