Lesson XIII.—Fourth Quarter, For Dec. 29, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, a Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Golden Text, John vii, 17—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

LESSON I.—Jesus walking on the sea. Mark vi, 45-56. Golden Text, Matt. xiv, 27. "Straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid." He often sends or leads His own into trouble that He may reveal Himself more fully to them. He is always in prayer for us and always sees our toll and is never un-mindful of us. If we had ears to hear we might often hear Him say the words of the Golden Text.

LESSON II.—Clean and unclean. Mark vii, 1-13. Golden Text, Rom. xiv, 17. "For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost." It is not the outward that counts before God if the heart is not right. There must be that which men can see, but it must proceed from a new heart and a clean heart, a new birth from God by the Spirit and the word, Christ our righteousness in the heart.

LESSON III.—Mission to the gentiles. Mark vii, 24-30; Matt. xiii, 5-13. Golden Text, John vi, 37. "Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out." The stories of the Roman centurion and the Syrophenician woman take us outside of Israel and carry us back to the queen of Sheba and all kings who came to Solomon because of the Lord to hear His wisdom and to bring Him gifts, for the Lord was heard and worshipped through Solomon.

LESSON IV.—Wanderings in Decapolis. Mark vii, 31 to viii, 10. Golden Text, Mark vii, 37. "He hath done all things well. He maketh both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak." Whenever mouth and ears are yielded to Him He can give power to speak and hear. He said to a prophet at one time, "When I speak with thee I will open thy mouth" (Ezek. iii, 27). As to the hungry, them He filleth with good things (Luke i, 53; vi, 21).

LESSON V.—The sign and the leaven. Mark viii, 11-26. Golden Text, John viii, 12 (R. V.). "Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world." * * * Bread for the body seemed more real to them than food for the soul. They were unbelieving and therefore more or less blind. Their eyes and ears did not profit them as they should. False doctrine abounded then, as now, and we must take heed what we hear and how.

LESSON VI.—World's temperance Sunday. Hos. vii. Golden Text, Isa. v, 11 (R. V.). "Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink, that tarry late into the night till wine inflame them!" Hosea was contemporary with Isaiah (Hos. i, 1; Isa. i, 1), and both were faithful messengers of the Lord against the sin of drunkenness. But we must not forget the drunkenness without wine (Isa. xlii, 9).

LESSON VII.—The great question. Mark viii, 27 to ix, 1. Golden Text, Matt. xvi, 16. "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Simon Peter, speaking at one time from God and at another from the devil (verse 33 and Matt. xvi, 17), should make us consider who it is that is using us. While eternal life is the free gift of God, the cost of discipleship is the whole hearted renunciation of self.

LESSON VIII.—The transfiguration. Mark ix, 1-13. Golden Text, Luke ix, 35 (R. V.). "A voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My Son, My chosen; hear ye Him." * * * This scene set forth the kingdom in miniature. The Son of Man glorified; the risen and translated saints represented by Moses and Elijah; a righteous Israel represented by Peter, James and John, and at the foot of the mount the devil about to be cast out.

LESSON IX.—The lunatic boy. Mark ix, 14-29. Golden Text, Mark ix, 23 (R. V.). "And Jesus said unto him: If thou canst! All things are possible to him that believeth." The whole church is as powerless to bind the devil and cast him out of the earth as were these disciples to deal with that demon possessed boy. But when Jesus shall come in His glory He will cast him into the pit for 1,000 years.

LESSON X.—The child in the midst. Matt. xviii, 1-14. Golden Text, Matt. xviii, 10. "In heaven their angels do always behold the face of My Father which is in heaven." To enter the kingdom which is yet to be set up and fill the whole earth one must come as empty and helpless as a babe and trusting fully Him who calls us. Then we can never perish and may ever have the guardianship of the angels who behold the face of God.

LESSON XI.—Forgiveness. Matt. xviii, 15-35. Golden Text, Eph. iv, 32 (R. V.). "Be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you." Having become children of God and having in Him eternal redemption, the forgiveness of sins by His precious blood, it is our privilege to enjoy continually the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit.

LESSON XII.—Christmas lesson. Isa. ix, 1-7. Golden Text, Isa. ix, 6. "Unto us a child is born; unto us a son is given." Encourage all to believe all that is said of Him, and that as truly as He was born of a virgin in Bethlehem so truly shall He sit on David's throne and rule Israel and all nations and establish on earth a kingdom of peace and righteousness.
