

THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN OGDEN SIZED UP

Hundreds of Paid Workers Calling Daily at Homes Maliciously Opposing Candidates—Gold Pouring Forth Like Oil From a Bottle—Political Workers Claim the Only Genuine Non-Partisan Candidates and Then Pour Forth Most Partisan Poison.

The Standard's attention has been called to the advertisement of Mr. J. S. Campbell, stating "that the legislature of Utah specifies that all candidates must adhere to the non-partisan spirit of the commission law." The Standard is asked if that statement is correct. Our answer is that it is not. There is no such statement in the laws creating a commission form of government in the state of Utah. The original intention, however, of the commission form of government was to take politics out of city campaigns, but the original commission form of government has not been adopted by the legislature of Utah. The commission form of government that provides for non-partisan candidates also provides for a recall of the officers and any law the officers may pass.

It can readily be seen that, if the commissioners could be recalled on thirty days' notice by the people having a vote on the question, that the commissioners would be mighty careful what they did. Under that provision it would make no great difference who the parties were in office because, if they did not make good, the people could recall them within thirty days. Such a commission form of government naturally can afford to be non-partisan. It is the only kind of a commission form of government that can ever be non-partisan.

Under the present laws of Utah, the commissioners elected under the commission form become more powerful than all the people combined. They cannot be removed. They can do as they please and there is no way for the people to stop the commissioners from giving away the people's best interests. Therefore, the commission form of government adopted in Utah for the government of cities is not a non-partisan form of government and was not intended to be such by the legislature. The bill was originally prepared with the "recall" in it, but Governor Spry served notice on the legislature that he would not stand for the recall and the bill was then passed without it.

Mr. Campbell is entirely in error in his advertisement when he makes the statement that the law specifies that all candidates must adhere to the non-partisan spirit of the law. We do not believe Mr. Campbell read the law. Someone may have told him and that is all there is to it. Mr. Campbell is also a partisan candidate. He is very much partisan for himself. He seeks the office. He has called around him a lot of partisan friends who are as partisan as they can be for Mr. Campbell. There are no non-partisan candidates in the field this year. There cannot be any under the present law, but if the law could be amended and the recall put in force then there would be non-partisan candidates and elections. Then he would seek office to the extent of paying thousands of dollars to be nominated and elected.

Our attention has been called to the fact that the Fell-Browning forces are so partisan that they have employed several hundred workers, who have become so partisan that they are fighting desperately for their candidates. They are so partisan that they become absolutely angry if their action boosting their candidates is resisted. This can also be said of Mr. Campbell's workers. Such action is not non-partisan. But if the people had the right to recall the candidates then it would be the people choosing their own commissioners instead of men spending thousands of dollars to be elected.

We are informed that the Fell-Browning people propose to employ one thousand five hundred people during the last week before election, figuring on the plan as follows: If fifteen hundred people are hired to work for Browning and Fell they naturally will themselves vote for Browning and Fell and each undoubtedly could influence his better-half to join him. In that way the Browning-Fell combine are figuring upon getting three thousand votes. It is claimed that this would not be buying votes. We are advised that Heywood and Jones do not intend to hire any workers with such object in view. A legitimate canvass to learn where the Heywood-Jones-Larson-Bagley people reside so that on election day the carriages will call for them, is all that the Heywood-Jones-Larson-Bagley ticket will undertake.

One worker said yesterday that he expected to get $5 per day for the last week working for Fell and Browning; that he would take the money and then vote as he saw fit. When asked if he thought that was fair, he said: "Well, I think it is as fair as the Fell-Browning people are, that they hired him presumably to work for them but really to buy his vote; that he would not be guilty of a crime in selling his vote but he would work for the money alright but his vote never would be part with for money. It is rumored around town that the light trust has agreed to spend $50,000, if necessary, to elect Fell and Browning. That will put quite a lot of money in circulation, and the Standard hopes the boys will have a good time on this money. We think there is nothing wrong in pulling Sam Browning's or Mayor Fell's leg. They have been pulling the leg of the city of Ogden for four years past and it looks like fair play to let the people pull the mayor's or Sam's leg. I am also advised that Fell and Browning claim to be absolutely non-partisan. Even their checks are signed "account non-partisan ticket." How people can pretend to be non-partisan and make the nasty, dirty fight the Fell-Browning workers are making is beyond the understanding of non-partisanship. Some people think that half a dozen fellows can get into a little room and lock the doors and select their own candidate and then come out and thunder to the people. "We are the genuine non-partisan fellows." The people of Ogden remember how Fell and Browning were nominated four years ago in the old Utah Loan & Trust building by less than two dozen people behind closed doors. The Ogden Standard at that time pointed out that they were owned by the light company and that statement since then has been proved.

Why is J. S. Campbell positively non-partisan? Who does he represent and who is back of him? What is the secret behind his candidacy? Think of it, he is the owner and proprietor of a big wholesale house and he promises to throw it all to the wind if the people will elect him to that little old job in the mayor's office. A gentleman yesterday figured up the workers out for Fell and up the workers out for Browning and said more money already has been spent than the two parties' salaries amount to. How can these people afford to run for office when they blow the money in before election.

These are questions for the voters to answer.

SHADOW LAWN TO BE SUMMER HOME

President Offered Free Use of John A. McCall's Magnificent House at Long Branch.

Washington, Oct. 15.—President Wilson today decided to spend next summer in New Jersey in the former home of John A. McCall at Elberon, near Long Branch. The estate, on which stands a magnificent house, is known as Shadow Lawn. The president was offered the free use of Shadow Lawn by a committee which brought a letter from Governor Fielder. He insisted, however, that he should pay rent and said that if the committee pleased it could give the money to charity.

His acceptance means he will not return to Harlakenden house, the residence of Winston Churchill, at Cornish, N. H., which he has occupied each summer since becoming president. The Long Branch mansion is not as secluded as Harlakenden house but is larger. Arrangements for turning it over to the president already have been made.

President to be Renominated. Governor Fielder in his letter urged the president to spend next summer in New Jersey to receive "the glad tidings" of his renomination. The president only smiled when that was mentioned. When Mr. Wilson announced that he would accept the invitation he was warmly applauded and all the delegation insisted on shaking hands with him.

NEW INTERURBAN SERVICE PUT ON. Salt Lake, Oct. 15.—The first through train between Salt Lake and Preston, Idaho, over the Interurban lines left Salt Lake yesterday morning. Simultaneously with the departure of the train a new time table went into effect, placing in service sixteen trains daily between Salt Lake and Preston and two between Salt Lake and Brigham City.

According to reports received yesterday by the officials of the two companies—the Salt Lake & Ogden, and the Ogden, Logan & Idaho—the through service was well received and the trains were well filled. All the northbound trains are scheduled to make the trip from Salt Lake to Preston in five hours, and the southbound trains cover the distance in four hours and fifty minutes.

FARMHAND CONFESSES CRIME. Valentine, Neb., Oct. 15.—The farm hand arrested here yesterday charged with the murder of Mrs. Nellie Heelan, and Mrs. Anna Layporte at the Heelan ranch Wednesday night, goes by the name of William Criderman and his home is said to be in Michigan. He had been employed on the Heelan ranch about six weeks. He is said to have confessed the crime.

DELCASSE WAS NOT IN FAVOR. Berlin Press Comments on Resignation of Foreign Minister of France. Berlin, Oct. 15, by Wireless to Sayville.—The assertion is made by the Tagblatt that Theophile Delcasse, who recently resigned as foreign minister of France, opposed the landing of French troops at Saloniki.

appear from the political theatre in the attitude of a man who foresaw calamities and warned the nation, while in reality he, together with President Poincare and War Minister Millerand, brought about the present situation.

Career Passed on Revenge. The Vossische Zeitung says: "Delcasse's whole career was based upon the idea of revenge. He entered parliament with a speech in favor of a Franco-Russian alliance. He always represented the idea of war on Germany. He was inspired by the late King Edward, one of the most active workers for the isolation of Germany. In 1905 Clemenceau thought that Delcasse had disappeared from public life never again to return. But he did re-appear and if he is now abandoned forever by his former associates, the decision comes too late for France."
