BLOW THE WHISTLES.

"Sing them over again to me, wonderful words of life."
When the whistles burst forth this morning in diapason, recalling the first Armistice Day, the old words were changed to—
"Blow the whistles again for me, wonderful sounds of cheer."
Before the dawn of Monday, November 11, 1918, the sirens opened wide. The shrill and the deep throated steam voices seemed to be saying:
"Rejoice! Rejoice! The end of sacrifice is here! Our boys are saved from the shambles of Europe!"
On November 11, 1918, we were at the top notch of nerve tension. We had war with its bloodshed, influenza with its deaths and a world topsy-turvy. We had regulation and restraint until the whistles blew. No wonder, with the sudden release from those burdens of mind and body, there was hilarity, and joy and ecstasy; no wonder there were wild men and wild women. The streets were crowded from early morning until late at night and the excitement did not cease except through exhaustion.
That was the day of liberty, of happiness, of glory.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Recalling the tremendous events of a year ago today, President Wilson has delivered a message, saying:
"A year ago today our enemies laid down their arms in accordance with an armistice which rendered them impotent to renew hostilities and gave to the world an assured opportunity to reconstruct its shattered order and to work out in peace a new and juster set of international relations. The soldiers and people of the European allies had fought and endured for more than four years to uphold the barrier of civilization against the aggressions of armed forces. We ourselves had been in the conflict something more than a year and a half. With splendid forgetfulness of mere personal concerns, we remodeled our industries, concentrated our financial resources, increased our agricultural output and assembled a great army, so that at the last our power was a decisive factor in the victory. We were able to bring the vast resources, material and moral, of a great and free people to the assistance of our associates in Europe, who had suffered and sacrificed without limit in the cause for which we fought. Out of this victory there arose new possibilities of political freedom and economic concert. The war showed us the strength of great nations acting together for high purposes, and the victory of arms foretells the enduring conquests which can be made in peace when nations act justly and in furtherance of the common interests of men. To us in America the reflections of Armistice day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service and with gratitude for the victory, both because of the thing from which it has freed us and because of the opportunity which it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the community of nations."
America was the slumbering giant which Germany aroused. When this country was stirred to action, Europe saw the power of a free people moving to the aid of outraged civilization and, as President Wilson says, America's power was the decisive factor in beating back oppression.

DEFENDING UTAH'S GOOD NAME.

The Standard is pleased to note that the Commercial club of Salt Lake City is fighting in defense of the good name of the people of Utah. No great part of this state of ours can be charged with being debased without that charge casting odium upon all of us. We who live here and make this our home cannot afford to be stigmatized as being part of a community given over to that which is immoral and degrading. When accusations of that kind are made, it is our duty to be heard in resentment. And so the Commercial club, acting to that end, has issued a public statement as follows:
"A statement of refutation issued by the board of governors of the Commercial club of Salt Lake City:
"The attention of the Salt Lake Commercial club has been called to the appearance in newspapers in the United States of a syndicate article bearing the date line of London, England, in some instances as 'October 19,' from the pen of one purporting to be George Selden, writer of the English metropolis, which is vicious, inconsistent and maliciously false in its accusations against the Mormon church.

"This article, sent broadcast throughout the United States, contains quotations credited to one Winifred Graham, to whom the article refers as a novelist, some of which are as follow:

"What is Mormonism doing in England? It works secretly as in America and snaps its fingers at law in both countries. This very minute the church elders have twelve hundred girls ready for shipment to Utah."

"The Mormon church pays the fares and offers excellent wages, but once it gets women over it uses them as it pleases. The war gave the Mormon elders their greatest opportunity for proselyting. In the absence of the men folk and because of the deaths of thousands of soldiers the women of the poorer classes fell easy victims. Secret meetings were held in homes that attracted the neighborhood without attracting suspicion."

"Every girl is baptized. They then become silent about polygamy, but they become either polygamous wives or slaves of the Mormon church. Occasionally we hear of girls who are slaving on Mormon farms."

"The Commercial club of Salt Lake City, Utah, through its duly constituted board of governors hereby desires that it be known that it has taken cognizance of and read these statements, which it brands as being vicious in intent and so obviously inconsistent as to be their own refutation, and they are scandalous, pernicious and false."

"The Commercial club, in line with its activities from the time of its organization, is critically persistent and thorough in its survey of conditions relating to the interests of our commonwealth and is fully qualified by its knowledge of facts to thus brand these sensational stories as unmitigated falsehoods."

"The church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, commonly called the 'Mormon' church, is working in harmony with other institutions in Utah, ecclesiastical and civic, for the maintenance of the highest attainable standard of morality, and has made an enviable record in this accomplishment, as also in patriotic and devoted service to the country's needs."

"This Commercial club disavows and condemns with disapprobation equally strong the circulated falsehoods of 'Mormon' interference in state or national politics."

Reinforcing the foregoing is the following statement from the ministers of the evangelical churches of Salt Lake:

"To the Commercial Club of Salt Lake City, Utah.

"Gentlemen:

"Our attention having been called to certain statements now being widely circulated through American newspapers as coming from Winifred Graham, an English novelist, charging that the commonly called Mormon church is still practicing polygamy and is bringing hundreds of young women and girls into the state of Utah either to become polygamous wives or to be consigned to white slavery or to industrial slavery on farms said to be owned by the Mormon church, we, the undersigned ministers having churches in Salt Lake City, have this to say:

"That, having been pastors here for years, and being conversant with existing conditions, hereby state that, while the Mormon church is strongly a missionary church and engaged in proselytism among Christians in Europe, the United States and other countries, yet simple honesty compels us to give denial to such published statements as we are convinced are untrue."

"Polygamy is under the ban of the law in Utah, and we believe that institution is dying here."

"As to the statement that the Mormon church is bringing young women and girls into Utah with the deliberate intent to put them into polygamy or into white or industrial slavery, we believe this charge to be without foundation."

"The evangelical churches of Utah are as strongly opposed as ever to polygamy, but are convinced that it is here a passing practice."

The Weber club of Ogden should join in condemning those who are defaming Utah. If we are to grow and prosper, as our climate and resources warrant, we must fight down the false stories as to home life in Utah.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS SOUSA, MINUS HIS BEARD, TO BE IN OGDEN SOON

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from too overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Advertisement.

POPULARITY OF SOUSA.

The popularity of Sousa and his band seems unabated, judging from the great interest that is being manifested in the appearance of this famous organization since it was announced that they will be here at the Tabernacle on December 1. This is not surprising for it is no mean feat of any musician's calibre to meet the same class of music lovers year after year, and to grow steadily in their estimation. Yet such has been the unique experience of Lieut. John Phillip Sousa has noticed that he and his internationally famous band have parted company. The separation was one of the most painful incidents of the recent war. The beard is gone, but not forgotten. The bandmaster says that it will never again adorn his face though it was his good friend and faithful companion for more than a quarter of a century. It was cultivated first when he was only 22, and just beginning his career. Following the then established custom adopted by young physicians of adorning their face with a hirsute appendage for the purpose of simulating age, young Sousa gave up shaving at the time of his first assignment as band leader. In discussing the abandonment of his beard the other day, Lieut. Sousa said:

"At the Great Lakes station, where I was assigned to duty when the war broke out there were 20,000 men and only two sets of whiskers. Commander Grimes and myself owned these sets. The more I associated with the youth and maturity of the day represented at Great Lakes, the more I began to feel I was in the wrong or that my chin was in the wrong."

"You know the war of Independence was fought by smooth faced men, the Civil war by whiskered men, and this present war by smooth shaven men. The thing moves in cycles, and not desiring to stand with the minority, I decided on the trim. I feel much better, although somewhat lonely. I have carried the beard about for nearly thirty years. We were very close. Seriously, I felt that the day of the beard was far past, and that modern efficiency called for as smooth a face as a man could present to the world."

Mr. Sousa and his band will entertain Ogden's music lovers at the Tabernacle on Monday, December 1, 1919.

That Film on Teeth See How They Look Without It

All Statements Approved by High Dental Authorities

Free
A Ten-Day Tube of Pepsodent is sent to any interested person. Send the coupon for it. See for yourself what it does.

Watch Them Whiten As the film disappears. You will know then what clean teeth mean.

Your teeth are not clean. You can feel a slimy film. Probably the film has dimmed them—some tartar may have formed.

Your present methods of brushing do not end film, and that is the teeth's great enemy. Now we ask you to try a new method—try it at our cost—and compare results.

Film Can Be Ended Now

Most tooth troubles are due to that film. It is film that discolors—not the teeth. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

The film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. Brushing does not end it. No ordinary tooth paste can dissolve it. Night and day it may do a ceaseless damage. And millions find, as a result, that ordinary brushing does not save the teeth.

Now dental science, after many years, has found a film combatant. The facts have been proved by convincing clinical and laboratory tests. The method is today approved by leading dentists everywhere.

For home use this method is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And we are mailing 10-Day Tubes to all who ask, to let everyone see its effects.

The Pepsin Method

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to day by day combat it.

Science has found a harmless method of activating pepsin. The usual method is an acid harmful to the teeth. So pepsin long seemed barred.

Now pepsin can be constantly applied—can be left to linger between the teeth. Now you can every day combat this film in a simple, dainty way.

Millions of teeth are being cleaned in this new way. You can see them everywhere—white, glistening teeth.

Send this coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how the teeth whiten as the fixed film disappears.

Learn what clean teeth mean—see how they look. Then decide for yourself between the old methods and the new. Cut out the coupon now.
