

Saunterings

With Miss Helen V. Wilson as the motif, Miss Mary Luman entertained at a tea at her home on Wednesday afternoon which was one of the most charming events of the spring season. Miss Geneve Savage, Miss Florence Halloran and Miss Marie Odell assisted her in receiving her many guests, and those in the dining room were her sister, Miss Phyllis Luman, Miss Ruth Cowie, Miss Olive Benson, Miss Elma Darling and Miss Mary McIntyre. Mrs. Abner Luman, her mother, also assisted in making it pleasant for the guests. Yellow was the predominating color in the scheme of decoration and was particularly effective in the dining room. The affair was in the same taste as those which always mark the events at the Luman home, and a notable one in a week replete with pretty entertainments.

For the opening of the Utah roof garden on Monday night those who have engaged tables are:

Mr. Amussen, Mr. Apperson, Mr. Beebe, Mr. Bennett, Mr. Benley, Mr. Carpenter, Mr. C. C. Campbell, Mr. J. C. D. Clark, Capt. Coffey, Mr. Clar. Cramer, Dr. Carter, Mr. C. C. Chrismon, Mr. Dinwoodey, Mr. Dahlstrom, Dr. Denike, Mr. J. A. Davis, Dr. Ellerbeck, Mr. A. L. Faber, Mr. Foley, Mr. Falls, Mr. Fletcher, Mr. L. S. Gillham, Mr. G. W. Hunter, Mrs. Hogle, Dr. Humphrey, Mr. N. M. Hamilton, Mr. Jennings, Mr. D. C. Jackling, Mr. C. Keller, Mr. W. E. Lewis, Mr. McLain, Mr. M. M. Montgomery, Mr. R. R. Morris, Mr. J. A. Marshall, Mr. Geo. Morse, Mr. R. H. McMillen, Mr. Marx, Mr. C. H. McGurrian, Mr. Nibley, Mr. Wm. O'Brien, Mr. Eugene Owens, Mr. L. C. Olsen, Mr. T. J. O'Brien, Mr. G. M. Putman, Mr. Thomas Painter, Mr. Roddish, Mr. Raborg, Dr. Straup, Mr. P. Williams, Mr. Vahrenkamp, Mr. B. Wilson, Dr. Woodruff, Mrs. Clint Young, Mr. R. M. Madson.

A opening of the roof garden at the Hotel Utah will occur on Monday evening, but preceding that, Mrs. James Hogle has arranged a dinner dance for this evening for thirty or forty of her friends who will enjoy her hospitality on the roof tonight.

There will be numerous parties also at the Country club following the events of the day, enough to do for the sacred three hundred who claim to belong hereabout.

The chief event of yesterday in society circles was the reception given by Mrs. Simon Bamberger at the Hotel Utah in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Behal of New York.

The East Side Guild of St. Mark's church entertained at a silver tea and sale at the home of Mrs. Windsor V. Rice yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. William Spry and Mrs. Rodney T. Badger received their friends at the country club on Thursday afternoon, assisted by the wives of the governor's staff, including Mrs. H. E. Booth, Mrs. C. A. Quigley, Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood, Mrs. E. S. Wright, Mrs. E. G. Woolley, Jr., Mrs. Simeon C. Park, and Mrs. S. H. Lund. Among others assisting during the afternoon were, Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury, Mrs. Abner Luman, Mrs. Richard P. Morris, Mrs. D. N. Straup, Mrs. T. V. Beatty, Mrs. Charles Crismon, Mrs. George T. Badger, Mrs. James E. Jennings, Mrs. John Y. Rich, Miss Lena Moore and Miss Alice Spry.

For her classmates at Rowland Hall, Miss Olive Benson entertained at a luncheon at her home on Thursday afternoon followed by a bridal shower in honor of Miss Helen Cook and Miss Alice Munger.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes have returned from California. Mrs. Keyes is greatly improved in health.

Miss Edna G. Foulkes is in Denver where she is visiting friends. She will remain in Colorado the greater part of the summer.

The Misses Josephine and Eva Williams were hostesses at a bridge tea in honor of Miss Phyllis Dwyer on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. D. N. Straup entertained informally for the members of the Lloyd Alliance at her home on Thursday.

The dancing party given at Rowland Hall on Tuesday evening by Miss Georgiana Humphreys in honor of the senior class of the school was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the week. Miss Humphreys was assisted by a number of the members of the faculty.

In honor of Miss Hazel Barnes, Mrs. Clifford R. Foster and Mrs. Claud T. Barnes will entertain at a the' Dansant on Saturday afternoon next.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker have returned from a trip to San Francisco.

The New York receipt given for the new balloon gowns which are dazzling the people of the metropolis combined with hosiery adorned with lace ruffles and pieplate hats, is as follows: "First you take one of your most matronly relative's skirts, or even a pair of pop's pet pants, provided pop boasts of an old-guard waistline. Then you whittle away most of the material down near the street line, and tack these snippings on to the upper elevation of your skirt model. Finally you fuss and fool and fiddle with this upper, or hip-hip-hurrah section of the garment until the upper skirt sags sadly around you like the sides of a rhinoceros that has been dieting for a spee. And now the ankle section of the skirt fits like the skin of the rhino's horn and there you are!"

Hard times have no terrors for cupid, judging from the number of announcements promised between now and June. Pretty nearly everybody is going to get married though we hope all of the buds and belles have not decided to make it unanimous.

THE REASON WOMEN ARE LEARNING TO SMOKE

The reason women are learning to smoke is that they are forced to do it in self-defense.—Dr. Charles G. Pease.

When we read Dr. Pease's idea of why women are learning to smoke we wondered if he had it right. We called up a number of women friends who smoke and asked them point blank: "Why do you smoke?"

Here are some of the answers:

"I smoke to keep up with my daughter. A mother owes it to her daughter to be a companion to her."

"I learned when I was quite young. I don't know why. Mamma always left her cigarettes about so carelessly, you know."

"Please don't think I smoke because I am vain. But I know some girls who smoke because they are. They have very good teeth, you know,

Professor W. H. Woodward and Miss Leah Smith, Who will have Charge of the Dancing at Saltair this Season