

THE DAILY HERALD.

Salt Lake City, Utah.
TUESDAY, JANUARY 11, 1887

SALT LAKE OREMARKET.

Table with market prices for various goods like silver, lead, and copper.

METEOROLOGICAL RECORD.

Table with weather data for Salt Lake City, including temperature, wind, and precipitation.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

THE PARK CITY stage came in on tuesday yesterday.
McCormick & Co. received yesterday: Hanauer bullion, $5,950.
W. W. CALDER—Mrs. CALDER—A boy, Saturday, 12 p.m. Shake!

THE SUPREME COURT.

What Lawyers May and May Not Believe.

A MORMON IS CATECHIZED.

A New Departure—Cases Sent Down from the Supreme Tribunal.—The Murder Cases.
At 11 o'clock yesterday Judge Zane and Judge Henderson took their seats upon the bench, and the bailiff proclaimed that the January term of the Supreme Court had begun.

THE INNOCENT MAN.

Conclusion of the Testimony in the Alleged Trial.

A PHENOMENAL SUCCESS.

The Rapid Growth of a Huge Salt Lake Industry.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Co-operative Wagon and Machine Company was held at the offices of the company yesterday.

THE SODA SPRINGS HOTEL.

Owned by a Private Corporation and to be Put Up at Once.
Mr. P. P. Shelby yesterday informed a HERALD reporter that the new Soda Springs Hotel would be commenced as soon as the snow was off the ground.

PERSONAL.

Hos. P. T. FARNSWORTH is up from Beaver.
HENRY EMMERSON, of Beaver, is registered at the Valley House.
A. G. BAST and W. H. H. SABIN, commercial travelers, are at the Continental.

THE INNOCENT MAN.

Conclusion of the Testimony in the Alleged Trial.

A PREMEDITATED KILLING.

And Yet Mr. Varian and a Jury Say the Fellow Thompson is Not Guilty.

This morning, John H. Brown was recalled; witness acknowledged to making affidavit for Mr. Lambert, reporter for the Deseret News; dictated statement contained therein. Did not tell Mr. Lambert that Dalton would not run away if his arrest was attempted.

MADE HOSTILE DEMONSTRATIONS.

towards the Defendant Thompson or not, at the time the latter stood by Ed. Dalton's prostrate form in Page's house.
Question by defense—Did you not say to Mr. Thompson, at the time referred to, 'You d-d-s—of-a—h—, I might as well die as not,' and then start towards Thompson with hostile intent?

A LITTLE CHILD WITH DALTON.

at the time of the occurrence? 'An positive that Dalton did not turn around or try to get away. Witness heard about six weeks previous that it was Orton's intention to kill Dalton. Witness' husband had told her so; don't know where he learned it. When witness saw Orton and the other man that morning at Page's fence, she naturally concluded that they were there to kill Dalton.

PROVO POINTS.

THE BEST seats in the Theatre were mostly all taken on Saturday for the Lewis Morrison entertainment to-night, also for the Lamb-Price-Jordan Company's performance of 'On the Rio Grande' on Wednesday night.

FEMALE FRAILTY.

A Little Picnic in the Police Court.

THE ROW AT THE ROAD HOUSE.

A Thin Case Against Nelson—Some Tough Witnesses—A Hard Gangle—Minnie Baker Escapes.

The investigation into the charges of battery preferred against Charles Nelson, who keeps the Road House, three miles south of the city, came up in the Police Court yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

ANOTHER WITNESS.

Testimony as to Dalton's Real Feelings Concerning His Capture.
HAMILTON FORT, IRON COUNTY, January 3, 1887.
To the Editor of THE HERALD.

INDEPENDENT OF COLOR OR COLOR.

Mr. S. T. Johnson, of Springville, is succeeding John W. Dea, of the Excelsior House. Mr. Johnson is particularly adapted for the business, and will no doubt keep up the excellent reputation which it already has.

Hotel Change.

Mr. S. T. Johnson, of Springville, is succeeding John W. Dea, of the Excelsior House. Mr. Johnson is particularly adapted for the business, and will no doubt keep up the excellent reputation which it already has.

Patent Steel Sleighs.

Swing Horses, Toy Chairs and Hand Wheelbarrows just arrived at Dixon's.

FEMALE FRAILTY.

A Little Picnic in the Police Court.

THE ROW AT THE ROAD HOUSE.

A Thin Case Against Nelson—Some Tough Witnesses—A Hard Gangle—Minnie Baker Escapes.

The investigation into the charges of battery preferred against Charles Nelson, who keeps the Road House, three miles south of the city, came up in the Police Court yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

ANOTHER WITNESS.

Testimony as to Dalton's Real Feelings Concerning His Capture.
HAMILTON FORT, IRON COUNTY, January 3, 1887.
To the Editor of THE HERALD.

INDEPENDENT OF COLOR OR COLOR.

Mr. S. T. Johnson, of Springville, is succeeding John W. Dea, of the Excelsior House. Mr. Johnson is particularly adapted for the business, and will no doubt keep up the excellent reputation which it already has.

Hotel Change.

Mr. S. T. Johnson, of Springville, is succeeding John W. Dea, of the Excelsior House. Mr. Johnson is particularly adapted for the business, and will no doubt keep up the excellent reputation which it already has.

Patent Steel Sleighs.

Swing Horses, Toy Chairs and Hand Wheelbarrows just arrived at Dixon's.