The "DODGING PERIOD" of a woman's life is the same often given to the "change of life." Your name comes at that time of life, and you rise and fall as you do. The entire change takes about three or four years, and is the cause of many a woman's drudgery and many an bad day. The change is not at once, but it is a slow process. It is a period of transition, and the woman who can endure it will find that she will be able to bear the change of life. It is not a period of transition, but it is a period of adaptation. The woman who can endure it will find that she will be able to bear the change of life.
