HUNDREDS PLACED UNDER INDICTMENT

Kansas City Authorities Take Drastic Measures to Close Sunday Theaters.

SCORES OF ACTORS AND ACTRESSES ARRESTED

Hurried and Ludicrous Efforts to Evade Hand of the Law Furnishes Fun.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 7.—Drastic measures were taken here today to enforce the Sunday closing law as a result of the recent campaign begun by Judge William H. Wallace of the Criminal court. The county grand jury indicted 228 traveling actors and actresses and employees of local theaters, charged with violating the Missouri law forbidding labor on Sunday. Of this number forty-one were arrested and gave bond for $200 each, while the others evaded the officers and left the city without being apprehended.

The court room presented an unusual and almost ludicrous appearance when the persons arrested were lined up before Judge Wallace to give bond. Many of the actors went directly from the matinee performance to the court house and had not an opportunity to remove the paint from their faces. About one-third of them were actresses, many of them chorus girls.

Some Refuse to Plead.

The attorneys for the theater filed pleas in abatement and motions for a change of venue before they allowed their clients to plead, but the court insisted that the pleas be entered first. When the prisoners refused to plead Judge Wallace entered a plea of "not guilty" for each one.

Among the actors arrested were the following:

- A Zinek, Lilliputian comedian.
- Fiske O'Hara, the Irish comedian.
- The Ernesto family—Ray, May and Ernesto—silk wire performers.
- Paul Barnes, vaudeville.
- Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth, banjo players.
- Charles Guyer and Ada Christie, team of acrobats.
- Mr. Carom and Mr. Farnum, vaudeville team.
- Frank Rolleston.
- Burston Cole.
- Leon Ripley.
- Edith Bellows.
- Dorothy Gish.
- George Turley.
- Arthur Hill.
- Scavia Sylvania.
- Albert Bellman and Lottie Moore.
- John Clinto and Irene German, vaudeville team.
- John Jordan and Will Harvey, vaudeville team.
- John Woodward, trainer of performing seals.

One House Gives Up.

The announcement had been made that the arrests would come at the conclusion of the matinee performance. At some of the houses the performances were curtailed and the audiences dismissed. The Majestic, a burlesque house, did not give a matinee today, and the entire company left the city this morning. The Majestic will not open tomorrow, and the management of the National, a ten-cent theater, has announced it will not open tomorrow.

Billy Van, the minstrel, left town early this morning.

Then the deputy marshals learned that the actors at some of the houses were preparing to leave town today they concentrated their forces at the Century, a vaudeville burlesque house. When the actors and actresses made a rush together to leave the theater, the officers grabbed all they could, but many escaped. The management of the Grand, the Shubert, the Orphan, the Amphitruon and the Gills voluntarily went to the court house, taking their companies and employees with them. The Walker Whiteside company, which opened at the Willis Wood last Sunday, played only a half-week engagement and left the city before they were indicted.

READY TO BATTLE FOR OPEN CAMP

The mine owners refused to guarantee personally. There are about 1500 Western Federation miners now out in the entire camp.

The Nevada Workmen, organ of the mine workers in Goldfield, issued tonight a statement by Charles K. Mackinton, president of the Goldfield miners' union, in which he says:

"There is no sane man in the district who will say that there has any need for the Federal troops in Goldfield."

Violence Predicted.

The paper says editorially: "It is evident that the Mine Owners' association intends to re-enact the tragic scenes of Colorado. The coming of the troops means nothing short of that. Violence and disorder will ensue upon the arrival of the troops, and it is apparent that the 'not guilty' verdict of Colorado is to be rewritten."

A statement to the public issued tonight by the Goldfield Mine Operators' association states in the beginning that "repeated outrages against individual rights and banishment from the camp of men desirous of investing in the mines, open looting of every mine carrying high-grade ore, and deeds of violence have become so unbearable that the owners must either close the mines, hand them over to the union or make a desperate effort to gain the right to work them as we please."

"We have chosen the latter alternative and propose to make one final struggle for the right to manage our own property."

Penniless Brokers of Gotham Tell Story of Stringency, Says Pike

New York, a city whose most penniless class today is its thousands of stock brokers and commission men—its famed Broadway thronged with hundreds of theatrical people who do not know where their next meal is coming from, with the great hotels of the town strangers to the old-time crowds—is the story brought to Salt Lake from the East Saturday by Charles D. Pike, city passenger agent of the San Pedro road at Los Angeles and one of the best known passenger men in the country.

"A condition exists in New York that is almost incredible," declares Mr. Pike. "There are thousands of stock brokers and commission men in New York today who for years have made from $7000 to $20,000 annually that are dead broke. I lived among them a long time and I know how this stringency has fixed them. I met an actor from New York who I personally knew in former days to be well off and who are now down to their last dollar. There are hundreds of those men who don't know where or how they will eat from day to day. They are pretty nearly helpless, too, for they would starve to death outside New York. That city is all they know and the stock market is about all they know. They are fine chaps and you find them dressed to the hilt, snave, polished and delightful to meet—not a dollar in their pockets."

"It is worse than it has been in years with theatrical people along the Great White Way. Scores of companies have been obliged to come in off the road, the balance of the wrong side of the street, the theatrical agents are besieged day and night and the professional people are living on hope in the meantime."

"The last time I was in New York only could get into the dinette rooms and a few of the big popular hotels after 8 o'clock in the evening. They were thronged to the doors. You can get there now and get in anywhere with as large a party of friends as you wish to take. Some of those hotels are almost deserted at night. It is the strangest and most unprecedented situation I have ever encountered in or out of New York."

"The railroads in New York and other large Eastern cities have made no reduction in their office forces as far as I could learn and everyone believes the worst is over and that none will be made."

"Travel to the West this winter is going to be almost as heavy as it was last winter, in spite of the money situation. It will fall off a little, of course, but not enough to make any great difference. This is the most encouraging feature I discovered in the East."

"Mr. Pike is an old-time Salt Lake and was a friend of D. H. Peery, who died Friday in Los Angeles. 'I did not know of Henry's death until Saturday morning,' said Mr. Pike. 'It was a great shock to me, for I left him but a few weeks ago with the agreement that when I got back from the East I was to look him up at a nice little bungalow near Los Angeles and help him move in. He seemed wonderfully better then, and we all hoped for the best.'

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizziness, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, a cold liver with indigestion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants: Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrylark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms: Dr. E. S. Key, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Philadelphia; M. D. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin H. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensary; Prof. J. C. Moore, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica; Prof. Bennett Moore, M. D., of Chicago College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authorities and many others endorsing in the most glowing terms each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate an inveterate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" and are sold for the same price. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

the train over the Goldfield and Tonopah road bearing 150 Federal troops from San Francisco.

The rumor is partially confirmed by General Manager H. D. Henson of the Tonopah & Goldfield road, who states that an employee of the road made a verbal report to him this afternoon, saying that dynamite had been found on the tracks at a point about one mile and a half from the Goldfield depot.

The dynamite, according to the report made, was found last night several hours before the train bearing Colonel Reynolds and his command from Fort McDowell arrived here, Colonel Reynolds said tonight that he had heard nothing of the rumor.

FEDERATION OFFICIALS ALLEGE A CONSPIRACY.

DENVER, Dec. 7.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Western Federation of Miners in this city today it was agreed to levy an assessment upon members of the organization for the benefit of the Goldfield strikers. The possibility of securing a Congressional investigation of President Roosevelt's action in sending troops to Goldfield at the request of Governor Sparks of Nevada was discussed, and it was practically decided to bring the matter to the attention of Congress.

"The action of the President in sending the troops to Goldfield was the result of a prearranged conspiracy between Wall street interests and Governor Sparks," declared acting President Mahoney after the executive session. There was absolutely no need for such action, he says, for, to say the least, that troops should be hurried to Goldfield before the sheriff had made any request upon the Governor for aid. The action is unprecedented and some ulterior motive is undoubtedly responsible for the outrage.

William D. Haywood, secretary of the Federation, declared that the mine owners were themselves responsible for the strike, and that troops should be followed must be laid at their doors. He said that the owners had violated their agreement and ignored a compromise to which they had agreed. Haywood declared absurd the story sent out from Los Angeles that he had instigated the strike.

"When I left Nevada," said Haywood, "the Goldfield miners and operators had reached an agreement. The miners agreed to accept a compromise that they would be paid half in cash and half in cashiers' certificates and the owners accepted this compromise. It was when the operators refused to stick to the terms of the bargain and declined either to guarantee their checks or pay any part in cash that the miners were forced to strike. The certificates were accepted at only one store and the miners consequently were without means to live."

"I had a conference with United States Senator Nixon of the Consolidated company, in which he personally agreed to the terms of the compromise. The mine owners have only themselves to blame for this trouble."

SWEM IS COMMANDER OF G. R. MAXWELL POST

At the annual meeting of the George R. Maxwell post No. 5, held Saturday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Commander, J. M. Swem; senior vice-commander, J. L. Justice; junior vice-commander, George H. Austin; chaplain, George P. Squires; quartermaster, Alfred Kent; officer of the day, John S. Stevens; officer of the guard, Chester Phelps; surgeon, Dr. Joseph Milleron; trustees, Henry P. Burns and W. P. Rowe.

Eleven delegates were elected to the department encampment, which will be held in the spring. They are: George H. Austin, John Beatty, William B. Brown, J. C. Coad, Abel Grovener, J. Johnson, S. Johnson, P. H. Kidd, M. P. Miller, James L. Justice and H. H. Kinsman. The following were elected alternates: Dr. Joseph Milleron, Hans Dakason, James P. Lindsey, Chester Phelps, W. P. Wilson, Lewis Seidel, H. Skilhorn and John S. Stevens.

HOME COMING OF OWNERS FRIGHTENS MARAUDER

On approaching their home at 114 F street, late Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Edvard Dunn, who had been out for the evening, noticed that the lights which they had extinguished were on. Realizing that something was wrong, they hastened and reached the house in time to see a man rush down the steps and into the darkness. Dunn had a gun, but neglected to shoot. Mrs. Dunn telephoned for the police from the home of a neighbor, but up to a late hour the midnight visitor had not been apprehended. Nothing in the house was disturbed.

DAYLIGHT BURGLAR MAKES A LARGE HAUL OF JEWELRY

In broad daylight Saturday burglars entered the residence of Thomas O'Connor, 246 Covey flats, and looted it of $500 worth of jewelry. Twenty-one pieces of jewelry, a walrus handbag and a gold dollar were taken. The articles stolen ranged in value from a pearl necklace, with three pendants, to a pair of cuff buttons.

How and when the burglary was committed are mysteries to the O'Connor family and the police as well. Mrs. O'Connor wore several articles of jewelry to the theater Friday night and replaced them in her jewel box in her bedroom upon returning home. She took the watch from the box to wind it Saturday morning and is therefore certain the burglary was not committed before 9 or 10 o'clock.

Suspicion attaches to an unknown man who was seen prowling about the flats about 11:30 o'clock Saturday morning. While C. M. Manning, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine company, was repairing Mrs. O'Connor's sewing machine in the bedroom about that time, he saw a man peer into the flats from the porch at the north end. After looking inside a while the stranger disappeared and Mr. Manning thought no more of the circumstance until after the burglary was reported.

The police are of the opinion that the stranger quietly entered the flats while no one was looking and concealed himself until a favorable moment for the burglary came. That he had carefully gone over the situation there seems no reason to doubt. In reaching the dresser drawer containing the jewel

Death. Expected Almost Hourly for Week Past, Comes Shortly After Midnight.

MILLBURY, Mass., Dec. 8.—Death, which had been expected almost hourly for a week past, was announced this morning at 12:20 o'clock from the bedside of Mrs. Louisa Maria Taft, mother of Secretary of War William H. Taft. Mrs. Taft was the widow of Alphonso Taft, Secretary of War and Attorney-General of the United States, and President Grant, and later minister to Austria and Russia.

Mrs. Taft was attacked last July with acute indigestion, and a gradual breakdown of her vigorous constitution soon followed. Secretly Taft, her son, visited her on Independence day and left her, apparently in normal health, to go to his summer home in Canada, from which place he was summoned on August 15 because of alarm at his mother's condition. He spent a day at her bedside and found her in a less dangerous condition than he had supposed. The imperative duties of his office called him to Washington, where plans for a tour of the world had been so intimately arranged that they could not be changed, and as his mother was reported as rallying her strength, he proceeded to carry out his programme.

Mrs. Taft resided in the old home-stead, where she had lived as a girl, and which is now the home of her sister, Miss Della Torrey.

Mrs. Taft was born in Boston September 11, 1827, the daughter of Samuel Taft, a prominent merchant.

Mrs. Taft is survived by four children, of whom Secretary Taft is the eldest. The other sons are Henry W. Taft of the New York law firm of Strong & Caldwell, and Horace P. Taft, founder and head of the Taft School for Boys at Watertown, Conn. The daughter, Fanny L., is the wife of Dr. William A. Edwards of Los An-

Prominent Temperance Advocate Indorses

Mr. George Foster Collins, of Lincoln, Neb., who is 73 years old, a member of the Presbyterian Church, prominent in politics, a life-long and strenuous advocate of temperance, has been greatly benefited by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and conscientiously recommends it as the best tonic stimulant for the old.

"I am 73 years old. Was born in Wayne County, N. Y., on March 21, 1834. Our family moved to Michigan shortly after this. I grew up on the farm; then studied law, was admitted to the bar, was County Clerk of St. Clair County, Mich., which office I held four years. Then was for a time Secretary of the Midland Railway of Michigan. I moved with my family to a farm in Gage County, Nebraska, in 1874; was a member of the County Board eight years. In 1890 was elected State Senator. Foster, my middle name, has been transmitted in the family for over 100 years from father to son. Mr. Collins and myself are members of the Presbyterian Church of Lincoln where we have lived for the last four years. We celebrated the fifty-third anniversary of our marriage on March 23rd, 1907.

"From early youth have been a strenuous advocate of temperance principles and strongly opposed to the use of liquor in any form. Over a year ago I began to feel a gradual decline of the vital forces. I had read and heard much about the benefits to be derived from the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey by those in my condition, and was advised by an old friend and temperance worker who had received much benefit from its use to overcome my prejudices against liquor and try it. I took his advice and have been greatly benefited by it, and can conscientiously recommend all those passing into the "sear and yellow leaf" of life to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey."—GEORGE FOSTER COLLINS, 2509 P Street, Lincoln, Neb., May 15th, 1907.

MR. GEORGE FOSTER COLLINS.

We celebrated the fifty-third anniversary of our marriage on March 23rd, 1907.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces; it makes digestion perfect and enables you to get from the food you eat all the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N.
