ALEXANDRIA: Wednesday March 23. 1832.

News of the Day.

To-day the city is gay and the streets thronged with spectators of the celebrity who is to be exhibited before the public on the New Stage. The theatre was crowded beyond the utmost capacity, and was not left until the pieces were finished, and the crowd was promenading the street in the greatest excitement. The exhibition was poor, and the actors poor, but the people were all in a state of rapture. The theatre was not crowded, and the public was not greatly excited.
