Personal Considerations.

Mrs. Home, the wife of the author who wrote "The Tragedy of Douglas," was very infirm and very peculiar and spent her time on a sofa in the unusual occupation of chewing nutmegs.

A gentleman who was a great admirer of her husband's work called one day to see him, and not finding him thought it would be only less delightful to talk with the wife of so celebrated a man. He was ushered into her presence and began to ingratiate himself by praising her husband. She made no answer. Then he attempted to talk on topics of general interest, and still she was silent. At last she spoke.

"Any prospect of a peace?" she inquired.

"Yes," he replied enthusiastically, certain now that conversation had really begun, "there is every hope that a glorious peace will soon be concluded."

"Oh, ay!" said she. "Will it make any difference in the price of nutmegs?"

The hero worshiper took his leave.—Youth's Companion.

In a recent discussion on the working woman's need of protection Mrs. Charles Russell (Josephine Shaw) Lowell declared that the right of ballot would insure to woman that protection for her labor that is now the privilege of men; that the rewards for her labor would be equivalent to the labor performed only when she had attained the suffrage and protection through the ballot box.

SHALL WE RATIFY

As Citizens with the Repubs. on Saturday?

JONES SAYS WE MUST

Help His Party Out—He Didn't Like Tuesday's Demonstration and Wants Another, a Republican One at the Expense of the Whole People—The Mayor Obeys His Boss.

The little trick worked all right, exposed though it was. Judge Jones was invited to participate in (to make a speech) the ratification of Tuesday evening of the signing of the Utah statehood bill by President Cleveland. He refused, calling it a democratic demonstration. It might have been to work scheming and evolved a plan whereby he could get up a republican demonstration and compel democrats to assist him. He covered his little hook with a sugar coating, calling it a "citizens' ratification, winked his other eye and chuckled: "There now, the democratic suckers will take that bait."

The judge did it in this way: He called the republican city committee together in Ira Kenward's office and resolved to call (under the republican mayor to appoint eight men to act with himself as a committee on arrangements for a "citizens' meeting" to be held on Saturday evening, July 21st, to ratify the signing of the Utah enabling act by President Cleveland. The mayor (agent of the republican committee) "in accordance with a request (command) of the republican city committee" appointed Messrs. John C. Graham, J. S. Jones, Reed Smoot, J. E. Booth, W. N. Dusenberry, John R. Twelves, Evan Wright and H. King as that committee and called them together last evening, all of which was announced in yesterday's DISPATCH.

Reading the announcement in this paper some wide awake citizens saw the trick and addressed a personal communication to the mayor, suggesting a way in which the mayor could get out of the hole in which he found himself gracefully and honorably, by publishing a really official call untainted by partisanship and fixing the ratification for Pioneer Day, but he refused and goes before the people of Provo as a partisan mayor, as a bitter and uncompromising partisan mayor.

The communication reads as follows: To Hon. I. Holbrook, Mayor of Provo City.

DEAR SIR:—We notice in the evening issue of both local papers, that you have called upon all citizens of Provo city to participate in a ratification of the passing of the Utah enabling act. That you have made said call and appointed a committee at the instance and suggestion of the republican city committee.

With all due respect, we suggest the great impropriety of the mayor of the whole people, thus confounding his functions as an official, with those of his personal partisanship.

We beg to suggest that this act has given offense to a number of our citizens who would be glad to join in a non-partisan demonstration, and respectfully ask that you, as mayor, issue a really official call, untainted by partisanship.

If this is done, we are sure there will be a general and patriotic response at this time for universal rejoicing in Utah.

We further suggest and urge that the demonstration be made on Pioneer Day, and that the citizens be called together to make preparations for such a celebration immediately.

Very respectfully yours,
V. L. HULLIDAY,
E. A. WILSON,
A. O. SMOOT JR.,
JOHN B. MILNER,

At the meeting held last evening John E. Booth and Wm. H. King were absent. Rank republicanism ran high. It was offensive, putrid, it actually smelled. The mayor acted as chairman and John E. Twelves was made secretary. The mayor stated his reasons for making the call—he had been requested to do so by the republican central committee, was absent from the city when the joyful news of the signing of the enabling act came. He had other reasons. He was patriotic and would like to see the whole people ratify.

Then the mistake of reading to the committee a communication not addressed to it was made—the above letter to Mayor Holbrook.

John C. Graham, that great pettifogging stickler for the right of position, promptly moved to table the communication. Carried.

W. N. Dusenberry moved that the ratification be held on Pioneer Day, July 24th. J. C. Graham amended by moving that the celebration be held on July 21st. The amendment was put. J. C. Graham, J. D. Jones and Reed Smoot voted for it; W. N. Dusenberry, John R. Twelves and Evan Wright voted against it. The mayor declared a tie, and cast the deciding vote for the amendment and the ratification will be held on Saturday, precisely as Judge Jones and the other republicans commanded.

Committees were appointed as follows: On parade—James E. Daniels, C. D. Grazier, E. O. Henriksen. On building—W. H. Dusenberry, Reed Smoot.

On decoration—Soren Jensen, Mrs. Winth White, Miss Clara Dusenberry.

On music—H. E. Rawlins, J. R. Boshard, J. R. Twelves.

On mottoes—S. S. Jones, H. S. Pyne, H. J. Maiben.

On finance—R. C. Kirkwood, J. C. Wilbers, T. E. Thurman, Marshall—C. E. Looze.

Chaplain—President David John. Speakers—Wm. H. King, S. R. Thurman, J. E. Booth, J. D. Jones, W. N. Dusenberry, A. Saxey.

Readers will observe the whole of the above was arranged strictly by a republican vote and the whole engineered by J. D. Jones, an offensive partisan who publicly and privately, up to a very recent date, has declared that he is positively opposed to statehood for Utah.

"Statehood is a democratic fact accomplished," and democrats, gratified, are now jubilant and happy. They are ready to ratify and jubilate again as democrats or as citizens, but never in a republican gathering, parading under the stolen name of a citizen's meeting.

Utah's Vindication.

O daughter's fair of Utah's vales, Why need you blame your mother state?

She yet will right all wrong you feel, You now can well afford to wait.

In Utah's statehood light is seen. Her sons have power to right your cause: The inclination too they have, They once passed woman franchise laws.

'Tis well they know of woman's worth. As mother, sister, daughter, wife, Beside the man she'll ever stand, In all that's great and good in life.

So cease your plaint, have patience still. Your rights will come as sure as fate. 'Tis better late than not at all. You'll find it is not yet too late.

Let 'Utah's princes' have the joy The long lost slipper to restore, They'll win their "Cinderella's" love And gratitude for ever more.

The author of the above effusion is in attendance at the Brigham Young academy summer school, but he doesn't care to give his name to the public.

General Caeceres.

General Andres Avellino Caeceres, the newly elected president of Peru, has a proud record as a soldier. He got a sub-lieutenancy at the age of 16 and steadily won promotion for gallant conduct on the field. For a year he was military attaché, while still young, to the Peruvian legation at Paris and traveled considerably over Europe. He was second vice president in 1881 and was re-elected to that office by congress in 1883. Chosen president in 1890, he had a difficult task to administer the affairs of a disordered country after defeat by Chile, but he filled the office for the full term with credit.—Chicago Herald.

Claim Everything.

We find in the Logan Journal a copy of the "Claim" circular of the republicans. Here we have the plan of campaign of our foes, a luminous lamp to guide our footsteps. Let us profit by it. It will not hurt us that they claim statehood, claim Utah, the earth, air and all else. It will hurt us only if these wicked tactics are successful!

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL.

Instructions to Republican Officers and Committees:

Hold secret meetings if possible. Secure good tariff speakers. Have short speeches; if more than one speaker let them take topics adapted to your county interests.

Organize active committees to secure membership.

Look after all doubtfuls, secure their names, and approach them with such friends as will have most influence to convert them.

Let your work be done as quietly and quickly as possible.

Check our four precinct thoroughly, making lists of democrats, doubtfuls and republicans.

Organize ladies' clubs, to aid in securing attendance at meetings, and in such work as may be useful and proper.

Organize school boy clubs, so that they may be early taught the benefit of protection to home industries.

Always organize glee clubs. Make reports to these headquarters during the campaign of your increase of voters, prospective increase, and what speakers, when and where, that would be useful. Report also when and where you have held meetings and the attendance. Report also how the democrats are doing and how successful.

Report all you can discover of democratic plans and operations, and conceal your own.

See that all republicans are registered, also that those entitled to last citizen's papers get them.

See if organizations like yours are organized in adjoining precincts, and report all precincts without a republican organization, and report the name of an active republican in said precinct, to your county central committee.

See that all republicans attend primary and caucus meetings.

Your precinct will of course be under the jurisdiction of your county central committee.

Strikers Begging for Work and Going to Jail.

RAILROADS MORE UNITED

To Keep up Rates and Reduce Expenses as a Result of the Strike—Three Miles Will be Kept Busy Making Silver Dollars the Rest of the Year.

CHICAGO, July 18.—At 5 o'clock tonight, General Miles appended his signature to the general order removing federal troops from Chicago.

One hundred and fifty Ho'lenders have been put to work today on the tracks back of the Pullman foundry. No effort was made to prevent the men from going to work.

The general managers' association huddled the strike in a manner so satisfactory to all the roads concerned, that they have begun to ask why the same spirit of harmony which enabled them to make such a fight in dealing with the strikers could not be utilized to great advantage in traffic matters. There is the strongest kind of feeling that all roads should be concentrated in an effort to maintain rates, and as far as possible diminish expenses.

The ultimatum has gone forth that railroad shops on the Wyoming and Idaho division of the Union Pacific which were closed July 2, will not be opened for general repair work until business revives and there is a demand for motive power. The decision is a great disappointment to hundreds of employes, and will paralyze business in all the division towns on the system between Cheyenne and Portland.

STRIKERS GET EIGHT MONTHS.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 18.—Judge Ross, this morning, found John Howarth and Engineer Martin Kelly guilty of contempt of court for violating his injunction at Barstow, and sentenced each to eight months in jail. The severity of the sentence was a surprise to many, it being thought as this was the first conviction for violation of the injunction the sentence would be light.

MORE SILVER DOLLARS.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—Mr. Preston, the director of the mint, today by the direction of the secretary of the treasury, issued orders to the mint authorities at San Francisco and New Orleans to begin at once the coining of silver dollars, and during the present month to coin up to the ordinary capacities of the mints.

So far as can be learned, it is not the purpose of the government to extend the coining of seigniorage beyond a few millions, but it is stated that after coining what gold may be necessary, and reaching the abraded fractional silver, each of the three mints probably will be worked at their normal capacity on silver dollars, for the next several months, at least, and presumably up to the end of the present year. Whether treasury notes will be retired as fast as received, for silver, so far as known, has not been determined.
