STATE POLICE BILL IN SENATE

Upper House of the Nevada Legislature Will Probably Pass Measure With a Rush.

FIGHT OF THE FEDERATION ASSEMBLY WILL BE THE SCENE OF BATTLE.

The state police bill is near the end of its life in the Nevada Legislature and it is likely to receive a final reading and be passed today, or at the very least tomorrow. The measure was introduced in the upper house a week ago, and has been through a number of debates and amendments. It is expected to receive another round of amendments before it is finally voted upon.

NO PROVIDENCE FOR PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Washington, Jan. 21 - Chairman Thomas W. Volunteers for the work of the committee on appropriations were paid $10,000,000 in the last fiscal year, the committee reported today. This was the first time that such a sum had been appropriated for the work of the committee. The report was made by Mr. Sturgis, who said that the committee would have to be thoroughly revised and reorganized. The committee did not have the time to do this, and it was necessary to have a new committee appointed.
