DECLARES CATHOLIC DEVOTION TO KING

Father Vaughn Touches on Patriotism in Speech at Eucharistic Congress.

SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND ATTEND THE EXERCISES

Extraordinary Demonstration Takes Place at Foot of Mount Royal, Where Meeting Opens—Gathering of Body May be Held in United States in 1913.

(By Associated Press) MONTREAL, Sept. 10.—Announcement was made today that the next Eucharistic Congress will be held at Vienna, Austria. There is a possibility that the permanent committee of the congress may be asked to hold its sessions in the United States in 1913. Cardinal Gibbons has been a potent advocate of the American claims.

The fifth day of the congress opened with an extraordinary demonstration at the foot of Mount Royal. A pontifical mass was said at a repository built near the base of the mountain, with Archbishop Farley, of New York, as celebrant. Fully 75,000 people were assembled long before the ceremonies began. The cardinal legate, Vincent Vanetti, and Archbishop O'Connell preached sermons.

Club Gives Reception.

In the afternoon the Catholic Club of New York gave a reception in honor of the three princes of the church. Several thousand persons passed Cardinals Vanetti, Logie and Gibbons.

In the evening the final public meeting was held at Notre Dame, with Judge O'Sullivan, of New York, and Father Vaughn, of London, the chief speakers.

His Tribute to King.

"This evening I have spoken as a Catholic to my fellow Catholics, but I cannot help reminding the whole world that in the measure in which we are true to the church we shall be loyal to our country, so tonight let us send a message to our beloved and revered king, George V, assuring him that among all the subjects of his world-wide empire he has none more true, more loyal or more devoted than Catholics whose patriotism is set in the root of their religion."

SERGEANT BRIDGERS INTERRUPTS A GAME

J. W. Hobbs, Proprietor of Lyndhurst Hotel, and Four Others Arrested.

J. W. Hobbs, proprietor of the Lyndhurst hotel, Huntington avenue and thirty-fourth street; C. F. Johnson, a carpenter; C. T. Perfarer, a riveter; H. V. Piero, a blacksmith; and P. H. Furlong, who gave his occupation as "laborer," were arrested at 2 o'clock this morning at the Lyndhurst on the charge of unlawful gaming. The men were taken to the station house and at a late hour had not succeeded in securing their release on bond.

Patrolman Boswell, who was on the Huntington avenue beat, suspected that a game was in progress in a room over the Lyndhurst cafe. He reported his suspicions to Sergeant Bridgers and, after getting a warrant in the name of P. H. Furlong, the sergeant proceeded to the scene, accompanied by Patrolmen Boswell, Fisher and Tilghman. Entering the building, the sergeant, held up by one of the officers, poked his head through a transom and observed a game of draw poker in full blast. This performance of course put an abrupt end to the game, and the door was opened upon demand.

After the prisoners had been conveyed to the station, Driver Parrish made an extra trip to haul the gaming table and other paraphernalia to the station.

JOHN CLOWES IS FOUND GUILTY OF PLAIN ASSAULT

Williamsburg Man Who Was Charged With Grave Crime, Pays Fine.

WILLIAMSBURG, Sept. 10.—The jury in the trial of John Clowes, charged with attempted criminal assault upon Mrs. Charles E. Carey on the night of Aug. 13, and which had been in progress in the circuit court since Wednesday, ended last night in a verdict finding the accused guilty of plain assault and fixing his fine at $50.

The case was given to the jury about 7 o'clock, and after adjourning for supper, court reconvened at about 9. In thirty-two minutes the jury returned the verdict as follows: "We, the jury, do not find the prisoner guilty of a felony as charged, but do find him guilty of assault and fix the penalty at $50 fine."

In discharging the accused, the court told him that he had been treated leniently by the jury, probably because of his previous good character and because he was under the influence of liquor on the night of the assault. The court admonished him not to again appear before him on a criminal charge, and hoped this would be a lesson to the accused.

SHOT DOWN BY WOMAN

Memphis Doctor's Wife Severely Wounds Her "Affinity."

BROKER FAILS OF PROMISE

Well Known Lady Throughout South Claims She Had Furnished Money and He Had Agreed to Marry Her After She Obtained Divorce.

(By Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, CAL., Sept. 10.—Mrs. William Krauss, wife of Dr. Krauss, said to be a well known educator and physician of Memphis, Tenn., shot and severely wounded Franklin H. Griffith, a mining broker here today. Mrs. Krauss charges that Griffith obtained money from her and was to keep a promise of marriage.

Mrs. Krauss shot at Griffith three times with a revolver, one of the bullets passing through his right forearm. Mrs. Krauss is in jail.

Failed to Keep Promise.

She has known Griffith for several years and, according to her story, had advanced him considerable money for the purchase of mining stock, which she said, she afterward found to be worthless. She alleges that Griffith had promised to marry her as soon as she was able to obtain a divorce from Dr. Krauss, but that ultimately he had refused to do so, or make a return of the money she had advanced.

Woman Well Known in South.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 10.—Mrs. William Krauss, who shot and wounded Franklin H. Griffith, of Los Angeles, is widely known throughout the South. She was wife of Dr. Krauss, a noted bacteriologist of Memphis. Mrs. Krauss and her husband have lived apart for some time, having signed an agreement. The couple figured in a court trial at Vicksburg, Miss., several months ago when Mrs. Krauss brought suit charging Dr. Krauss with non-support. The name of Griffith was brought into the case.

A divorce suit, brought by Mrs. Krauss, is now on the docket of the local courts.

Mrs. Krauss was formerly Miss Daisy Turney and is a niece of former Governor Turney, of Tennessee.

PATTERSON QUILTS TENNESSEE FIGHT

Withdraws from the Race to Succeed Himself as Governor.

DECLARES HIS ACTION IS FOR PARTY HARMONY

State's Chief Executive Issues Statement and Says He Will Not be an Obstacle in the Way of Democratic Success at Polls in November—Will Support the Nominee.

(By Associated Press) NASHVILLE, TENN., Sept. 10.—Governor M. R. Patterson, tonight withdrew from the race to succeed himself as governor of Tennessee. The governor was the nominee of the regular faction of the Democratic party and has been bitterly opposed by the independent state-wide prohibition Democrats, who, in coalition with the Republicans, elected a state judiciary last month, defeating a ticket for which Governor Patterson made a contest for.

Governor Patterson, in his address announcing his withdrawal, declares he will not be an obstacle in the way of his party's success at the polls, nor will he willingly contribute in any way to the possibility of the success of the Republicans in Tennessee. He withdraws in the interest of harmony and that Democratic factions may get together to prevent the loss of the state in November.

Will Support Nominee.

He makes reference to interference of a Republican President in Tennessee. In an interview following the issuance of the statement, Governor Patterson declared that he has no personal preference in the matter of a Democratic nominee and that he will take the stump for him, whoever he may be.

Patterson's political career has been a stormy one, including his defeat of former Senator E. W. Carmack, for the gubernatorial nomination in a sensational campaign, followed by the killing of Carmack here by the Coopers, their trial which attracted nationwide attention and Patterson's pardon of D. B. Cooper, within a few minutes after his conviction was sustained by the Supreme Court.

Issues Statement.

Governor Patterson gave the Associated Press the following signed statement tonight:

"To the Democrats of Tennessee: "I became a candidate for governor for the third term contrary to my personal wishes. A large majority of my friends in their partial judgment, believed I could certainly win where others might fail, and that I owed an obligation to them, the party and the ideas which I represented, and I yielded my judgment and inclination with reluctance. Since then conditions have arisen which neither they nor I could foresee, which appear to make any candidacy an injustice both to them and the Democratic party."

"When the opposition to me assumed the shape of a refusal to enter a primary called by the state executive committee, I proposed, if any gentleman would offer any objection to me, to allow him to select his own method and time of nomination with an equal division of officers of election. This was not, and could not be, the slightest excuse to refuse this if the party was to preserve its organization and not disintegrate into schisms and factions; but the proposition was rejected."

"I was declared the nominee for governor, without opposition, and since then I have offered to yield my nomination so as to test anew whether I was the choice of the majority, believing that all men who loved fair dealing would recognize the right of the majority to rule, and not permit their personal spleen, to override all the obvious rules of justice and party fidelity."

Basest Appeals Made.

"But to the minds of my ungenerous opponents, all things were fixed as means to the end of my political destruction. Guilty and unnatural political coalitions were forming and had been formed to bring this about. The basest appeals were made and the foulest slanders circulated. Even then I did not believe that any considerable number of Democrats could be betrayed from their allegiance, but that time would soften appetites and lead them back to a just restoration of their own duties and the plight in which the criminal folly of their leaders would leave the party and the state.

"So it was, when readers of my withdrawal were given currency, I promptly denied them, and in doing so it was my wish to serve my party rather than my own ambition."

Would Save Party.

"Now it seems certain that my opinion, shared by friends, was not justified and that the continued appeals to passion and credulity have found a lodgment which neither fact nor persuasion can change and that so long as I remain a candidate a considerable number of Democrats will not affiliate with the party, and while not large comparatively, it is enough to impede Democratic success in November. I don't wish it said that my desire for office is responsible for this condition or as furnishing an excuse to endorse a Republican candidate by the so-called independent Democratic convention soon to be held in Nashville."

"My conclusion is that I can best serve my party and state in this emergency by voluntarily doing what my enemies have so persistently stated, I notify both the state executive committee and the independent Democratic committee that I am no longer a candidate for governor."

Hope for Success.

"In taking this step, our party should not be left without a capable leader, and I hope that with harmonious action another candidate, wholly unobjectionable, may be named and such a platform adopted as will insure party co-operation and success."

"It would be an unmixing evil and a reproach to Tennessee for the Republican party to get control of our state government and it is especially true at this time when the country is aroused and the battle is on between special interests and popular rights."

"It is scarcely believable that a discredited Republican President should attempt to control the politics of a Democratic state nor any man calling himself a Democrat could lend his dishonorable aid to its consummation. "Our state should be governed by its friends and not its enemies; by the party that represents its credit and intelligence, the education of its people and that in the past has stood for its women, its homes and its very civilization. I have been an enthusiast on the possibilities of our state and the South. They can be realized in loyalty and high-mindedness and never in disloyalty and sordid purposes."

"With all my heart and soul I have combated intolerance and fanaticism which have seared and blistered all they have touched, and hope to lead our people out of the bogs and mire of error into which designing and vicious men have led them."

Not Ashamed of His Acts.

"I have never performed a public act of which I am ashamed and every one was for the good of the state, I have extended mercy to the helpless, and served the state as best I could, while a storm of hate and vituperation raged about me. I have advanced the cause of education and have stood for those things that are worth while and enduring to a commonwealth. When prohibition was first raised as an issue I opposed it without the consent of the people, and foresaw the innumerable train of evils which would follow its enactment, the dissensions, which would come, the hope that would be afforded for the demagogue to ply his trade."

"During my remaining series as governor I will continue to act as in the past and on my retirement to private life I will look back upon my record with pride, for there is not a blot or a stain upon it."

"To my thousands of friends who have never faltered in their allegiance, and who represent the conservative citizenship of the state, I send from my heart a message of thanks and good will."

(Signed) "MALCOLM R. PATTERSON."

MERCHANT KILLS HIMSELF.

South Carolina Man Commits Suicide in New York Hotel.

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Samuel F. Innes, aged 75, head of the firm of Drake, Innes & Co., of Charleston, S. C., wholesale and retail shoe dealer, shot and killed himself in his room at the Hoffman House early today. The merchant was discovered lying in bed with a bullet in the side of his head. A revolver lay near by.

Mr. Innes came here with his brother from Charleston to undergo today an X-ray examination for what was said to be a minor affection. His brother thinks that the merchant undoubtedly worried over the examination which he was to undergo today.

LORIMER SENDS IN CLUB RESIGNATION

Senator Would Quit Organization on Account of the Roosevelt Incident.

HIS FRIENDS WILL VOTE AGAINST ITS ACCEPTANCE

Action is Result of Illinois Lawmaker Being Barred from Banquet at the Command of Former President—Correspondence Reveals Fact That He Was to be Guest of Honor.

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 10.—A terse note of resignation from the Hamilton Club, of which he has been a member many years, was the answer made here today by United States Senator William H. Lorimer to the action of the club, and President John H. Batten in withdrawing his invitation to the Roosevelt banquet here Thursday night. The invitation was withdrawn at the demand of Colonel Roosevelt, who refused to attend a banquet at which Senator Lorimer also was a guest.

May Not Accept It.

While Senator Lorimer urged that his resignation be accepted immediately, it is said tonight that the senator's friends on the club board of governors probably will refuse to vote for the acceptance.

Together with the resignation today news of correspondence from President Batten to Senator Lorimer developed, showing that the junior Illinois senator was to have been guest of honor and it was the hope of the club to make the dinner notable as a harmonious occasion, where all factions of the Republican party had broken bread together.

Had Three Invitations.

At least three invitations were sent Lorimer, each urging him to attend the banquet, and to the last of these was his acceptance. After this, on the day of the banquet, came the sudden recall of the invitation.

The note of resignation was written after a conference of the senator with a number of his friends and at first was believed would be followed by a number of his admirers in the club. Later it was decided by his friends to refuse to accept the resignation.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS ON IN MAINE TOMORROW

State Campaign Closes and Both Democrats and Republicans Claim Victory.

(By Associated Press) PORTLAND, MAINE, Sept. 10.—A large question mark symbolizes the political situation in Maine at the close of the state campaign tonight. For weeks both the Republican party, which is in power, and the Democratic party, have engaged in efforts to arouse the state, and the final rallies were held tonight with both sides expressing confidence that success would rest with them when the ballots are counted Monday night.

The rival candidates are the present governor, R. E. Fernald, of Portland, leading the Republicans, and Frederick W. Plaisted, mayor of Augusta, heading the Democratic ticket. The voters of the state also will elect four state auditors, four congressmen, county officers and will name a successor to United States Senator Eugene Hale. While the contest for governor is first in interest, it has no great margin over that for congress in two districts. In the First District: A. Her C. Hinds, of Portland, who has sat behind Hale for a dozen years as a parliamentarian, is battling against William Pannell, of Brunswick, a former sheriff of Cumberland county. In the Second District Congressman John C. Sway, of Canton, is fighting for a second term against Daniel P. McGillicuddy, of Lewiston.

Both sides claim to have made a winning fight, but close political observers believe that Sway's success is more doubtful than that of Hinds. The Democrats party concede the return of Congressman Edwin C. Burleigh, in the Third District, and Frank E. Guernsey, in the Fourth.

BOSTON'S POPULATION OVER HALF MILLION

Figures by Recent Census Shows Increase for the City of Over Hundred Thousand.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—The population of Boston, Mass., is 679,583, an increase of 109,693, or 19.6 per cent, as compared with 569,892 in 1900.

Tonight's announcement leaves Boston the fifth city in point of population in the United States. A decade ago St. Louis outranked Boston by only 14,346 and the present census leaves St. Louis ahead by 16,444. There was but slight change in the rate of progress in the two cities, St. Louis increase from 1900 to 1910 being 19.4 and Boston beating that by two-tenths of one per cent.

Boston's population twenty years ago was 448,477. The increase from 1890 to 1900, was 112,415 or 25.1 per cent.

LOSE DINNER TO SEE T. R.

Thousands Welcome Former President to Pittsburg.

CALLS DOWN POLICEMEN

While Roosevelt Speaks from Rear Platform People Jam So Close That Officers Jump On Car to Keep Them Back—Can Protect Himself.

(By Associated Press) PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10.—The Western tour of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was virtually concluded in Pittsburg tonight. He arrived here at 6:30 o'clock this evening and stopped long enough to deliver two addresses and attend an informal dinner. He will be at home in Oyster Bay again tomorrow.

The last day was one of the most spectacular of Colonel Roosevelt's long trip. Leaving Cincinnati in the morning, he cut across Ohio into West Virginia and western Pennsylvania. At the several short stops made, throngs were on hand to greet him. He stayed in Columbus, Ohio, for an hour, and left behind him some very plain advice about the situation which has grown out of the street-car strike there. His strong remarks upon "justice, law and order" were cheered by all factions in the struggle which has torn Columbus for weeks.

Calls Policemen Down.

The last of the rear platform speeches of the trip was made at Steubenville, Ohio, this afternoon. So many people tried to get in hearing distance that the police jumped on the car to keep them from engulfing the colonel.

"Get down please," said the Colonel, "so that I can see the people. I thank you for your help, but I can protect myself."

The policemen got down and the ex-President talked about homely virtues.

At London he spoke briefly, also Newark, Denison and several places in Ohio.

Sacrifice Dinner Hour.

Thousands of Pittsburg people sacrificed their usual dinner hour this evening and crowded down town streets to welcome the distinguished guest, who had not said Pittsburg a visit for more than eight years.

After an informal dinner at the Fort Pitt Hotel, he was driven across town where, from an historic balcony of the Monongahela House, he addressed an enormous crowd.

NEW RECORDS ARE MADE BY MAN-BIRDS

Forty-five Thousand Spectators Witness Daring Flying Feats at Boston.

RALPH JOHNSTONE STAYS IN AIR OVER TWO HOURS

Aviator Remains Above Earth Longer Than Any One Ever Before and Sets Up New Mark for Duration—Many Interesting Performances Take Place Between Famous Rivals.

(By Associated Press) BOSTON, MASS., Sept. 10.—With Wilbur Wright and Glenn H. Curtiss, the keenest of rivals for supremacy in aviation, both taking part in the flights today, the 45,000 spectators at the Boston-Harvard aero meet saw some interesting performances.

Wright went up with Walter Brookins and assisted in throwing bombs at the mine battleship target, while Curtiss tried out a new bi-plane, "The Flying Fish," which belongs to the Curtiss Company and Burgess, of Marblehead. Curtiss had no difficulty in putting the bi-plane through its paces.

In an attempt to beat his own world's record for altitude of 6,160 feet, Walter Brookins mounted into the still, blue ether of the heavens to 5,300 feet. While the journey did not give him a new mark for altitude, his team-mate, Ralph Johnstone, in the same Wright bi-plane, later went out for duration and made a new professional record for this country by remaining two hours, three minutes, five and two-fifths seconds in the air, on which journey he covered 62 miles, 3.75 feet.

Another mark which is claimed to be the world's record for skid-equipped aeroplanes, was made by Brookins who landed his bi-plane 12 feet, one inch from a given point in a contest for accuracy.

Claude Graham-White was delayed today by the necessity of repairing his Fosham bi-plane, which was damaged in his first descent, but was able to come out in the repaired machine late in the afternoon and secured points for second place in altitude, duration and distance. In addition to this, in his Blériot monoplane, he won first place in the speed events.

POLICE COMMISSIONER'S CASE IS POSTPONED

Accused Richmond Officer Brands Adon A. Yoder as Scurrilous Human Buzzard.

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 10.—Police Commissioner Chris Manning in police court this morning branded Adon A. Yoder a "scurrilous human buzzard."

Police Justice Crutchfield also clashed with Lawyer Harry M. Smith and had to exert himself to maintain order in court.

The case against the police commissioner came late upon the criminal docket and the court room was crowded when the name of Mr. Manning was called.

A. A. Yoder, the complaining witness, advanced to the bench and held a whispered consultation with the justice. It soon became evident that he was pleading for a postponement, which was granted, to the evident indignation of Commissioner Manning, Lawyer Harry Smith, Police Commissioner Douglass Gordon and others.

In the warrant for his arrest, which was served yesterday Mr. Manning is accused of having interfered with Chief of Police Werner in preventing that official from closing disreputable houses in Mayo street, the specific date on the warrant being Jan. 1, 1910.

Lawyer Smith stated that his client was prepared to establish a complete alibi, as Mr. Manning was not in Richmond on the date indicated in the warrant.

The plea for a postponement was made by Yoder on the grounds that he was unrepresented by counsel and that he desired to have Commonwealth's Attorney Folkes sent for to be present and conduct the prosecution. As Mr. Folkes is absent from Richmond today the police justice held that it was proper for him to grant the request of the complaining witness. To this action Mr. Manning took sharp exception.
