

Table with columns for ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES OF MAILS at the Salt Lake City Postoffice. Lists arrival and departure times for various routes.

Silver Quotations.

Quotations for silver in various forms, including standard mountain time and lead.

NOW IN.

Advertisement for 'Fine Hats' and 'Fine Hatters' by Noble, Wood & Co., exclusive hatters and sole agents.

LOCAL NOTES.

A collection of local news items, including reports on miners, a soldier arrested for drunkenness, a school session, and various community events.

THE PARK PROTEST.

Alleged Fraud in the Park City Precinct, but no Specific Charges.

No Evidence as Yet to Show That McLaughlin is Not Entitled to His Seat.

And the Canvassing Board Declare the Result According to the Returns.

This morning at 10 o'clock the Commission in conjunction with the regularly appointed Canvassing Board of the recent election, met in the rooms of the Utah Commission to complete the canvass of returns.

Secretary Thomas announced the body ready for business, and Chairman Alexander Ramsey arose and announced that the Board had reached the county of Summit, which would be proceeded with, and if there was anything to be said let it be known.

Judge Kirkpatrick, attorney for the People's party, said: Gentlemen, I do not know the exact process to be followed in this matter of contest of the Park City precinct election.

Mr. W. W. Ritter suggested that the returns be deferred for the present.

Mr. John A. Young moved that the Board proceed with the canvass of returns from Summit county in regular order, as done with other counties.

Mr. Kirkpatrick—Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Board: I suppose the proper time has arrived when the contest of the People's party should be presented. This Canvassing Board was appointed by the Commission, and some of these men claim they have no jurisdiction.

Mr. Godfrey—We canvass votes for the members of Council and House.

Mr. Ramsey—It might not be said that we canvass by direct authority of the Edmunds act and independently of other laws.

Mr. Kirkpatrick said that the people of Summit county ask that a time be fixed within five days for an investigation of the county election returns by the Board.

It may be said that there is no authority for this made in this communication. But, gentlemen, I don't think this Canvassing Board will refuse to thoroughly investigate this matter laid before you by reliable persons.

This subject is interesting and very important, and we would like an order issued for the ballot boxes, lists and witnesses connected with a fair investigation of this general charge, which I think is reasonable and just to allow the people asking it.

Mr. McBride, for the Liberal party, addressed the Chair and Members of the Board and said: I am hardly able to instruct the Commission and this duly authorized Board of what their duties are to be in this matter, yet I think I apprehend the obligations of the Commission and of the Board existing in this matter, which I believe will be carried out.

By the Edmunds Act the Board as it exists, has the power to investigate the results in question. There seems to be nothing in the returns upon which this Board can base an investigation unless it be the eligibility of the parties elected.

Mr. Eldredge—How would you investigate the matter?

Mr. McBride—There are provisions in the Courts under the statutes for such an investigation, and I believe that the returns, I imagine that no grounds exist for a protest of fraud here. I fail to see that there is any discrimination or evidence of irregularity upon the face of these returns to show that fraud has been committed.

Mr. Eldredge—The man who is not eligible to the office for which he received the majority vote.

Mr. Arthur Brown—Honorable Chairman and Gentlemen of the Board: This is a wonderfully singular suggestion of Mr. Kirkpatrick that this Board should go through with all the ballots cast in election as requested by Mr. Eldredge. They strangely ask that you go over these poll lists to see if there isn't some technicality or shadow of a reason for a new regulating law. The inspectors of election are final and continued judges of the same.

They were appointed for the express purpose to receive the ballots, place them in the boxes and seal them up secretly for a period of time. This has been done, and there is no reason for such work and not a shadow of fraud exists to warrant such procedure. Why did not the protesters charge one case of fraud even in the complaint, as a ground-work for such an investigation? If Mr. Eldredge or any proper person will correctly file a contest and try it from case before a tribunal, the Commission, Courts or Legislature, some shadow of a charge may be presented.

Mr. Kirkpatrick—This controversy seems to be resolving itself into the question, whether or not we can go behind the returns. The people of an election must not take the returns of such without any power to investigate a charge of fraud. Here the statutes were read giving power to ascertain fraud in elections. Is this the Canvassing Board referred to and are you powerless to canvass the returns of an election and throw out the fraudulent votes charged in a protest? In Utah a man holds an office by power of his certificate only, which comes from this Board of Commissioners. Gentlemen, I say to you that there is an important charge against the election in one of the most prominent counties of the Territory, and it should be investigated by the Commission behind the Returning Board.

Chairman Ramsey—In order that this matter may be hereafter understood we would say that the ballot boxes have been ordered retained. That sealed ballot boxes is sacred and neither this Board, nor any body short of the County Court, first met, has any right to open it in such a case. The foundation for an investigation must be shown upon the face of the returns. This provision of the Edmunds law is ample to protect the rights of all. The Legislative body have authority to investigate a charge of fraud in elections.

Mr. W. W. Ritter asked that Mr. Alma Eldredge make a statement of his thoughts in the matter, which the gentleman did, as follows:

In commencing, I wish to say in regard to the Chairman of this Board that there is some misunderstanding pertaining to the putting of Summit county into precinct. I remember you remember a year ago we asked the segregation of the county, and you replied that in case of any question of invalid votes you would give it your personal attention. We felt content that your honorable body meant nothing but honesty, and that you would give all frauds your promised attention. Now we come before you with our requests for an investigation of the fraudulent votes complained of. This is all I have to say.

During the interesting session Mr. McLaughlin, member-elect to the Legislature, in company with E. P. Fry and S. M. Cohen, sat by and watched the proceedings with apparent interest.

The vote of the county was summed up, and the chairman of the Commission read the results of the candidates for the Legislature, while the Canvassing Board announced those of county officers.

JUNCTION JOTTINGS.

A Fire Last Night Displays the Weakness of the Ogden Fire Ladders.

Strong Hands and Willing Hearts, but a Plentiful Lack of Water.

"Mrs. Negus" Letter and Its Gratuitous Insult to the Ogden Girls.

Correspondence DEMOCRAT.

Ogden has already had enough excitement and sensation for one week, and only half of the week gone. What startling events will complete the list before Sunday morning can be foreseen, but most likely something unusual will happen if only to make good the old saying, it never rains but it pours.

Shortly after 2 o'clock this morning the alarm bells awakened people from their quiet slumbers. The engine whistles at the depot took the alarm and made the valley fairly echo with the fearful shrieks of distress. The ponderous clanging of the bells and the hideous outbursts of the whistles were enough to make the people think the world had caught on fire in fulfillment of the prophet's prediction of the great day of burning.

Springing from his luxurious couch, the Democrat reporter saw from the open window of his room lurid flames leaping high above the dome of the Court House, just east of where a conflagration had broken out, and hastily dressing, he hurriedly made his way to the scene.

The fire brigade arrived at the same time, notwithstanding the companies had to lug their carts up a steep and sandy hill for a distance of half a mile. The fire originated in a private dwelling house, which fortunately was unoccupied. The flames spread to the building, inside and out, and had the wind been blowing a gale, as it did every previous night this week, the means at hand would have been powerless to save the house in the adjoining lot on the west, and it is not unlikely that several other buildings, stables, sheds and perhaps other houses would have been destroyed.

The firemen worked as hard and intelligently as they could, and finally succeeded in quenching the flames, but it took them some time to get the fire out of their hands. It would be unjust to expect the men to do more with the insignificant apparatus they are provided with. One small stream was all they could turn on the fire, and it seemed almost a farce to see a crowd of big strong men trying to subdue a big fire with such a stream of water.

WHAT CAN OGDEN BE THINKING OF? If a fire broke out among the business buildings of the city, the brigade would be absolutely powerless to save the town from ashes. The fire department of Salt Lake is deplorable enough, but God help Ogden, if the fire department continues as it is.

Mr. William Clark, a poor, hard-working man, is the owner of the house where the fire was. The fire caught in a frame kitchen attached to the rear of the house, and spread to the main house, which was also the frame rooms behind. The place was insured for $1,000, but the damage done will amount to nearly, if not quite, $2,000. It is doubtful if the insurance will be paid, as the house had been empty for some time and the insurance company had not been notified. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Yesterday the chief topic of discussion on the streets was

Not Kernahan's Body, After All.

The Democrat learns that Kernahan, the Colorado miner who has been identified with the body recently discovered near Fort Douglas, can scarcely have been the same person. About three or four weeks ago Kernahan went to the residence of Mr. E. L. T. Harrison, the architect, living on the Eighteenth ward bench, and upon relating his financial difficulties, was given some supper, a box of cigars and a check for $500.

Let the facts be stated in the following morning. Before he went away he showed Mr. Harrison and his family a return ticket to Colorado, and told some of the young ladies that he would send them a box of specimens upon his arrival. A box of specimens was received from Colorado by Mr. Harrison's daughter less than a week ago, but there was no name to identify that Kernahan was the sender. It is reasonable to suppose that he did send them, for no one else had made any such promises.

Around Bellevue.

The Queen of the Hills is yielding large quantities of ore and paying regular dividends; the Bellevue King is looking well—and so is Peter Anderson's extension of the Queen. The Humburg is showing some ore—while the Ingersoll (back of the Overland) is showing a little of 400 to 500-ounce ore.—Holley Times 17th.

The Methodist Excursion.

To the Lake to-morrow. Trains leave Salt Lake at 8:40 a.m., 1:10 p.m. and 5:10 p.m.

White House.

For the best meals and rooms go to the White House. Everything first-class and low rates.

1878 Established 1878.

Joe. Baumgarten, the Fashionable Tailor, will sell only the latest London and New York Fashion and Styles, and also the finest Imported and Domestic Cloths. I defy any house west of Chicago to compare with my tailor department. Call and be convinced.

Mrs. Lapham's Customers.

Will please take notice that on account of the sickness of Mrs. Lapham Mr. Lapham has sent East to engage a N. Dressmaker, Cutter and Fitter, who will be here about September 1st, when he will be prepared to execute all orders entrusted to him.

Arbogast's Celebrated Boston Ice Cream.

The finest in the Territory, supplied to families, church socials and picnics in any quantity. Prompt delivery and lowest prices. At 48 E. First South street.

John Taylor & Son, No. 43 and 45 Second South Street, have just received a choice lot of Spring and Summer Woollens, which they offer to make up in first-class style, at greatly reduced rates.

Protect Your Family.

It is the duty of every man, rich or poor, who has created a home, to make some provisions against the inevitable, for those who are dependent upon him, and this most desirable result can be obtained by procuring a policy in the Mutual Life Insurance Company in America, the oldest active company in America, and the largest life insurance company in the world. Rates, etc., furnished by Louis Hays, Agent, 55 Main Street, Hooper & Eldridge Block, Salt Lake City.

THE PARK PROTEST.

Alleged Fraud in the Park City Precinct, but no Specific Charges.

No Evidence as Yet to Show That McLaughlin is Not Entitled to His Seat.

And the Canvassing Board Declare the Result According to the Returns.

This morning at 10 o'clock the Commission in conjunction with the regularly appointed Canvassing Board of the recent election, met in the rooms of the Utah Commission to complete the canvass of returns.

Secretary Thomas announced the body ready for business, and Chairman Alexander Ramsey arose and announced that the Board had reached the county of Summit, which would be proceeded with, and if there was anything to be said let it be known.

Judge Kirkpatrick, attorney for the People's party, said: Gentlemen, I do not know the exact process to be followed in this matter of contest of the Park City precinct election.

Mr. W. W. Ritter suggested that the returns be deferred for the present.

Mr. John A. Young moved that the Board proceed with the canvass of returns from Summit county in regular order, as done with other counties.

Mr. Kirkpatrick—Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Board: I suppose the proper time has arrived when the contest of the People's party should be presented. This Canvassing Board was appointed by the Commission, and some of these men claim they have no jurisdiction.

Mr. Godfrey—We canvass votes for the members of Council and House.

Mr. Ramsey—It might not be said that we canvass by direct authority of the Edmunds act and independently of other laws.

Mr. Kirkpatrick said that the people of Summit county ask that a time be fixed within five days for an investigation of the county election returns by the Board.

It may be said that there is no authority for this made in this communication. But, gentlemen, I don't think this Canvassing Board will refuse to thoroughly investigate this matter laid before you by reliable persons.

This subject is interesting and very important, and we would like an order issued for the ballot boxes, lists and witnesses connected with a fair investigation of this general charge, which I think is reasonable and just to allow the people asking it.

Mr. McBride, for the Liberal party, addressed the Chair and Members of the Board and said: I am hardly able to instruct the Commission and this duly authorized Board of what their duties are to be in this matter, yet I think I apprehend the obligations of the Commission and of the Board existing in this matter, which I believe will be carried out.

By the Edmunds Act the Board as it exists, has the power to investigate the results in question. There seems to be nothing in the returns upon which this Board can base an investigation unless it be the eligibility of the parties elected.

Mr. Eldredge—How would you investigate the matter?

Mr. McBride—There are provisions in the Courts under the statutes for such an investigation, and I believe that the returns, I imagine that no grounds exist for a protest of fraud here. I fail to see that there is any discrimination or evidence of irregularity upon the face of these returns to show that fraud has been committed.

Mr. Eldredge—The man who is not eligible to the office for which he received the majority vote.

Mr. Arthur Brown—Honorable Chairman and Gentlemen of the Board: This is a wonderfully singular suggestion of Mr. Kirkpatrick that this Board should go through with all the ballots cast in election as requested by Mr. Eldredge. They strangely ask that you go over these poll lists to see if there isn't some technicality or shadow of a reason for a new regulating law. The inspectors of election are final and continued judges of the same.

They were appointed for the express purpose to receive the ballots, place them in the boxes and seal them up secretly for a period of time. This has been done, and there is no reason for such work and not a shadow of fraud exists to warrant such procedure. Why did not the protesters charge one case of fraud even in the complaint, as a ground-work for such an investigation? If Mr. Eldredge or any proper person will correctly file a contest and try it from case before a tribunal, the Commission, Courts or Legislature, some shadow of a charge may be presented.

Mr. Kirkpatrick—This controversy seems to be resolving itself into the question, whether or not we can go behind the returns. The people of an election must not take the returns of such without any power to investigate a charge of fraud. Here the statutes were read giving power to ascertain fraud in elections. Is this the Canvassing Board referred to and are you powerless to canvass the returns of an election and throw out the fraudulent votes charged in a protest? In Utah a man holds an office by power of his certificate only, which comes from this Board of Commissioners. Gentlemen, I say to you that there is an important charge against the election in one of the most prominent counties of the Territory, and it should be investigated by the Commission behind the Returning Board.

Chairman Ramsey—In order that this matter may be hereafter understood we would say that the ballot boxes have been ordered retained. That sealed ballot boxes is sacred and neither this Board, nor any body short of the County Court, first met, has any right to open it in such a case. The foundation for an investigation must be shown upon the face of the returns. This provision of the Edmunds law is ample to protect the rights of all. The Legislative body have authority to investigate a charge of fraud in elections.

Mr. W. W. Ritter asked that Mr. Alma Eldredge make a statement of his thoughts in the matter, which the gentleman did, as follows:

In commencing, I wish to say in regard to the Chairman of this Board that there is some misunderstanding pertaining to the putting of Summit county into precinct. I remember you remember a year ago we asked the segregation of the county, and you replied that in case of any question of invalid votes you would give it your personal attention. We felt content that your honorable body meant nothing but honesty, and that you would give all frauds your promised attention. Now we come before you with our requests for an investigation of the fraudulent votes complained of. This is all I have to say.

During the interesting session Mr. McLaughlin, member-elect to the Legislature, in company with E. P. Fry and S. M. Cohen, sat by and watched the proceedings with apparent interest.

The vote of the county was summed up, and the chairman of the Commission read the results of the candidates for the Legislature, while the Canvassing Board announced those of county officers.

EXPECTED BOTTLE MANUFACTORY.

No Good Reason Why Salt Lake Should Not Manufacture Glassware.

If there is one thing which Salt Lake is more in need of than another it is manufacturing industries. The feasibility of manufacturing iron, shot, glass, indigo, as well as brooms, matches, soap, and several other every-day necessities on a larger scale than now produced, has been agitated by local and Eastern parties.

The latest enterprise and most likely of any to prove successful, is the starting of a green glass bottle factory. Already over $3,000 has been subscribed toward the scheme, which will require an outlay of twice as much more in order to put such an establishment in perfect running order. Different gentlemen having the matter in mind and from whom a Democrat reporter learned some facts in the matter, say the large breweries here can not keep up local trade in bottled goods unless Eastern beer manufacturers ship their goods here so that Salt Lake can have their bottles. There is but one bottle factory west of the Missouri river, and that is in California. The Salt Lake Brewery has kept a man throughout Utah and adjoining Territories for the past year collecting empty beer bottles for the purpose of ascertaining the cost and best means of erecting a plant for the making of green glass, soda and beer bottles and cheap druggists' glassware which is used extensively throughout the West. All the necessary constituents in the way of silica, lead, fuel, salt, etc., for the making of glass can be obtained at home in abundance, and workmen not found here can be procured in the East. Such an enterprise would be the nucleus of other industries which would give many idle persons employment and put Salt Lake alongside, if not ahead, of many proportionate places. Any information from glass-makers or persons interested in such a project will be gladly received, and is asked for persons knowing deposits of silica sand and potter's clay may do well to correspond for the present with Culmer Bros.

OGDEN ITEMS.

Business is very dull.

It is not quite so hot to-day.

There is no truth in the rumor that the Broom hotel is liable to re-open shortly.

Mr. S. Bamberger came up from the metropolis this morning and took the Park Express for Park City.

The ten-cent barber has again dropped his prices, and still lives. Rate—Single shave, ten cents; three shaves for twenty-five cents, twelve for one dollar.

The funny stuff and inaccuracy in the Ogden department of this morning's Tribune about P. H. Emerson's infant child and its mother, are like yesterday's blunders by the "Herm" who publishes the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will be always ready to identify himself as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., in any of his professional communications. He has known not only of his father's blunders, but also of the "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. Henry J. Foote, Jr. The genuine