THE FIFTH DAY.

A Partisan Debate Occurs In The Council.

THE HOUSE WAS QUIET.

A Bill to Allow Defaulting Stockholders Rights of Redemption...

In the council yesterday an hour's time was wasted in trying to determine the meaning of a rule.

The memorial on statehood, silver and bounty were read second time.

A lengthy and comprehensive militia bill entitled, "Militia Code of Utah," was presented by Booth of Salt Lake.

Booth of Salt Lake introduced a bill for an act to regulate the recording of title notes or conditional evidence of sales.

Booth of Provo presented a bill to amend section 22, chapter 9, of session laws of 1892, relating to the payment of jurors, witnesses and phonographic reporters...

Williams introduced a bill extending the veto powers of mayors and authorizing the removal of appointive officers.

Williams introduced a bill to authorize private parties to serve summons in civil suits.

Claim presented by Hon. Jacob S. Boreman for $1,750, equivalent for legal services, was referred.

In the consideration of the joint memorial in favor of free silver a partisan debate ensued.

The democratic side made an ineffectual attempt to incorporate two amendments...

The Salt Lake Herald gives Bishop Booth of Provo credit as being the most fair republican in the legislative council...

The Herald says that the democratic members of the legislature threaten that if the Provo Enquirer is not kept off their desks they will strike out the enacting clause thereof.

During the words war over certain points of order in the council chamber, Seaman referred to Booth, of Provo, as "the senator from Utah."

SUPR. RAILINGS of the city schools at the late teachers examination succeeded in getting a first grade or territorial certificate. This certificate is good for five years and honored in any part of the territory.

Beginning with a small local sale in a retail drug store, the business of Hood's Sarsaparilla has steadily increased until there is scarcely a village or hamlet in the United States where it is unknown.

Today Hood's Sarsaparilla stands at the head in the medicine world, admired in propriety and envied in merit by thousands of would-be competitors.

Such success proves merit. If you are sick, is it not the medicine for you to try? Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.
