LIQUOR IN DRUG STORES.

Amusing if not ingenious is the argument brought forward by the opponents of prohibition that with the passage of such a law the humble drug store is suddenly going to assume gigantic and terrible proportions.

It is all a shallow trick to divert attention from the main issue. There is nothing in the proposed anti-liquor legislation which by the wildest stretch of fancy can be construed as favorable to the sale of liquor in drug stores.

A WORLD MOVEMENT.

That Mr. Roosevelt will be before the public although his term of office is ended, goes without saying. His suggestion that a world's congress be held for the purpose of discussing ways and means of the preservation of the natural resources of the globe seems to have been well received.

WHY THE LOCK CANAL.

There was some talk a short time ago about the changing of the plans for the Panama canal from a lock to a sea level ditch. But close investigation revealed the impracticability of the sea level project, and the work will be carried out as originally planned.

tending from the Atlantic coast inward nearly to Behm. It was not very deep on broad (the original French sea-level project contemplated a canal only 23 feet deep with a width of only 12 feet) and the full depth was never reached on this completed channel.

GOATS TO PRESERVE FORESTS.

The impending destruction of the forests is being met by a novel experiment in California, where three thousand angoras are to take part in the tree culture problem.

LAWYERS AS TEACHERS.

A Missouri legislator has proposed a bill requiring that the length of bed sheets be regulated by law, and that they be nine feet long.

WHAT THE NATION EXPECTS OF TAFT

The New York Christian Herald some time ago sent out a letter of inquiry containing these questions: 'What is the most important task before the new administration under President Taft?'

By Representative Francis Burton Harrison, New York. The most important matters before the new administration are: (1) a genuine revision of the tariff downward.
