When Yaqui raiders attacked the town, an appeal for aid was sent to the Pima tribe, which inhabits the surrounding valley. At one time the Yaquis held half the town, and the fighting was proceeding at short range when the Pimas appeared and turned the tide of battle. Heavy losses were inflicted upon the Yaquis, and a number of defenders of the town were killed.

When the Yaquis retreated, they took with them a number of captured Mexican women.

In 1907 the grand duke announced that he would grant a constitution to the duchy but this met with much opposition from the nobles and later he offered to make a free gift of $2,500,000 to the national treasury of his grand duchy if the nobles who constituted the overwhelming majority of the diet would abandon their opposition to the grant of a constitution similar to that of the other sovereign states of the German empire.

A form of constitutional government is understood, is now about to be introduced.

DETECTIVES LOOK FOR CONFEDERATE

Blackhand Who Threatened to Blow Up Cunard Steamer in Jail.

ADMITS TRUE NAME

May Waive Extradition—Confesses Guilt—Others Believed to Be Implicated.

New York, June 12.—While arrangements were in progress today for the extradition to this city of Henry Westcott, the young negro arrested last night near Bogota, N. J., charged with attempting to obtain $10,000 under threats of blowing up a Cunard steamer with dynamite, city detectives continued their investigations in the belief that Westcott or Joseph Burton, as he later admitted his name to be, had the aid of one or more confederates.

Burton is in jail at Hackensack, N. J., but it was believed today that he would waive extradition and be brought to this city for arraignment. To the New York detectives and secret service men of the West Shore railroad, Burton is said to have confessed the authorship of the letters in which arrangements were made for the payment of $10,000 demanded as immunity for a Cunard line steamer which the writer declared would be blown up at sea by placing dynamite in the coal.

Three Distinct Fires Set by Militants Are Extinguished By Rector and Villagers.

REPEAL BILL BEFORE HOUSE

Chairman Asks Body to Con- cur With Senate Without Further Parley.

AMENDMENT FAVORED

Statement in Revised Measure Should Be Accepted as Ex- ceedingly Opportune.

Washington, June 12.—Without the formality of a conference, the house today by a vote of 216 to 71 accepted the senate's amendment to the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption bill returned to the house today for action on the Norris-Simmons compromise amendment before going to President Wilson for signature.

Chairman Williams of the commerce committee, in charge of the bill, at once moved that the house concur with the amendments instead of sending it to conference.

"The senate amendment," he said, "should be acceptable to all advocates of uniform tolls. It is exceedingly opportune that the statement contained in the amendment should be made and promulgated in connection with the repeal bill itself—it is nothing but the truth and substantially the same declaration has been made by us on the floor of the house and elsewhere many times."

Administration senators sought conferences at the White House today to lay the lines for the pending legislative battle, the enactment of President Wilson tariff program with the Panama tolls repeal out of the way after weeks of long debate, the administration forces will bend their energies toward passage of the trust bill, already approved in the house and now awaiting action in the senate judiciary and interstate commerce committees.

MAZATLAN FORCE LOSES HEAVILY

Constitutionalists Making Con- centrated Attack on Fed- eral Fortifications.

On Board U. S. S. California, Mazatlan, June 11.—(By wireless to San Diego, Cal., June 12.)—The constitutionalist army under General Obregon today began its first concentrated assault on the federal fortifications at Mazatlan, commanded by General Rodriguez. The battle raged all day, and although the besieged garrison held its positions, it lost heavily in killed and wounded.

The first heavy rains of the wet season began here today and will add to the hardships of the combatants. The federals, who are short of supplies themselves and must in addition keep under control a starving and hostile populace within their lines, will suffer most from this new burden. The besiegers have plenty of provisions, and by reason of their superior numbers, can keep the garrison harassed night and day, between assaults, while a majority of their number rest.

The rebel gunboat Tampico, it was learned today, has been floated at Topolobampo, and if she can be brought south to Mazatlan, will greatly aid in the attacking force by covering with her artillery fire their advances on positions they have not yet dared attempt.

STRIKERS REFUSE TO GO BACK TO WORK

AGED LAKE CAPTAIN IS FOUND DEAD

Rome, June 12.—Movements of a revolutionary character were reported today throughout the provinces of Ferrara, Bologna, Ravenna and Forli, forming what is known as the Romagna.

Although a cessation of the general strike which began on Monday had been ordered by the labor organizations, the workmen of extreme views in those districts have refused to return to work.

St. Joseph, Mich., June 12.—Captain Joseph A. Napier, 89, who, during his forty years' career on the Great Lakes, saved 60 lives, was found dead in his bed here today.

In 1851 Captain Napier alone rescued 32 of the passengers and crew of the schooner Merchant, which foundered off Chicago. In 1877, congress voted him a medal.

WAR NOTE IS AGAIN SOUNDED

Warning to Turkey by Greek Premier Little Short of Formal Declaration.

NEAR BREAKING POINT

Situation Very Grave—Gov- ernment Sends Vigorous Demand to Empire.

Athens, Greece, June 12.—A warning to Turkey, which fell little short of a formal declaration of hostilities, was uttered today by Premier Venizelos of Greece in the chamber of deputies. He was speaking on the treatment of Greek subjects in Turkey.

The premier's attitude showed that the tension between Greece and Turkey was near the breaking point and that the danger of war was imminent.

M. Venizelos obviously found it difficult to restrain his language when he spoke of the way in which the Turks had treated his fellow countrymen.

"I do not wish to allow to escape me words which cannot be recalled, but I should fail in my duty if I did not inform the chamber of deputies that the situation has become grave—even very grave," he said. "If a stop is not put to these conditions, the Hellenic government will be forced not to content itself with joining in the lamentations of unhappy refugees."

The Greek government today sent a vigorous note to Turkey demanding the cessation of the persecution of the Greeks in Turkey and the repair of damage caused to them and their interests.

CHICAGO BANK CLOSES DOORS

State Bank Examiner Arrives and La Salle Street Institu- tion Suspends Business.

THREE BRANCHES CLOSE

Corn Exchange Refuses Clear- ance—Wild Run Caused by Statements Made by Politician.

Chicago, June 12.—The LaSalle Street Trust & Savings bank, organized by William Lorimer five years ago, when he was United States senator from Illinois and of which he has since been president, was closed today by the state bank examiner.

While rumors of the financial trouble had been whispered of late, the actual closing of the institution was a surprise. Coincident with the closing of the LaSalle Street bank, state examiners were sent to three state banks which had heavy deposits with the larger institution. No statement of what the closing of the bank actually means in dollars was made by the examiner. Recent reports to the state auditor's office placed the deposits of the LaSalle Street bank at more than $5,000,000.

Chicago, June 12.—The LaSalle Street Trust & Savings bank, of which former Senator William Lorimer is president, was taken in charge today by the state bank examiner. No business was done in the bank today and the examiner reported that conditions were such as to warrant the closing of the bank.

A wild run started on the bank two days ago, according to the secretary of the LaSalle Street trust and Savings bank and today more depositors gathered in front of the institution, which is a few doors from the board of trade building in La Salle street.

An hour after the arrival of the state bank examiner the doors of the bank were closed.

Subsidiaries Are Examined.

Examination of subsidiaries of the LaSalle street bank would be taken up by the state bank examiner.

William Lorimer, president of the bank, was in conference with the directors of the institution through the morning.

In the last statement issued by the bank, its capital stock was placed at $1,000,000 with a surplus of $250,000 and undivided profits of $93,621. Its stock was then held at par.

The statement gave the deposits as $5,053,585 and placed the loans at $4,363,398.

Three Branches Suspend.

Later the state bank examiner announced he had sent examiners to three banks in Chicago classed as subsidiaries of the LaSalle street institution. The examiners caused a suspension of business in the three, the Broadway State bank, in the north side; the Ashland and Twelfth in the west-side ghetto district, and the Illinois State bank of Chicago in North Clark street.

In financial circles it was reported that the Corn Exchange bank yesterday refused to allow the LaSalle Street Trust and Savings bank to clear through it.

Run Made.

The run on the bank which was characterized by bank officials as "mild" was attributed to allegations made in connection with the suit of John H. Coyne against State Auditor Brady, in which Coyne charged in his declaration in a suit for damages that the LaSalle Street bank had contributed to the Brady campaign fund and that the contribution had been made the basis of a claim that it should be consulted regarding appointments to be made by the state auditor.

Rough estimates of the amount withdrawn by depositors in the last three weeks placed the figures at more than $1,000,000.

Following the closing of the bank's doors there was a crowd assembled in front, but there was no disorder. A policeman was detailed to stand guard, but there seemed to be no call for his services.

Daniel W. Harkin, chief state bank examiner for Cook county, explained that he had not intended to close the bank when he entered it today.

Soon Discovered Trouble.

"I did not mean to take possession," he said, "but I soon discovered I must. It looked extremely doubtful if the bank could continue to weather the situation. At present I cannot say whether the bank will ever resume operations. The three smaller banks will, I believe, resume business in a short time."

The LaSalle Trust & Savings bank was not a member of the Chicago Clearing House association.

According to the cashier, Charles C. Fo, the bank deposits had been over $3,900,000.

Mr. Harkin said he did not believe the disclosures in the Coyne-Brady scandal had any bearing upon the financial condition of the bank. The city of Chicago had $650,000 on deposit. City Treasurer Flynn attempted to withdraw the funds following the rumor that the bank was in trouble. He was refused by the cashier, who told him no funds could be paid out while the bank was in charge of the bank examiner.

Board of Trade markets were made to reflect to some extent the troubles of the Lorimer banks. A considerable part of a decline of one cent from top figures of the day in the price of wheat and of 3-4c in corn was generally attributed to speculative and other selling more or less the outgrowth of the bank difficulties.
