JEFFRIES KNEW OF FATE BEFORE FIGHT

Sporting Authority Tells What Was the Matter With the White Boxer.

FELT THAT HE WAS TO FALL BEFORE NEGRO

Says Californian Was Whipped Before He Entered the Ring—Losses by Betting Heavy to Some and Many Have Only Return Ticket Left—Heaviest Individual Loss is $35,000 on Former Champion.

ferred by Clarence Eery, a California oil operator. He bet $35,000 on Jeffries.

Among the sporting men left, there is not a dissenting opinion as to the justice of the fight's ending.

Many have nothing but their return tickets to show for their judgment on the outcome, but no one says that Jeffries ever had a chance with the negro after the fight began.

Johnson's repartee and coolness in the ring, the terrible power of his punishment, his marvelous judgment of distance and his almost uncanny quickness and boxing skill, are the talk of the town. Men are living the fight over round by round. As long as they live they never will forget the pitiful aspect of Jeffries at the mercy of the black panther in the fifteenth round.

"What was the matter with Jeffries?" some asked. A well known sporting authority, who talked with Jeffries this morning, answered this question.

Jeffries knew it before.

"He was whipped before he left Moana Springs for the ring," said this man. "He felt that he was to fall before the negro and it was too much for him to face. As the hour approached, his nervous condition became such that his mind lost all control over his body. It began Saturday and indicated itself in various ways.

"Sunday night he did not sleep a wink but walked about his room and looked out of the windows. Yesterday morning he ate a little breakfast. When he sat in the corner of the ring, Choyanski, as he wrapped his hands, exclaimed:

"Why Jim, your hands are as cold as ice and clammy," his seconds thought even then that he would get over it in the fight.

"When I asked him today what he

FIGHT CASH RECEIPTS

RENO, July 5.—Tex Rickard tonight gave out an official statement of receipts and attendance at the fight. It shows the total gate receipts totaled $270,775. Those paid admission numbered 15,760. All told, the attendance is given at 18,020.

There was sold 1,258 seats at $50; 150 at $40; 634 at $30; 1,505 at $25; 1,457 at $20; 1,706 at $15; and 9,050 at $10.

The purse, with the bonuses given the two fighters, amounted to $121,000 and Rickard figured that his experience at San Francisco cost him about $30,000. Thus he and his partner Gleason will have a profit of about $120,000.

FIX BLAME FOR WRECK

Says Train Dispatcher Caused Big Four Collision.

ENGINEER TELLS HIS STORY

Declares Conflicting Orders Sent Out Brought Trains Together in Which Twenty-one Persons Were Killed and Many Others Injured.

CINCINNATI, O., July 5.—Interest in yesterday's disastrous wreck of the Big Four New York flyer at Middletown, Ohio, in which more than a score of lives were sacrificed, was transferred to Cincinnati today. A statement from J. W. Wall, pilot engineer of the Big Four passenger train, which crashed into a freight train of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railway, placed blame for the wreck on Train Dispatcher Smith, of the latter system, at Dayton.

In this he was partly confirmed by E. A. Gould, general superintendent of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton. Mr. Gould was unwilling to go further than saying "some such reason" was responsible for the accident, but railroad men about the headquarters of the two systems accepted the explanation of Wall as containing the gist of the cause.

Wall's statement follows:

Engineer's Statement.

"The engineer of the freight train showed me order No. 69, supposed to have been issued after our train (The Big Four, limited) left Dayton, and to have been handed to us at Carlisle, between Dayton and Middletown. This order gave the freight till 1:07 to make the siding at Post Town north of Middletown.

"Smith revoked that order so that it was not delivered to us at Carlisle, but failed to revoke the same order issued to the freight. Our train was made up some time after leaving Dayton and this brought us to Post Town siding earlier than 1:07.

"We had no warning of anything in the way and supposed we had a clear line."

Exhibits Other Orders.

Wall also exhibited four train orders, not one of which gave any indication that the flying passenger train was to meet any other train at Post Town or any other station between Dayton and Cincinnati.

These orders, Wall added, were all that he had to guide him the day of the wreck.

Local officers of the Big Four road are not willing to account officially for the wreck. A "misunderstanding of orders" was mentioned by some, but whose misunderstanding it was they were not prepared to state.

Death List Grows.

With the definite identification of the four unclaimed bodies at Middletown, all the nineteen dead in that place were accounted for, two more wounded victims died early today, one at Dayton and one at Hamilton. These were John Rankin, Springfield, Ohio, and Evelyn Lloyd, Round Point, Maine, and their passing made the death list 21. Four others are scarcely expected to survive their har-

CLASSES FOOTBALL WITH PRIZE FIGHT

College Game is Roundly Denounced by Speaker at Boston Educational Meeting.

PURE BRUTALITY AND PUGILISM COMBINED

Says the Sport Arouses Some Love of the Sordid That Focused Interest at Ring in Nevada—James Y. Joyner, of North Carolina Addresses Gathering on Industrial Training.

(By Associated Press)

BOSTON, MASS., July 5.—Denouncing college football as a combination of pure brutality and pugilism that appealed to the love of the sordid, David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford University, led in the discussion that followed a report made today by the committee on moral education in public schools to the national council of education of the National Education Association in convention here. He added:

"Some day the college presidents and school heads of this country will, perhaps, be called cowardly and brutal because they did not put a stop to the dangers of football, a sport that destroys the best there is in American youth."

The game, he continued, aroused the same love of the sordid that focused the interest of the country in a "ring a way out in far Nevada, where a black man and a white man were pounding each other yesterday."

President Jordan favored the substitution of the English game of Rugby.

At most of the eighteen departmental meetings of the convention today there was at least one advocate of the introduction of industrial training and agriculture in the secondary schools.

Joyner on Industrial Training.

Development of industrial education, and of moral education, the peace and public health movements, and restraint of the tendency toward otiosity were advocated by James Y. Joyner, of Raleigh, N. C., president of the National Education Association, in his annual address to the association tonight.

In touching on industrial education, he said:

"One logical demand of democracy is a system of education that shall provide equality of educational opportunity for all. Out of this logical demand has grown the demand for industrial or vocational education."

It has its dangers," President Joyner said, "in making our schools minister to the new needs of men we must not fail to make them continue to minister to the eternal, the common, the universal needs of men arising from their common nature. It would be a fatal blunder to permit in our system of American education the establishment and maintenance of separate systems of vocational or trade schools. Such a separation would prove a disintegrating force. For the elevation of the industrial masses to their proper social and civic plane is a democracy you must send into the industries men trained not only to skillful work, but educated also to think, to dream, to feel, to love, to read, to lift. You cannot measure the greatest worth of a man in our democracy by a money-mad world's tapeline of dollars and cents."

In regard to the otiose tendency, President Joyner said that it was noticeable in elementary, secondary and college education, and threatened, if unchecked, to end "in an education of sush and dissipation." He suggested that a fault too common was that of making the way too easy for the pupil.

"May we not expect from such made-easy and rapid transit methods," he continued, "a crop of intellectual spoiled children, flabby of mind, weak of will, superficial in character, inaccurate in scholarship, doing nothing well except what they like to do? Should not they be trained to do well whatever it is their duty to do, and to find a stimulus of interest in tasks unpleasent in the very joy of mastering them?"

"A tendency to otiosity is noticeable and alarming in college and university education. It is attributable in part perhaps to previous training, but more to the influence of wealth and luxury of fraternity life, athletics and elective courses, which offer temptations to ease and idleness that are well high irresistible to young men of unformed character and unfixed habits."

TAFT IN NO HURRY TO FILL COURT VACANCIES

May be Fall Before Supreme Bench Appointments are Made.

(By Associated Press)

BEVERLY, MASS., July 5.—There were no developments in Beverly today concerning the Supreme Court vacancies. Callers at the summer White House found nothing in the President's attitude to change the statement of yesterday that Governor Hughes, of New York, is just now filling Mr. Taft's eye to the exclusion of everybody else.

The understanding also continues that the President will do nothing towards designating the successor to Chief Justice Fuller until late in the fall. A preparation to call the Senate in extraordinary session to confirm appointees to the Supreme Court bench in advance of the regular session of congress was suggested today, but met with no encouragement. The big trust cases, affecting the Standard Oil and American Tobacco companies, are set for re-argument in November. The session of congress begins December 5th.

President Taft, in common with the remaining justices of the Supreme Court, is anxious that the three important cases scheduled for re-argument this fall—the Standard Oil, Tobacco and corporation tax—shall be heard by a full bench. Consequently it is not regarded as likely that he will select any man against whom a question might arise as to previous participation in these cases.

Mr. Taft will take a full measure of time to consider the situation before making up his mind as to the members of the court.

One of the bullets went through Lee's heart and stomach and liver, lodging in the back. Barber was caught in the street and turned over to two policemen, who took him to jail.

T. R. TAKES STAND AGAINST BALLINGER

Colonel Makes it Known He Will Support Insurgent Poindexter for Senate.

WILL OPPOSE IN FIGHT CLOSE FRIEND OF TAFT

Secretary of the Interior Seeks to Reelect Piles, of Washington, While the Former President Comes Out in Open in Favor of Man Who is Working to Unseat Present Senator.

(By Associated Press)

OYSTER BAY, July 5.—Theodore Roosevelt made it clear today, not by direct statement, but by implication so strong that it admits of no misinterpretation, that he will support Representative Miles Poindexter in his fight for a seat in the United States senate from the State of Washington. They had luncheon together and a conference at Sagamore Hill today and Mr. Poindexter departed jubilant.

In endorsing Poindexter for the senate, Colonel Roosevelt places himself squarely in opposition to Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior, whom President Taft has so warmly defended; and it is the only stand he has taken bearing directly, or indirectly, on the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

Mr. Poindexter is opposed to Secretary Ballinger from first to last and hopes to unseat Senator Piles, of Washington, who seeks another term and who has Secretary Ballinger's support. The secretary and Mr. Poindexter are from the same district.

After the conference, Mr. Poindexter said:

"I found Colonel Roosevelt unchanged. He is just the same as ever. He and I have worked together always and he assured me that we always would work together. I am delighted with the result of the visit."

Colonel Roosevelt spoke of his talk with Mr. Poindexter in a manner which showed plainly the pleasure which the meeting had given him. This is what he had to say:

"Representative Poindexter and I went over the political situation in the West. He assured me that he was in hearty sympathy with my conservation policy."

"Mr. Poindexter is a candidate for the United States senate and is politically opposed to that wing of the party headed by Mr. Ballinger, the secretary of the interior."

That was all the colonel wanted to have put in quotation marks. What he said otherwise, made it quite clear that he had given assurance to Mr. Poindexter that he would support him in his attempt to unseat Senator Piles.

Ballinger Will Stick.

Incidentally Secretary Ballinger and President Taft had a conference at Beverly today in which they discussed the reclamation service. There Mr. Ballinger denied, with emphasis, a rumor that he was to resign. "I am not a quitter and never have been," he said.

Miles Poindexter is an out and out insurgent, whom the people of the State of Washington elected on a radical platform. He has been a firm supporter of Roosevelt policies, and especially as relate to conservation of national resources.

At luncheon with the colonel they discussed the Ballinger-Pinchot occurrence in detail in the course of the talk on the political status of the Northwest.

Most Striking Incident.

While the general opinion here is that Colonel Roosevelt is still "feeling his way" as regards his ultimate attitude toward the Taft administration, his stand today is the most striking incident of his present frame of mind. And that he will still fight for the conservation movement which he inaugurated while in office, he made plain to interviewers when Mr. Poindexter had gone.

There have been two important insurgent conferences at Sagamore Hill since the colonel's return, but none are coming. One of the most potential of these is arranged for Thursday next. On that day five of the best known and wealthiest of the insurgents are coming to talk with the ex-president, but Mr. Roosevelt declined today to give out their names.

Governor Hughes is expected here either Thursday night or Friday morning for the long conference on New York state politics.

Sanders' election to the senate has been a foregone conclusion ever since Senator McEnery died. Tomorrow both houses of the assembly will meet in session and Sanders will be formally elected. He will retain the governorship until December, when he will resign and go to Washington.

Lieutenant Governor Lambremont then becomes governor and Senator Thomas C. Harrell, president pro-tem of the senate, succeeds Lambremont.

(By Associated Press)

DURHAM, N. C., July 5.—Advocating the early agricultural training of the negro in the belief that it would prove of infinite value to the moral of the colored race, and the return of the negro to the farm as a solution largely of the question of the present high cost of living, United States Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of Asheville, N. C., made the opening address of the summer course of the National Religious Training School and Chautauqua for the Colored Race here today.

None for Atlanta

ATLANTA, GA., July 5.—The Jeffries-Johnson prize fight pictures will be barred from Atlanta. This announcement was made tonight by Mayor Maddox. Tomorrow an order prohibiting the presentation of moving pictures of prize fights will be introduced in the city council and is expected to have little opposition.

Mayor Maddox said there would be danger of trouble between the races if the pictures were shown in Atlanta. "I sincerely hope the Reno fight is the last ever staged in the United States," he added. "The fight was unfortunate, to say the least."

GENERAL CRUSADE IS STARTED IN BOSTON

Secretary of Christian Endeavor Begins Campaign by Wiring Roosevelt, Governor Hughes and Mayor Gaynor to Enlist in the Cause—Will Be Taken to All States in Union.

(By Associated Press)

BOSTON, July 5.—Declaring that Independence day was dishonored by a prize fight; that the moral sense of the nation was outraged, but that this evil is nothing compared to the harm which will be done by allowing children and women to view the reproduction of the Jeffries-Johnson fight by moving pictures, William S. Shaw, general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, in a formal statement tonight, announced the beginning of a campaign against the exhibition of the pictures.

Telegrams, calling attention to the race riots which followed in the wake of the fight, were dispatched tonight to former President Theodore Roosevelt, Governor Charles E. Hughes and Mayor W. J. Gaynor, of New York, asking their co-operation in the movement for the suppression of the pictures.

Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, will be seen tomorrow and asked to prevent the exhibition of the pictures in Boston. In a day or two telegrams will be sent to the governors of all the States, making a similar request.

No Pictures for Baltimore

BALTIMORE, July 5.—Backed by the authority of the board of police commissioners, Marshall Farnam will request Mayor Mahool to prevent the moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight here. The mayor says that with formal complaint before him he will stop the pictures.

The action by the police commissioners was taken this morning, following the submission by Marshall Farnam of reports showing the widespread rioting all over the country, including Baltimore, during last night and the frequent clashes between whites and blacks.

Take Action at Washington

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight may be barred from the District of Columbia. Police Chief Sylvester has announced that he will do his utmost to prevent the films from being shown here. He fears a repetition of the race riots which took place on the streets yesterday when it became known that the negro had won.

Will Be Barred at Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, OHIO, July 5.—Mayor Schwab said today he will not allow the Johnson-Jeffries fight pictures to be shown in this city. He declared the pictures would promote race hatred and for that reason he would bar them.

Back to Farm

Judge Pritchard advised the colored people to seek the farms. He said one found less racial antagonism at the rural districts. His confident belief was that no class of man was being treated better than the farmers. The farm would eliminate much of the criminal element that cursed the entire race.

Steamer is Floated

(By Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, July 5.—The steamer Risen, of the Norwegian register, and under charter of the United Fruit Company, which went aground on the Chincoro reefs off the coast of Yucatan, ten days ago, has been refloated according to cable advice, received by the fruit company here today. Very little damage was sustained by the steamer.
