MEM'RIES OF THE PAST

I'm listening for a little voice that used to whisper "Dad" And cheer me up when I came home a-feeling blue and sad. The voice is still that used to call And say good-night at evening's fall, And I'm alone, all, all alone, With memories of the past.

I'm watching in the fire light glow the pictures of the long ago. The little coat, the toys and things that were the pride of "Sonny Joe." And now a tear has awakened me To bring the days that used to be Fond memories of the past.

I'm listening, watching, waiting, but I know it's all in vain: The voice I long for never more shall whisper "Dad" again. Perhaps in brighter realms some day when all has passed away I may be awakened by that voice I miss so much today. J. M. Maddern.

Letters of a Slim-Made Woman to Her Fat Sister

Second Letter: On the Heritage of Over-fatness.

Dear Sis—You've heard the adage "Like Father, Like Son." Well, I never before thought of it applying to overfatness until today. Clara Moore was here with her 15-year-old boy. He is enormous—weighs nearly 200 pounds. She came to ask how I reduced myself to my present slim trimness.

Of course, I told her about Marmola Prescription Tablets—How they contain exactly the same ingredients as the Marmola Prescription that took off my fat, and assured her they were perfectly harmless. Said she'd be willing to buy a ton of them if they did any good at all. The boy is a tremendous eater and is too lazy to take any exercise (fat people are), but you know I stopped starving and coveting long before I started to take Marmola.

That's the beauty of this wonderful method—it isn't dependent upon any other treatment. And I know I'm doing that boy a favor.

In a few months he'll be solid and smooth-skinned, with better figure and health than ever before and he need never again dread the extreme obesity that is now such a family trait.

More parents know that for 75¢ they could purchase a large box of Marmola Prescription Tablets from their druggist or the Marmola Co. (Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich.), hereditary overfatness would be a thing of the past. Don't you think so? Affectionately, BETTY.

If the Sanitarium Hot Springs Baths were located in Chicago, New York or any large metropolitan center, their value would be considerably in excess of $1,000,000.00. In Utah we have so many natural blessings that we do not fully appreciate the fact that these waters are almost identical with those of the famous Carlsbad springs in Germany.
