

VOLUME XXVIII.

August 1 to August 15

CLOTHES

August 1 to August 15

BELOW - Manufacturer's - PRICES.

EVERY GARMENT IN THE STORE IS INCLUDED.

No other suits for men and boys will be sold in Pocomoke City and vicinity from August first to August fifteenth...

JOHN S. PARSONS, Attorney-at-Law, Accomac Courthouse, Va. Will practice in all courts of Accomac and Northampton Counties.

OTH F. MEARS, G. Walter Mapp. MEARS & MAPP, Attorneys-at-Law, Offices: Eastville, Northampton County and Accomac Court House

FRED E. RUEDIGER, COUNTY SURVEYOR, Accomac C. H., Va.

PAUL DEWEES, Plumber, Steam and Hot Water Fitter, Pocomoke City, Md.

WM. P. BELL & CO., DRUGGISTS, Accomac C. H., Va. Agents for WATERMAN'S Ideal Fountain Pens.

G. T. BENSON & CO., Keller, Va. FOR RENT, or LEASE. The large, airy, commodious store belonging to and formerly occupied by W. T. Winder.

MARTIN & MASON CO Call attention to their large stock of Sash, Doors, Blinds, Mouldings, Builders' Hardware, Shingles, Laths, Lime, Bricks, and Building Material generally, Paints, Oils and Painters' Supplies.

MARTIN & MASON CO, Harborton Va.

MARTIN & MASON CO, Harborton Va.

The Wisdom of Miss Susan.

By CLARISSA MACKIE.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

"Your Aunt Susan was a remarkable young woman before him, and we must therefore not be surprised that she should have made a remarkable will." He tapped a folded document that lay on the table.

"I don't believe we are interested in that," remarked Ralph smilingly. "Miss Susan gave us our knoocton blow several months ago, Mr. Jones? Eh, Molly?"

"Dear young people," interrupted the lawyer gravely, "Miss Wood did know in her youth she chose between love and riches, and she preferred the latter, and except for her little niece she was a very lonely and unhappy woman. She gave Miss Molly the same choice, not that she discussed either of you, but she did want you both to be sure of each other's love."

"What is the name of this station, my good fellow?" he asked of a porter. "St. Enoch station, sir."

"Dear heart," he cried cheerily as he entered the drawing room, "if you shut yourself up in this gloomy house much longer without companionship save that of Mrs. Rogers, why, I shall!"

"I can scarcely believe it of Aunt Susan, dear, but I am not afraid of poverty, and you are poor—and I will live in that delightful studio building!"

"I am only sorry that I am bringing you nothing but love, dear," she said earnestly. "I can get along on that," he said grimly, "with a few little added trifles."

A DISPLAY OF QUICK WIT. The Yankee Saved His Pride and Observed Russian Etiquette. The Yankee and the Russian story is again on its grand rounds, but as all attempts to name the original Yankee have failed, says London M. A. P. It is safe to plan the anecdote to any prominent American who may have visited St. Petersburg.

HE LACKED TACT. Bad Breaks of the Man Who Was Trying to Sell Spectacles. "The meanest job of my life days," said a millionaire, "was spectacle peddling. I still see the sad and scornful looks, I still hear the reproachful outcries, which that work brought down on me."

A Curious Army Toast. Of all the British regiments the Welsh fusiliers have the most curious army toast. It forms part of the ceremony of the grand dinner given annually on St. David's day.

No Place For Dogs. Is it impossible in Japan to keep a good dog? I have twice had my dogs disappear in a seemingly miraculous way. As I am well aware that there is a great demand for dogskins, especially those of young dogs, we have been careful in having our dog watched.

The World is Learning. Briggs—Do you believe that the world is divided into two classes, those who borrow and those who lend? Griggs—No, sir. My experience is that two other classes are much more prevalent—those who want to borrow and those who won't lend.—Life.

Insomnia. Insomnia is the not uncommon fate of the brain worker who after years of continuous mental strain retires from active life. The reason is that mental activity demands a large supply of blood for the brain, and the blood vessels gradually accommodate themselves to this large supply. But when the hard work is over the brain does not always realize that it needs less nourishment, and hence the condition of excessive mental activity which is what insomnia is.—London Mail.

Suspicious. The Warden—Excuse me, the members of the choir are going to ask for more money. The Sidesman—Why? The Warden—For the last two Sundays they have been listening to the sermon.—Illustrated Bits.

A Striking Misapprehension. Officer—Excuse me, man; there goes eight bells. It's my watch on deck. Mrs. Lansman—Well, I don't deck you for keeping your watch on deck if it strikes as loudly as that.—Harper's Weekly.

A Limited Luxury. Two Irishmen were discussing the phenomenon of sleep. Said one, "O! bear as wan as thin poetry kids calls it 'bald nature's hair restorator.'"

Two Irishmen were discussing the phenomenon of sleep. Said one, "O! bear as wan as thin poetry kids calls it 'bald nature's hair restorator.'"

The Yankee Saved His Pride and Observed Russian Etiquette. The Yankee and the Russian story is again on its grand rounds, but as all attempts to name the original Yankee have failed, says London M. A. P. It is safe to plan the anecdote to any prominent American who may have visited St. Petersburg.

HE LACKED TACT. Bad Breaks of the Man Who Was Trying to Sell Spectacles. "The meanest job of my life days," said a millionaire, "was spectacle peddling. I still see the sad and scornful looks, I still hear the reproachful outcries, which that work brought down on me."

A Curious Army Toast. Of all the British regiments the Welsh fusiliers have the most curious army toast. It forms part of the ceremony of the grand dinner given annually on St. David's day.

No Place For Dogs. Is it impossible in Japan to keep a good dog? I have twice had my dogs disappear in a seemingly miraculous way. As I am well aware that there is a great demand for dogskins, especially those of young dogs, we have been careful in having our dog watched.

The World is Learning. Briggs—Do you believe that the world is divided into two classes, those who borrow and those who lend? Griggs—No, sir. My experience is that two other classes are much more prevalent—those who want to borrow and those who won't lend.—Life.

Insomnia. Insomnia is the not uncommon fate of the brain worker who after years of continuous mental strain retires from active life. The reason is that mental activity demands a large supply of blood for the brain, and the blood vessels gradually accommodate themselves to this large supply. But when the hard work is over the brain does not always realize that it needs less nourishment, and hence the condition of excessive mental activity which is what insomnia is.—London Mail.

Suspicious. The Warden—Excuse me, the members of the choir are going to ask for more money. The Sidesman—Why? The Warden—For the last two Sundays they have been listening to the sermon.—Illustrated Bits.

A Striking Misapprehension. Officer—Excuse me, man; there goes eight bells. It's my watch on deck. Mrs. Lansman—Well, I don't deck you for keeping your watch on deck if it strikes as loudly as that.—Harper's Weekly.

A Limited Luxury. Two Irishmen were discussing the phenomenon of sleep. Said one, "O! bear as wan as thin poetry kids calls it 'bald nature's hair restorator.'"

Two Irishmen were discussing the phenomenon of sleep. Said one, "O! bear as wan as thin poetry kids calls it 'bald nature's hair restorator.'"

WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE, Westminster, Maryland. FORTY-SECOND YEAR OPENS SEPTEMBER 16th, 1908.

PERFECTLY SAFE, where your sons and daughters are surrounded by the best moral and religious influence; where pure mountain air and water keep them healthy, and where new buildings equipped in modern fashion house them in comfort.

Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., L. L. D., Pres.

VIRGINIA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE. (State Agricultural and Mechanical College.)

At BLACKSBURG, VA. Fifty-five instructors, thoroughly equipped shops, laboratories and infirmary. Steam heating and electric lights in dormitories.

College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia.

Geo. W. Gillespie, Mappsville, Va., Agent

If you are interested in Life Insurance

Also have any intention of taking out ORDINARY LIFE, or LIMITED PAYMENT POLICY, see or write to Geo. W. Gillespie, Mappsville, Va., Agent

Eastern Shore Fire Insurance Co. in Upper Parish.

NEW YORK, PHILA., & NORFOLK R.R. Train Schedule in Effect Jan. 6, 1908.

Table with columns for South-Bound Trains, North-Bound Trains, and Philadelphia, Pa. Trains. Includes destinations like New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore.

R. B. COOKE, Traffic Manager. J. G. RODGERS, Superintendent

Carriage Emporium Now Open at BELLE HAVEN, VA.

—With a Fine Line of—

Top Buggies, Surreys, Phaetons, Runabouts, Speed Carts, Single and Double Wagons.

GROCERIES. A new line of Staple GROCERIES just received and for sale at small margin of profit.

Our motto "Quick sales and small profits." Your patronage solicited. JAS. S. DRUMMOND, Grangeville, Va.

MARTIN & MASON CO, Harborton Va.

MARTIN & MASON CO, Harborton Va.

Sale Begins Saturday, August 1st. and Ends Saturday, August 15th.

This is a Cash Sale.

H. MERRILL COMPANY, "One Price Clothiers," Pocomoke City, Md.