SAN FRANCISCO OIL DEALER IS KILLED

Shot for Unknown Reason East of El Paso on Way to Oil Holdings

EL PASO, Tex., March 30.—Harold Halstead, of San Francisco, was shot and killed last night on the road to Sierra Blanca, Tex., 69 miles east of El Paso, according to information sent here today. He was in an automobile with C. P. Crawford, a business associate of El Paso, and Topeka, Kan., at the time. Why Halstead was shot was not known here.

The news of the killing reached El Paso in a telegram from Mr. Crawford, addressed to E. F. Maxwell, manager of the Crawford theatre in El Paso. Crawford and Halstead were partners in an oil proposition at Topeka, Tex., and were returning to their property when the affair occurred.

Mr. Crawford wired from Sierra Blanca that Halstead had been "shot and killed" 25 miles west of there and that he had taken the body to Sierra Blanca.

News of the death was wired by Mr. Maxwell to W. Richie, Hotel Topeka, Johns street, San Francisco, another business partner of Halstead, and to Mrs. Willard Halstead, mother of the deceased, at Hackettstown, N. J.

Crawford is the son of L. M. Crawford of Topeka, Kan.

The two men came to El Paso from Topeka Sunday night, purchased a truck in El Paso Monday and started back to their old holdings Monday

LYNCHING IN EARLY DAYS AT SALT LAKE RECALLED

How the Mexican murderer of a city marshal was lynched in Salt Lake City in the early eighties was recalled to the Rev. John W. Hyslop of the Church of the Good Shepherd today when he read the announcement of the death of Mrs. Anna Olivia Burt in Salt Lake. Mrs. Burt was the widow of Andrew H. Burt, the Salt Lake marshal who was murdered and whose death resulted in the only lynching in the history of Salt Lake.

"I was only a boy when all this happened," the Rev. Hyslop said, "but the pictures of the exciting scenes is as clear in my memory as if it had happened only a few days ago."

The Mexican had gone into a restaurant, ordered a meal and had refused to pay for it. The proprietor went out to obtain a policeman. While he was gone the Mexican went out and bought a rifle, which he loaded. As he left the gun store the marshal was approaching. The Mexican went up to the marshal and asked him if he was a policeman. When the marshal announced that he was a police officer, the Mexican leveled the rifle and fired. The marshal dropped and was dead in a few minutes.

"I was about ten feet away. I picked up the rifle and handed it to a man who I think is the Salt Lake fire chief, W. A. Bywater."

"An angry crowd gathered. The Mexican was being rushed toward the city hall which was then at First South and State. Before he was locked in a cell the mob had taken a report from a painter and had seized the Mexican. He was hanged to a rafter in a stable. Later he was dragged in the dust along State street until the body was a mutilated mass."

TWO CITY DETECTIVES RESIGN FROM FORCE

Commissioner J. R. Ward submitted the resignations of Detectives F. M. Tout and Tom Burk from the city police force which were accepted.

Both officers expressed their good wishes for the future success of their department. Mr. Burk leaves to take up more remunerative work with the Utah Rapid Transit Co., and Mr. Tout says he leaves on account of poor health.

Fined for Violating Traffic Ordinance

For attempting to pass a standing street car at the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Washington avenue this morning at 9:45, L. Keller, 19, Ogden, was fined $10 or 10 days in the city jail. Keller was arrested by Traffic Officer Dick.

If there is to be any sacrifice made by Americans, to win back their pre-war peace of living, we suggest sacrificing the gougers and profiteers.

Telephone girls wouldn't be criticized so often if they would answer before a fellow has used up all his pleasant words.

After all, even though the majority rules, it is the minority who lead.

Poverty is not a disgrace—but it is a drawback.

You Ride for 5 cents

The street railways exist for the convenience of the public. Thousands of people daily depend on the street cars for transportation to and from their work. A street railway system is as necessary in a modern city as sidewalks and paved streets.

Ogden's street railways did not spring up overnight—they had to be developed, and were aided materially through the genius and foresight of men connected with the First National Bank. It is significant that many of the community developments that have been made in the past thirty years were sponsored or aided by the First National Bank.

Always with a purpose of building for the future, help to those young businesses which have the aggressive spirit of progress.

ELKS TO CELEBRATE FOUR ALLEGED NIPPON GAMBLERS WANT CASE RE-TRIED

Joseph Willett, steward of the Elks club, and two assistants were busy this afternoon preparing a sumptuous repast for the several hundred Elks of Ogden and other cities who will assemble at the club tonight to witness the "burning of the mortgage" and enjoy the celebration that has been arranged to mark the event.

Joe says he will have the following good things to eat immediately after the lodge room ceremonies:

Boiled tongue, cold ham, corned beef, cheese potato chips, pickles, rye bread, white bread, onions, crackers, oranges, apples and bananas.

Dr. R. S. Joyce will preside at the "old timers" session tonight. The "old boys" who became members of the order when the club was situated on Washington avenue, are to be in charge of the celebration.

The Elks' lodge here has paid off all indebtedness against it and is the first fraternal organization in Ogden to own outright its home.

STATE ROAD ENGINEER ASKS DETAILS OF PAVING BIDS

At the meeting of the city commissioners held this morning a letter was read from State Road Engineer Ira R. Browning, acknowledging the receipt of plans from the city engineer for the paving of the east side of Washington avenue north of the bridge. Mr. Browning asks that the bids on this work be tabulated and submitted to the state road commissioner before any contract is awarded. The letter was referred to Mr. Tracy for further consideration.

A letter signed by officials of the Ogden High school, Weber academy, and Armstrong & Company's baseball teams was read asking for the fencing of Monroe park and for the building of a grandstand as an encouragement to local interest in the great American sport. The Armstrong team is entered in the Utah State league. The letter was referred to a committee of the whole.

A claim submitted by the Utah Power & Light company for $148,25, which represents time and labor expended on the moving of gas mains to aid the paving of north Washington avenue, was disallowed on the grounds that the time for filing such claims had expired, and that it is not a proper charge against the city.

Alleged Forgers Leave Ogden
George W. Taylor and Raymond Baker, two boys who were held here by the city police on charges of passing bad checks and who are wanted in Merced, California, left here yesterday in the charge of Probation Officer Silman and Deputy Sheriff Morse of the California city to stand charges preferred against them there.

Envy always backfires—remember that.

PIONEER OF WEBER COUNTY DIES AT HIS HOME IN ROY

Nephi Hardy, Weber county pioneer, business man and farmer, died at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home in Roy. He had been sick for some time as the result of a paralytic stroke.

Mr. Hardy was born in Nauvoo, Ill., Feb. 20, 1844, the son of Zacharia and Eliza Philbrook Hardy. He came to Utah in 1853.

Mr. Hardy was a pioneer canner in Utah, having constructed the third cannery of the state at Hooper, and later a cannery at Roy.

He was an active member in the L. D. S. church.

His wife, Mary Ann Hingley Hardy, and the following children survive him:

Mrs. Eliza Fowles, Wilson; George W. Hardy, Merit, Utah; Louis M. Hardy, Arco, Idaho; Mrs. Mary Ross, Hooper; Mrs. Cynthia Stoddard, Hooper; Mrs. Violet Wilson, Halsted, Kan.; Hyrum Hardy, Challis, Idaho; Dr. D. C. Hardy, Arco, Idaho; Mrs. Annie Green, Ogden; Mrs. Ada Eglington, Ogden; Arnold and Clarence Hardy, Roy. Sixty-seven grandchildren, and sixteen great grandchildren also survive. The following brother and sisters survive him: Elisha Hardy, Morgan; Mrs. Caroline Daily, Oakley, Idaho.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. in the Lundquist chapel and floral offerings may be left at the chapel until 11:30 a. m.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burt announce the engagement of their daughter, Olive Burt, to Mr. Eldon Taylor of Ogden, the wedding to occur in the Salt Lake temple in the near future.

OGDEN PRODUCT DINNER TO BE SERVED AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church of Ogden will serve an Ogden products dinner in the banquet hall of the church next Thursday evening, beginning at 6 o'clock. This is the first dinner of this kind ever given in Ogden with the use of Ogden products only and is being held as an announcement to the Western Consumers' week which is to be observed throughout Utah the week beginning April 5, the object being to impress on housewives the importance of using only Utah made products in their homes.

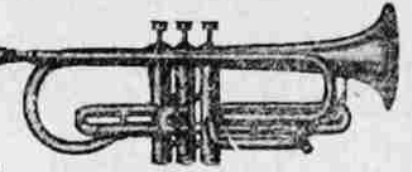

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church are the first to give a dinner of this kind and in addition to the exceptional menu served they will give a program. The young ladies who will serve on this occasion will be dressed in original costumes appropriate to the occasion. Many Ogden companies have made arrangements that they may be represented at the dinner.

DAUGHTERS OF THE PIONEERS.
The members of Camp B. Daughters of the Pioneers, will meet next Thursday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. A. Wilson, 2026 Jefferson avenue.

LEARN TO PLAY A MUSICAL INSTRUMENT

The minute we hear a band, we unconsciously "swing" into rhythm with its music.

Is there anything quite so thrilling, so blood-stirring as the music of a band? Is there anything that will "wake up" a crowd so quickly?

Why don't YOU learn to play a cornet, a trombone, or saxophone? It is an easy thing to do, and you will be able to take an active part in the concerts you now listen to.

We keep the famous HOLTON line of band instruments, conceded to be the best in the world.

The purity and richness of the tone quality in these instruments is little short of marvelous. Every famous band leader recommends the HOLTON.

Come in and let us show you the HOLTON instruments. We have an excellent line at our music-rooms on Hudson Ave.
