RAM'S HORN BLASTS.

No service without sacrifice. God's grace is His greatest glory. Scolding the boy may sour the man. There are no leasholds in Heaven. He who gives happiness helps others to Heaven.

The labor of love never advertises for spectators.

A man's position in the world de- pends on his purpose.

Some people never feel pious until they get pinched.

The active saint is never satisfied with the nimble nickel.

Men will never think alike as long as they think at all.

Better the pushing pessimist than the dreaming optimist.

The man without reverence should not be trusted with power.

BEFORE MAKING

your purchase you would do well to call at the most reliable furniture store in the city and see the fine line of Refrigerators, Mattings, Oil-Cloths, RUGS AND CARPETS.

Of every description; also the latest designs in BOOKERS and special CHAIRS. Our goods are the best for the price and the price is very low.

C. G. Jargen's Son 421 EAST BROAD ST., between 4th and 5th Street

Other Pupils Regularly Promoted:

MRS. MARTH, the world renowned and highly celebrated Business and Test Medium.

reveals everything. No imposition. Can be consulted upon all matters of life, business, love and marriage a specialty. Every mystery re- vealed, also of absent, deceased and living friends. Removes all trouble and strange- ness, challenges any Medium who can pre- sent, future events of one's life. Remember she will not for any price flatter you; you may rest assured you will gain facts without non- sense. She can be consulted upon all affairs of Life, Love, Courtship, Marriage, Friends, Etc., with full description of your future com- panion. She is very accurate in describing missing friends, enemies etc., business, law suits, lawsuits, contested wills, divorce and specula- tion is valuable and reliable. She reads your destiny—good or bad; she withholds nothing. MRS. MARTH tells your entire life past, present and future in a DEAD TRANCE, has the power of any two Mediums you ever met. In tests she tells your mother's full name be- fore marriage, the names of all your family, young men who now calls on you, the name of your future husband, and the day, month and year of your marriage, how many children you have or will have; whether you will be a sweetheart will be true to you and if he will marry you; if you have an investment she will tell you when you will have one and his name, business and date of acquaintance. All your affairs will be told in an honest, clear and plain manner and in a dead trance. Mothers should know the success of their husbands and children; young ladies should know everything about their sweethearts or intended husbands. Do not keep company, marry or go into business until you know all, do not let silly reli- gious scruples prevent your consulting.

Madame is the only one in the world who can tell you the full name of your future husband with rye and date of marriage, and tells whether or the one you love is true or false.

There are some persons who believe that there is no truth to be gained from consulting a Medium, but such beliefs are contrary to the truth. It is only from the lack of discrimination that such a conclusion can be reached. It is not every one who places himself or her- self as a medium that can stand the test of what he or she claims.

And a person of an inquiring mind may ask the reason why. It is simply that these ad- visers do not take the trouble to study human nature. They do not spend their thoughts for a moment with acquiring the art of psychometry and kindred branches that will have a tendency to make the pathway to the root of the busi- ness clear and devoid of all obstacles.

It is an undeniable fact that persons will come for advice in full knowledge of what they want to know, and yet as soon as they confront a medium they try their utmost endeavor to dispel from their minds what they know so as to hear if it will be rehearsed by the Medium. To get the secret out of a person by unfair and dishonest means is the art used by many unprincipled mediums, but to take hold of the hand and gain control of the mind thereby is a matter of impossibility to most of them.

And yet this can be done and by consulting Mrs. Martth the seemingly mystery becomes a realization.

This subject has received no little attention by eminent men, even college graduates. So it proves conclusively that although there are intriguers in our midst with oily tongues, perhaps the great of wisdom have not been closed to the entire profession.

It takes a great deal of study to become an accomplished medium and by a continuous and entering effort, the key to the wofold appar- ently impenetrable mystery has been secured by MRS. MARTH for the benefit of humanity. ADVICE BY LETTERS, $1.00.— HOURS FROM 10 A. M. TO 9 P. M. MRS. M. B. MARTH, CHICKASHA, INDIAN TERRITORY. (BOX, No. 958.) Enclose Stamp for reply.
