Sydnor & Hundley, Inc. advertisement. Text: "Waiting For You. Isn't it fine to know that some one is waiting for you, some one who really cares? And now, for the one who is waiting. Can you think of anything that would give to her more pleasure or would add more to the comfort of your whole household than a few pieces of worth-while furniture like this store carries? The Chairs you see in the picture are examples of some of our prettiest mahogany and cane patterns. And there are hundreds of others to choose from. Come in tomorrow, select a chair or two and have us send them out to those who care—those who await your home coming with eager and welcoming eyes. Pardon our mentioning it again, but this, too, is important. You'll really save quite a bit on your purchases by coming now, as the prices have been greatly reduced. Grace at Seventh Street."

Easter Modes advertisement. Text: "EASTER MODES. A bloom with the Fresh Beauty of Spring. MISSES and women of Richmond and the South instinctively look to The Kaufmann Store to serve them with the fashions they will need for the new season. This Store has served them so long and so faithfully that its ability is unquestioned. Every day brings new arrivals of fashionable attire for Spring and they are carefully unpacked from their tissue wrappings and immediately carried to our selling floors for your inspection. Exquisite gowns for evening social occasions, frocks for afternoon and morning wear, suits for sports, travel and business that are stylish to a delightful degree, yet designed to give the service you naturally expect, are already displayed. Then there are the many gay, colorful hats that so charmingly reflect the youthful spirit of Spring, and a multitude of other needed fashion details that will make your period of preparation for Easter and the approaching season one of unlimited joy and satisfaction. Prices are notably moderate. THE KAUFMANN STORE. Broad Street at Fourth."
