

CALENDAR.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyes will entertain eight at a Christmas dinner at the Alta club Wednesday evening.

Miss Laura Samson will entertain at a Christmas dinner in her new bungalow Wednesday afternoon. Others who will entertain are Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Ferry.

Tuesday evening, December 31, the P. E. O. society will give an entertainment at the High M. E. church for charity, of which this society does so much. The entertainment will be under the direction of Miss Buckle and will be a children's cantata called "Cinderella in Flowerland."

The next meeting of the bridge tournament will be Monday, December 30, with Miss Baneroff.

The next meeting of the Friday Evening Caxi club will be December 27, with Miss Florence Grant.

Invitations have been issued for a dance to be given by the Theta Upsilon sorority Friday evening, December 27.

Affairs of the Week.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the bridge tea given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. A. S. Bower. Her pretty home was beautifully decorated with red and green, the Christmas colors. Large baskets of red and white carnations were in the parlor and library. In the diningroom Mrs. J. E. Jennings poured coffee, assisted by Mrs. W. M. McCrea, Mrs. T. G. Griffin, Mrs. J. H. Richards and Mrs. John C. Daly. The table centerpiece was a beautiful basket of poinsettias, with ferns and red ribbons and Christmas bells hanging from the chandelier. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. M. Ferry, Mrs. J. J. Broughall, Mrs. T. C. Gibson, Mrs. W. P. Kiser, Mrs. H. C. Lawson, Mrs. S. E. Evans, Mrs. C. C. Crismon and Mrs. E. J. Roberts.

Mrs. Henry La Motte entertained at an informal tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Simpson, who is visiting here from New York City.

Thursday evening a delightful musical was given at the University club and followed by an informal dance. Among those who took part were Miss Edna Bailey, Miss Esther Allen, Miss Judith Evans, Hugh Douglass and Edward Conley. About 100 enjoyed the affair. The rooms were tastefully decorated with Christmas colors and collage banners.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Little entertained Tuesday evening at 500. Prizes were won by Mrs. Godman and Mr. Gideon Snyder.

One of the largest and most elaborate affairs given by the High school was the "red and black" dance in the Eaton gymnasium Friday evening. The hall was decorated with school pennants and the Christmas colors with many wreaths of holly. The chaperones for the evening were Colonel and Mrs. Wedgwood, Dr. and Mrs. Wright, Miss Rowe, Miss Mayne, Miss Ellerbeck and George A. Eaton.

The young ladies of the Sewing club entertained the thirty children of the free kindergarten at a Christmas dinner at Unity hall Wednesday noon. It was followed Friday by a fine large Christmas tree entertainment. A number of friends were present. Each child received a box of candy, a book, a pair of mittens. Dolls were given the girls and mouth organs to the boys. The parents of the children were given small calendars made by the children of the kindergarten.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Porter will leave Sunday for an Eastern trip. Later they will go to Los Angeles to visit their daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Mann, and her family.

Miss Elizabeth Craig leaves Sunday for Rawlins, Wyo.

Invitations are now out for the initial ball to be given by the Governors club next Friday evening, December 27, in the new ballroom of the Ensign amusement company. This affair promises to be one of the social events of the season.

Salt Lakers will be interested in hearing of a gentleman here who gave Mrs. W. V. Rice a substantial sum of money to provide the boys at Canyon

MRS. ROSCOE M. BREEDEN.

Crest with a pleasant Christmas. This will enable those connected with Canyon Crest to bring the boys to Salt Lake the day before Christmas to spend the day at the Newhouse Betterment home.

A small wedding during the week was that of Miss Bessie Burrows and Frank M. Oliver. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will be at home to their friends after January 1 at 22 Hewett terrace.

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Richards and Miss Richards will leave Monday evening to spend the winter at Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. P. S. Hawks and Miss Grace Hawks of Hamilton, Ohio, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. S. Hawks.

Dr. and Mrs. Keogh will be at home to their friends after December 29, in the Covey flats.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Child are now in the City of Mexico, where they will spend Christmas. They will leave January 2 for Havana.

Dr. G. E. Stiehl left Thursday for Los Angeles to spend the holidays with Mrs. Stiehl and son Ralph, who are living there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parsons of Ely will arrive Sunday to spend a week or ten days.

Mrs. Robert Murray, who left here the last of September and sailed for Berlin, arrived at New York Saturday with her husband, who is a member of the Taft party.

Mrs. Brown of Mammoth and Miss Cora Brown of Merion are spending a few days here with Mrs. Hal Brown.

Judge George Fatch left the middle of the week for a month's stay at New York City.

Mrs. E. I. Thorn will leave next week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Newhouse, who is spending the winter at San Antonio, Tex.

Mrs. Sumner Gleason of Kaysville is spending a few days here.

Mrs. Garret Hogan of Los Angeles is spending a few days with Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Mayo, while on her way to Bozeman, Mont., to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. Effie Dean Knapp, accompanied by Mrs. Ritter and Miss Calder, left Thursday for a month's stay at New York City.

Among the girls and boys who have returned from Eastern and Western schools for the holidays are the Misses Edna and Margaret Dunn, Margaret Walker and Stella Fabien, from Miss Bennett's On-the-Hudson; Miss Zaida

HOTEL KNUTSFORD BUILDING

Holiday Opportunities of an Extraordinary Money-Saving Character.

MEHESY FURS

AT HALF-PRICE

Tremendous Overstock Pre-Christmas

SALE

KNUTSFORD HOTEL BUILDING

Open Evenings.

GOLD MEDAL, DIPLOMA, BLUE RIBBON.

[STATE FAIR, 1907.]

Salt Lake City's Manufacturing Furrier and Importer

I. C. GLOSZ

[WILSON HOTEL ANNEX. WILSON HOTEL ANNEX.]

Stirring Fur News at Glosz's. The whole store presents its best economy offerings.

Toss Holiday lassitude to the winds. Here is news that will prove exhilarating to every Man and Woman who reads it. The Galvanic Battery of radical price reductions has so electrified the whole store that GLOSZ'S again this week will be the pole star to all who have FUR needs, either as personal apparel or as elegant Holiday Gifts.

An Enormous Stock to Choose From and It All Must Go.

I. C. GLOSZ

WILSON HOTEL ANNEX.

OPEN EVENINGS.

We have 50 sets Children's Furs and 10 sets American Mink that arrived late Saturday afternoon. We will offer Monday and Tuesday at a very low price to close.

BANKS' Millinery and Fur Store, 116 So. Main.

co, sister of Mrs. Frederic Fuller, of this city, has come to Salt Lake to reside.

Miss Henrietta and Miss Margaret Vermillion, who have been attending Christmas in Paris. Mrs. Igleheart will then go to London and return to New York sometime in February.

Mrs. H. P. Henderson will spend Christmas with Dr. and Mrs. Mack at Los Angeles.

Miss Charlotte Holmes will leave Sunday to spend Christmas with her mother at Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parsons of Denver are here for a short stay.

Miss Elizabeth Smith of Logan and her sister, Miss Smith, of Madison, Wis., will spend the holidays at Pasadena.

Miss Minnie Sadler has returned home after a stay of more than two months at Kansas City and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Aley will leave Sunday for San Francisco to spend the holidays with her parents.

George E. Gunn and Albert McCormick are planning to leave soon for a three months' trip abroad.

Mrs. Dan Galligan of Park City is here visiting friends.

Mrs. L. B. Coates will leave Sunday to spend the holidays with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Corum, at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Frank E. McGurkin will leave the first of the year for Los Angeles, where she will spend two or three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scarff are at the Kenyon hotel for the holidays, from Chicago.

T. J. Morgan left for Los Angeles Friday night on the limited to spend the holidays with Mrs. Morgan and daughter, Ruth, who are wintering there.

Mrs. Charles McCam left Thursday for Tacoma, to make it her future home.

Mrs. W. L. Green of the Emery flats expects to leave soon for southern California, to spend the winter.

M. S. Greiner and wife of Manitou are spending the holidays with friends in Los Angeles.

Weir H. Cassidy left a few days ago for Seattle to spend the winter with his brother and sister-in-law.

F. Hobson, wife and daughter, have left for Seattle to make it their future home.

Miss Millie Hansen and brother will spend Christmas with their parents at Provo.

R. A. Langenhagen and Mrs. S. Olsen will spend Christmas with James Hansen's family of Provo.

Mrs. Amelia F. Young is quite sick at her home, No. 6 South First West.

Earl Weight of Pasadena, Cal., is in the city visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Jack.

Miss Mary Gray has gone to Bingham to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gray.

Miss Eva Snow left Saturday for Richfield to spend Christmas with her sister.

Mrs. S. J. Merritt of Cananea, Mexico, sister of Mrs. Frederic Fuller, of this city, has come to Salt Lake to reside.

Music.

Music for the Unitarian church morning service, "The Christmas Herald," by Coombs, will be sung by Mrs. Bessie Browning with a violin obligato by Mr. Cowan. The Unity quartette will sing.

The pupils of Miss Mattie Hall gave a recital, closing the term, at the studio Saturday morning. An interesting programme and selections from Heller, Hanselt and Schumann were rendered.

H. I. Bowles, for some time connected with Calvary church, New York City, will sing at St. Mark's cathedral Sunday, in the morning, the recitative, "Comfort Ye," and aria "Every Valley," from Handel's "Messiah," and in the evening, "With All Your Hearts," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah."

At St. Mark's cathedral a midnight service will be held Christmas eve, at which the following programme of music will be rendered: Processional, hymn No. 58, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "Kyrie Elision" (Battison Haynes); "Gloria Tibi" (Battison Haynes); "Credo" (Battison Haynes); anthem, "The Star of Peace" (Schuecker), solo by Miss Isabel Osborn; "Sanctus" (Gounod), "Agnus Dei" (Battison Haynes), "Gloria in Excelsis" (Battison Haynes), solos by Mrs. Gertrude Murray; "Nunc Dimittis," organ; Recessional, hymn No. 60, "Angels From the Realms of Glory."

Christmas morning, at 11 o'clock, the following music will be sung: Processional, hymn No. 59, "Come All Ye Faithful," "Venite" (Mendelssohn); "Te deum laudamus" (Jackson); "Jubilate Deo" (Dupuis); "Introit," solo, "The New-Born King" (L'Espoir); "Kyrie Elision" (Battison Haynes); "Gloria Tibi" (Battison Haynes); "Credo" (Battison Haynes); sermon hymn No. 58, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," singing of the doxology; offertory anthem "Hallelujah Chorus" (Handel); "Benedictus," (Gounod), solo by Miss Any Osborn; "Sanctus" (Gounod); "Agnus Dei" (Battison Haynes); "Gloria in Excelsis" (Battison Haynes), solos by Mrs. Gertrude Murray; "Nunc Dimittis," recessional, hymn No. 51, "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," organ prelude. Karl A. Scheid, choirmaster; A. H. Peabody, organist.

The Fine Arts.

"The Fine Arts," together with a life membership in The National Art society for the advancement of art in America, can be secured at Miss Willard's studio, 164 East South Temple street. The National Art society includes directors of art, celebrated critics, art educators, National and State presidents of women's clubs, business and professional men, and cultured women throughout America. "The Fine Arts" contains a valuable course of studies for those who are authority. A university course combined with masterpieces and paintings from masters of past and present. It appeals to and deserves the support of all lovers of the beautiful. A membership in The National Art society enables one to keep in sympathy and up to date in every phase of art.

Women of Salt Lake.

Mrs. W. H. Bryan, the well-known hairdresser, who also does manicure, chiropody and electrolysis, has returned from the East and invites her friends to call upon her at No. 3 Wilder apartments.

ONLY TWO DAYS LEFT OF MEHESY'S GREAT HALF-PRICE CLEARANCE SALE. KNUTSFORD HOTEL.

Tribune Want Ads. Bell phone 5201. Ind. phone 330-343.

WE CLEAN

Suits, Cloaks, Waists, Hats, Gloves, Plumes or any other articles of apparel, no matter how coarse or how delicate the fabric, and clean all to a brand new appearance. Also Portiers and Fancy Curtains and Draperies without danger of injury. Ask about our new processes.

Regal Cleaning & Dyeing Co., Main Office, 1st South and State. Phones 1133.