

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Adopted at the Convention held in Provo on Monday, October 1, 1894.

The democratic party of Utah county in convention assembled, hereby proclaims the following principles:

We reaffirm our allegiance to the party principle as set forth in the national platform adopted at Chicago in June, 1892, and we are in hearty accord with the territorial platform adopted at Salt Lake city on September 15, 1894.

We reject with the whole people of the territory that Utah is about to enter the union as a free and sovereign state. Local self-government is a democratic principle vouchsafed to us. Our party has again demonstrated that the people may be trusted.

We extend to the democratic congress and president our heart-felt gratitude for the many expressions of good will to the people of Utah; in the passage of the liberal enabling act; in restoring to the Mormon church its confiscated property; in opening the Indian reservations for settlement; in the wise appointment of bona fide citizens of Utah to local offices; in the extensive grants of land for various public purposes; in the enfranchisement of hundreds of our citizens by the provisions of the enabling act; and by the more recent amnesty proclamation of President Cleveland, and which acts of friendship are in striking contrast to the treatment accorded Utah by the republican party.

Profoundly we point to the record of our delegate in congress, Hon. J. L. Rawlins, whose untiring zeal, great ability, tact and diplomacy have secured to us so many acts beneficial to Utah. His indefatigable labor and unparalleled success will surely be approved and rewarded by his return to congress with a vastly increased majority.

We further commend the action of the democratic congress and administration for the measure of tariff reform effected, whereby hundreds of millions of dollars were saved annually to the people of this country. Obstructed as they were at every move by determined opposition, they nevertheless succeeded in wresting from wealth and plutocracy a portion of the means of increasing their ill-gotten gains, and in restoring McKinleyism a lost cause. We especially endorse the income tax provision of the tariff law, whereby those most able will be required to bear a more just portion of the burdens of taxation.

In the repealing of the federal election law, and thus securing freedom of citizens at the polls.

In revising the pension lists and pension laws so as to prevent spoliation of the public treasury by the undeserving, while dealing liberally and justly with those who deserve the aid of government.

It behooves the people of this country and this territory to keep the republican party out of power. It is a party of broken and post mortem promises, whose policy, prompted by avarice and individual aggrandizement, has precipitated the recent panic and brought this country to the verge of ruin.

We arraign the recent republican legislature of Utah for its intense partisanship and inefficiency, for its attempt to divert the public moneys from their legitimate use to the payment of bonuses to select private enterprises. Had it not been for the wise action of the governor, more than $80,000 would have been taken from the public school fund for the purpose of appropriating sufficient funds for the insane asylum, the Agricultural College and the University of Utah, by which parsimonious institutions can only be carried on as required by law.

We are in favor of the full enfranchisement of women, and pledge ourselves to use every effort to the end that our new constitution shall provide for woman suffrage on an equality with men.

We call upon the people to see to it that the state of Utah shall be founded upon the broad principles of the democratic party, which are the principles of justice and free government. Care must be exercised that monopolies shall not get control of the public lands granted to the state of Utah, and that as far as possible these lands be granted only to the actual settler.

We declare ourselves in favor of the free public school system where the children of the rich and the poor alike may partake freely of the blessings of public instruction.

We are in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 with gold.

Relying upon the fidelity, intelligence and patriotism of the people of Utah county we confidently expect that they will vote a complete vindication of the principles herein enumerated.

Cable From Queen Lil. Dear Gresham—One more boon I crave, I trust in your affection. 'Tis not to murder Dole, the King? Nor put down insurrection; 'Tis not my crown, but me to save; I write in deep dejection. And so a package I must have Of Park's Tea for my complexion. Gresham's Answer to Queen Lil. When I received your cablegram I thought I sure would faint, For though I often use Park's Tea 'Tis not for your complaint. I feared that Mrs. G. would think Wrong about our connection 'Till on her dresser there I saw Park's Tea for her complexion. Smoot Drug Company.

SCENES IN NAPLES.

Some of the Incidents of the Street Life of the Neapolitans.

The commonest people of Naples seldom buy anything from the stores or shops, but purchase peddlers and street hawkers almost exclusively. At the portable kitchen booths a bill of fare is offered to the hungry wayfarer and is laughingly reasonable in price and lavish in kind. Besides the ever-present macaroni the principal articles of food are the frutti di mare, "sea fruits," including mussels, polypi and sea spiders, all regarded as most tempting delicacies by the ever hungry Neapolitan.

Then there are roasted fishes of all kinds, maize dumplings, so called spighe, and finally the national meat food, called bracciale, which is really a dumpling or cake made of lamb meat and lard. Small soup is another delicacy as well as cheese with bacon (a pizza). Like all southerners, the Neapolitans show a marked fondness for sweets of all kinds, and they would be quite lost without their portion of struffoli, a rather tough cake made principally of honey. There is nothing so characteristic of the Neapolitan as the lazaroni appetite so indolently as the famous Easter cake of Casatella, which is sprinkled most temptingly with foie pork fat, and in which whole eggs are baked, shell and all, a questionable dainty to unaccustomed palates.

The lazaroni women are seldom beautiful and generally not even pretty. They are usually poorly built, with swarthy complexions and irregular features. None of them are fine, lustrous pair of eyes of great beauty, but rarely. The Neapolitan woman are not to be compared with the women of the country as seen in Rome and in the Campagna, whose trim figures, graceful movements and frequently charmingly fascinating faces so often greet the eye of the traveler. Their fullness of form, proud bearing and fine profiles are all conspicuously absent in the wives of the lazaroni. And how could it well be otherwise? Are they not "bombs of burden" for "houses of burden"? Are the children, by reason of their occupation, much more than this?—Home and Country.

What Do You Take Medicine For?

Because you are sick, and want to get well, of course. Then remember, that Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures. At this week is, that in taking Hood's Sarsaparilla you will do so with persistence equaling or approaching the tenacity with which your complaint has clung to you. It takes time and care to eradicate old and deep-seated maladies, particularly when they have been so long hidden in the system that they have become chronic. Remember, that all permanent and positive cures are brought about with reasonable moderation. Hood's Sarsaparilla attacks disease vigorously and never leaves the field until it has conquered.

A WOMAN HATER DISCOMFITED.

There is a crusty old bachelor on Fourth street who is a confirmed woman hater and who never misses an opportunity for saying something sarcastic and disagreeable about the fair sex. But he met more than his match the other day in a plucky little woman, who, metaphorically speaking, wiped up the earth with him, much to the delight of his friends, who were greatly amused at his discomfiture.

The old bachelor inquired why, when Eve was manufactured of a spare rib, a servant was made in the same time to wait on her. The little woman responded promptly: "Because Adam never read the newspapers until the sun got down behind the palm trees, and then, stretching, yawned out, 'Isn't supper nearly ready, my dear?' Not he. He made the fire and hung the kettle over it himself, I'll venture, and pulled the radishes, peeled the potatoes and did everything else he ought to do. 'He chirped and did the kindling, brought in the coal and did the choring himself, and he never brought home half a dozen friends to dinner when Eve hadn't any fresh ponegrants.'"

The little woman stopped a moment for breath and went on with renewed vigor: "And Adam never staid out till 12 o'clock at a political meeting huddling for some candidate and then scolding because poor Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates. He never played billiards, rolled tennis and drove fast horses nor choked Eve with cigar smoke."

"He never loafed around the corner groceries and saloons while Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home. In short, he didn't think she was especially created for the purpose of waiting on him and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten a wife's cares a little. That's the reason that Eve didn't need a hired girl, and with it is the reason that her descendants do."

She drew another breath and was about to continue, when the bachelor pulled his hat down over his eyes and sneaked away amid the laughter of the crowd.—Louisville Post.

Our National Air.

In reading accounts of the yacht races I noticed that the English bands could not play an American national air because "God Save the Queen" and "America" were the same. I have never found the reason why "The Star Spangled Banner" should not be our national air. I have heard them all played by the best bands in the country, and there is none which sends a thrill of gratitude at being an American through me so as that grand finale: And the star spangled banner in triumph does wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.—Carlos in Boston Traveler.

Cure for Headache.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly applying the world's best remedies to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fever, and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is purely free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all drug stores in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not be misled.
