SALT LAKE PRAISED BY THE CREDIT MEN

Returning Delegates From Denver Convention Enthusiased by the City.

REPRESENT PRINCIPAL CITIES OF THE EAST

Are En Route to Yellowstone National Park on Special Train.

That Salt Lake City is one of the most wonderful cities in the country, that it is destined to be one of the largest and most beautiful, and that its citizens, especially the representatives of the business houses, are among the most progressive and are the finest entertainers in the world, were the opinions expressed by the returning delegates to the Denver national convention of credit men on their way home from Denver, after the holding of the affair there last week. The party, numbering about seventy-five, arrived over the Denver & Rio Grande railroad on a special train composed of three Pullman observation car, diner and the other necessary adjuncts of good railroad service. The party was en route for the best view from the train, and the trip to Yellowstone National Park on a special train composed of three Pullman observation car, diner and the other necessary adjuncts of good railroad service. MAY RAISE ISSUE AS TO PROHIBITION

Anti-Injunction Plank Will Not Be Only Cause of Strife at Denver.

CHAMBERLAIN IN RACE FOR THE SECOND PLACE

Seating Arrangements Modified to Permit Accommodations for Many More.

DENVER, Colo., June 29.—The fight over the anti-injunction plank in the Democratic platform is not the only struggle in which the committee on resolutions and possibly the convention itself may be involved. It developed today that the prohibition question is to be brought to the front and a desperate effort will be made to have a plank declaring in its favor placed in the platform. The prohibition issue will be headed by James Weaver of Iowa, who demanded of the recent Democratic convention in that State that it declare in favor of prohibition. General Weaver and his followers were not successful in their efforts in their own State, but nothing daunted by their failure, have made arrangements to bring the matter before the Democratic National convention. They claim, moreover, to have strong backing from a number of the Southern delegations which have recently passed prohibition laws and it is declared confidently by General Weaver's adherents that if the Democratic National platform does not contain a prohibition plank it will only be for the reason that the hardest kind of fighting has been unable to secure its adoption.

SOLDIERS ORDERED TO PRESERVE PEACE

By Direction of President, Secretary of War Sends Troops to Mexican Border.

ACTION IS TAKEN AT REQUEST OF MEXICO

Armed Force to Be Ready if More Revolutionists Should Cross the Border.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—By direction of President Roosevelt, Secretary of War Taft has issued orders to the commanding general of the department of Texas, at San Antonio, to send a sufficient number of troops to Del Rio, El Paso, and other points in Texas to aid the civil authorities in preserving order. This action was decided upon as a result of the request from the Mexican government that the United States do its utmost to prevent any violation of the neutrality laws. The request of the Mexican government was referred to the attorney-general by the state department, and the governor of Texas in the meantime was asked to aid in compelling obedience to the law. The order of the President sending troops to the border is understood to have been made upon the recommendation of the attorney-general, Brigadier General Meyer, in command of the department of Texas, is authorized to ascertain the number of troops necessary at Del Rio and El Paso, and also to send troops to any other points along the Mexican border if found advisable. The federal troops will act under the direction of the United States marshal and the United States district attorney. The troops' presence will also do much to prevent any outbreaks within United States territory, and will be of material assistance in the event that revolutionists should cross the border. Del Rio is directly opposite Las Vaca, Mexico, where the principal disturbances have occurred.

CHAIRMANSHIP IS NOT YET DECIDED

Taft Gets Busy Doing Several Things at Once, but the Fog Yet Remains.

STRONG PULL IS MADE TO FORCE VORYS TO THE FRONT

Candidate Says No Decision Will Be Reached Until Meeting to Be Held July 8.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Secretary Taft today successfully combined his official duties with politics. His diversified abilities never had a better illustration than they had from 11 o'clock this morning until 6 o'clock tonight. At intervals during that time he discussed the most intricate problems arising in the war department and conferred with political friends and advisers respecting the most delicate affairs of the approaching political campaign. By far the most important conference of the day in genuine interest was that which he had this afternoon with a delegation representing the political organization of the Republican party in his home state of Ohio. Walter Brown, chairman of the Republican state central committee; Henry Williams, chairman of the Republican state executive committee, and N. A. Gilbert, state auditor, came to Washington to urge Secretary Taft favorably to consider Arthur T. Vorys in the selection of a national chairman. Strong Plea for Vorys. They discussed the matter with Secretary Taft at considerable length, indicating to him that the appointment of Mr. Vorys meant much to the Republican organization in Ohio. They expressed an apprehension that the selection of Mr. Hitchcock, for instance, or almost anybody else than Mr. Vorys, might tend to disrupt the organization in Ohio, which largely had been built up by Mr. Vorys. At the conclusion of the conference, although Secretary Taft did not indicate to the delegation what his intentions were, he authorized the members to telegraph to Mr. Vorys requesting him to come to Washington and meet him on next Wednesday. Secretary Taft, when asked this evening what likely might be the nature of the conference with Mr. Vorys, replied laughingly: "Well, if any, we shall talk some politics, even though the weather be hot." "When will you see Mr. Hitchcock?" the secretary was asked. "I understand," he replied, "that Mr. Hitchcock is in the city, but I have not seen him, and I shall not see him until I am a private citizen. Tomorrow I shall be so deeply engrossed with the departmental matters which I am trying to clear up for my successor, Governor Wright, that I shall have little time to devote to personal or political matters. Hitchcock Has Some Work. Frank H. Hitchcock, Secretary Taft's Washington manager, arrived here today from Chicago and will be engaged for several days in the work of closing up the Taft headquarters in this city. Mr. Hitchcock declined to discuss the publication of the chairmanship question. He said that he expected to have a conference with Secretary Taft in a day or two, but pending that interview he could say nothing. Every effort was today made to learn something definite respecting the choice of a national chairman, but Secretary Taft himself this afternoon said: "No announcement concerning the national chairmanship will be made until I have conferred further with the subcommittee of the national committee. That conference will be held at Hot Springs. Mr. Taft has indicated that she will be ready to leave Washington for Hot Springs next Friday. I shall therefore notify the members of the sub-committee to meet me there on the eighth of July. The chairmanship matter will be determined then, and not before then. Hitchcock Pleasant, But Not Communicative. Special to The Tribune. WASHINGTON, June 29.—Frank H. Hitchcock, who is still to be considered in connection with the chairmanship of the Republican National committee, arrived here today and spent most of his time closing up the Taft headquarters and most of the preliminary work of the Taft candidacy was conducted. Mr. Hitchcock was pleasant in conversation, but did not give them any valuable tips on the chairmanship. It is believed that Taft has straightened out the tangled and that Vorys has signified his willingness to step aside for Hitchcock, who is indicated for the chairmanship by a majority of the national committee. Word was received here from Lincoln, Neb., today that Bryan has picked Joseph Chilton, of West Virginia, to manage his campaign. Chilton is a pronounced Bryanite and won the recent fight in that State for Bryan.

GRAND JURY WILL MAKE REPORT TODAY

Is Said Inquirers Have Completed Investigation of Famous Bank Robbery.

OPINION IS DIVIDED AS TO THE INDICTMENTS

Principals in Great Case Feel Strain as Close of Case Approaches.

Tuesday marks the close of the federal fiscal year. The United States grand jury is prepared to report on the famous Utah National Bank case that morning at 10 o'clock, just as soon as it can appear before Judge Marshall. This was indicated Monday afternoon by those most familiar with the case. Beside this fact, the grand jury held no session Monday afternoon, and during the morning it was in executive session more than half the time. Only the presence of Theodore Kytha served to interest the jury. Mr. Kytha carries with him an interesting set of apparatus, not the least of which is a special camera, which is used in his work. Had the jury not finished its work Monday morning, and were it not ready to report Tuesday, Monday afternoon would have been passed by as it was. The closing hours of the jury's session were devoted to an executive session. The impression of the public on the number of indictments to be returned is decidedly divided. Some quarters insist that three indictments will be returned; others hold but one. None but members of the grand jury and the district attorney's office are actually aware of the number of indictments. So far as the grand jury is concerned, it is thought that the case will be ended Tuesday. In the last moments, just before the grand jury is ready to file its report, there is a tenseness and a sympathetic nervousness that sweeps over those who have figured in the case as the principal characters, and also over those who have followed the case closely. It is almost akin to the feeling at the close of a race, but beside this suppressed excitement there is a fear, for none know upon whom the blow will fall. With all this, even when the jury shall report and the indictments are returned, the absolute guilt of the indicted will not be settled until a court trial is held. Nor will the evidence upon which the jury based its assumptions be known until this evidence is submitted in a court of justice.

MORE OIL PRODUCED THAN IS NOW NEEDED

FINDLAY, O., June 29.—James C. Donnell, general manager of the Ohio Oil company, today issued a report that oil delinquency of the country curtail their production until a market can be had for the present supply of oil. He says it is impossible to hold tankage for the production and there is being produced daily in the Ohio oil field alone more than 100,000 barrels.

MYSTERIOUS AND FATAL EXPLOSION

Four Persons Killed; Four Seriously Injured; Heavy Property Loss in Frisco.

NO LOGICAL EXPLANATION AS TO REASON OR CAUSE

Some Evidence That Dynamite Was Used, but Nothing to Afford Clue.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—A mysterious explosion, which occurred at an early hour today at Diamond and Cheney streets, caused the death of four persons, seriously injured four others and completely destroyed two buildings, causing a loss of $30,000. The Dead. JOHN SWEENEY, aged 52 years. MRS. JOHN SWEENEY, aged 50 years. ELLEN SWEENEY, aged 11 years. ANTOINE DISSMEYER, aged 2. The Injured. Mrs. Mary Dissmeyer, aged 17 years. Friedrich Sweeney, aged 24. Diedrich Dissmeyer, aged 24. Thomas Hart, fireman. The explosion took place in the building occupied by a grocery store and saloon by John Sweeney and S. F. Johnson. Both were closed at the time of the disaster. The Sweeneys lived just above the grocery store and the Dissmeyer family resided in an upper flat. All the victims were in bed at the time. The elder Sweeney, his wife and daughter and little Antoine Dissmeyer were instantly killed. The baby's body was blown through a window and was found in a tree. Fred Sweeney was hurled through another window and terribly bruised. Diedrich Dissmeyer made his escape, but rushed back into the burning house and carried his wife out through the flames, both being badly burned. Cause and Motive Mysterious. The cause of the explosion, as well as the motive for the crime, is unknown. Theories that coal oil kept in the grocery or a leak in the gas main might have wrecked the structures proved to be untenable, and it is now the belief of the police that dynamite was used. The fact that coal oil kept in the grocery was a fight in the place last night, and he thinks that some one involved in the trouble was the author of the outrage. The fact that a man named T. J. Gallagher held a joint lease of the saloon with Johnson led to the rumor that the building belonged to former Supervisor James L. Gallagher, the principal witness for the graft prosecution, whose houses in Oakland were recently dynamited, but this proved untrue. The former supervisor has a brother of the same name as the lessee of the saloon, who is no relation, and Detective Burns thinks that the man who caused the explosion may have confused the men. This is admitted, however, to be merely a surmise, and the affair still remains a mystery.

WINSLOW, Ariz., June 29.—Two trainmen and a passenger were killed, a score of persons were more or less severely injured, and a portion of the California Limited, the Santa Fe's fast overland train, was derailed and wrecked last night when the train, while running fifty miles an hour, struck a wide gap in the track, caused by the burning of a bridge, near Hardy, twelve miles east of here. The Dead. C. L. PARTRIDGE, Redlands, Cal. ENGINEER CURRIN, Winslow, Ariz. FIREMAN THOMAS, Winslow, Ariz. The Injured. W. K. Flecker, Los Angeles. B. C. Taylor, Los Angeles. J. B. Dams, Hotel Maryland, Pasadena. F. G. Cruikshank. D. B. Sabradon. Albert Spaulding. W. W. Payne, mail clerk. Ralph Gould mail clerk. F. Greiger, Pullman employe. F. Reynolds, Pasadena. Club Women Balloting. BOSTON, June 29.—Balloting for officers was the chief item of business transacted at tonight's session of the American Federation of Women's clubs in this city. Announcement of the result will be made until tomorrow.

Had Short Notice.

No opportunity was lost to show the beauties and advantages of Salt Lake City to the returning delegates from the Denver national convention of credit men on their way home from Denver, after the holding of the affair there last week.
