CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

President Frank J. Hewlett of the City Council and wife left yesterday for a ten-days' visit in California.

* * *

The 15-year-old son of Councilman Comer of Lehi suffered the amputation of a leg at the Holy Cross hospital yesterday.

* * *

Sarah Ann Shoebridge, who was born in England eighty-one years ago and has lived in Salt Lake for fifty years, died of old age at 90 Grape street yesterday. She was the wife of Dr. C. E. Shoebridge. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

* * *

John McClosky reported at the police station yesterday that someone had stolen his buggy from the shed back of the Valley House. He found tracks leading east on Brigham street, which caused him to suspect several local millionaires of the larceny.

* * *

Six cases of chickenpox were reported to the Board of Health office yesterday. The patients are Sidney Nelson, aged 10, 833 Lake avenue; Ray Penrose, aged 4 years, 308 East Fifth South street, and the four children of C. E. Wood, 421 East Sixth South street.

* * *

Yancy & Frazier, proprietors of the Red Onion saloon on Commercial street, were arrested by Sergt. Roberts yesterday morning on the charge of keeping a gambling-house. They deposited $220 bail. M. James was brought in on a similar charge and put up the same quantity of cash.

* * *

J. Calvin Bucklee, accompanied by two South American mining men, arrived in the city from Chicago Tuesday evening. Mr. Bucklee, who is now assistant representative in the West for Allis Chalmers, will have his headquarters at Denver. After inspecting the smelters the party left on the Thursday evening train for the East.

* * *

Councilmen Preece, Martin, A. J. Davis and Hartenstein, comprising the Committee on Police and Prisons, paid a visit to Chief Lynch and the city jail yesterday afternoon. After discussing the needs and methods of the Police department in the Chief's office, they went into every part of the jail and took note of the improvements needed.

* * *

Articles of incorporation of the Star Pavilion company of Richfield, Sevier county, were filed in the office of the Secretary of State yesterday. The purpose of the company is to manage and control public dancing halls and opera-houses in Sevier county. The capital stock of the company is $4000, divided into shares of the par value of $1 each. The officers are: J. H. Nelson, president; Chris Christiansen, vice-president; Martin Christiansen, secretary and treasurer.

* * *

Patrons of a free lunch in a West First South street saloon who have been rather negligent about patronizing the bar felt mingled emotions at noon yesterday when they entered the place and found a bale of hay surrounded by knives, forks and spoons reposing on top of a snowy tablecloth on the lunch table. There was a card on the hay which read: "Free lunch—arise and eat. Don't be bashful—help yourself." As most of the men were hungry and penniless, the irony of the invitation was not fully appreciated.

* * *

The First Presbyterian church of Salt Lake City, organized for "the worship of Almighty God and instruction in the Christian religion, according to the confession of faith, form of government, book of discipline and directory for worship of that church in America," filed incorporation papers in the County Clerk's office yesterday. The church will be governed by a board of thirteen directors, a president and a clerk. The pastor, William M. Paden, is a director and president of the board, and the other directors are as follows: Frederick W. Francis, Albert S. Martin, Frank Pierce and George B. Sweazy, until 1905; Robert J. Caskey, Wiliam F. Colton, Edward V. Silver and Daniel H. Twomey, until 1906, and John C. Hill, Walter C. Lyne, Henry G. McMillan and Thomas Weir until 1907.

* * *

Weather for today: Generally fair except for possible snow flurries. The maximum temperature yesterday was 32 degrees; minimum, 12 degrees.
